"It is an opportunity for us to express our appreciation to Dr. Dial," Lowery said. "He has only served for one session, but he was faced with some serious issues, the re-districting included, and he handled the situation with great dignity and courage. It was a stressful time for Dr. Dial," Lowery continued. "And we just want to recognize his efforts and publicly say thank you."

Wrestlequake II coming to Fairmont Middle School

Last spring in the Fairmont Middle School Gym there were howls, groans and grunts, but it wasn't students who were in pain. The loud sounds were coming from some very big men, pro wrestlers, who were engaged in mat warfare with their rivals. Those spectators who were in attendance will attest to the fact that the event was indeed a success. Now the much awaited for return of Wrestlequake II has been scheduled for Saturday, December 7th, a date which certainly has a note of history of its own. Sponsored by the Fairmont High School Social Studies Department with assistance from Star Furniture and other progressively minded businesses, this event promises to be bigger and better than last spring's match. The wrestlers will find new surroundings this time with the event scheduled for the new gymnasium at Fairmont High School on Golf Course Road.

t.v. wrestlers will fill out the card which promises to have some excitement for fans, old and young. The matches begin at 7:30 p.m. and will be emceed by the very well known radio d.j. from the mix-96 Morning Zoo, Tank Sherman. A concession stand will be open for refreshments. There will also be wrestling materials and autographs will be available.

Tickets are now on sale at the following locations: Kimbrells Furniture in Lumberton; Pembroke Drug Center in Pembroke, Discount Video in downtown Fairmont, and from the Fairmont High School Office. There are only a limited supply of ringside seats while general admission and children's tickets may be purchased for the bleachers.

A portion of the proceeds from this event will be used by the Social Studies Department to purchase video equipment and supplies for their teaching needs. The public of Robeson County is encouraged and welcome to a night of excitement and thrills because this time "they're on the warpath."

Featured wrestlers in Wrestlequake II are Chris "War Eagle" Chavis who recently signed with the World Wrestling Federation and will soon be in New York City, the very popular Chief Wahoo McDaniel, and the Raging Bull Manny Fernandez. Other popular and well known Rowland - A Robeson County man was recently convicted here and handed an eight-month suspended sentence for violating the North Carolina structural pest control law.

Nash Dennis Britt of 607 E. Jackson St. pleaded guilty October 25 in Robeson County District Court to the misdemeanor charge.

State Agriculture Commissioner Jim Graham said the case stemmed from an investigation by the N.C. Department of Agriculture's Structural Pest Control Division.
