A majority of the old pictures have come from the late Elmer Hunt, who for decades took photographs of PSU and the area. They were made available to PSU by Bill Hunt, his son and, like Elmer Hunt, a former PSU photographer.

"Copies of most of these pictures will be available for purchase," said Thompson. "There will be 5x7 pictures for $2.50 and 8x10 pictures for $10. Those prices are very reasonable."

Thompson said she is very excited about the exhibition. "It is a rare opportunity for the PSU community and alumni to view and purchase photographs of historical and general interest," said Thompson.

Baptist Student Union Plans Big Golden Anniversary
Ron Sanders, PSU Baptist campus minister since 1987, is making elaborate plans for the PSU Baptist Student Union's Golden Anniversary celebration Feb. 8.

It will take place at the Baptist Student Union, nicknamed "The House," with a program starting at 11 a.m. and a free lunch provided by the Brotherhood of Fairmont's First Baptist Church at noon. Former PSU Baptist Student Union members, PSU alumni, and friends of the BSU have open invitations.

The Baptist State Convention has written to churches state-wide, inviting representatives who volunteered to work on "The House" when it was built in 1981 to attend the occasion. Baptist men from all over the state came to Pembroke during that time to build the structure. They were quartered at Berea Baptist Church in Pembroke while the work went on.

Among those invited to be on the program Feb. 8 are Rev. Glen Holt of Fayetteville's First Baptist Church, who is president of the Baptist State Convention; Bill Brisson of Parkton, a foreman on the project; and Winston Hardman, PSU Baptist campus minister during the time the building was constructed. Hardman is now Baptist campus minister at Western Carolina University.

Rev. Glen Holt

Several PSU alumni who participated in the PSU Baptist Student Union in the different decades since 1940 are also to be on the program. A slide presentation is also planned. For more information or reservations, telephone COLLECT (919)521-8777.

Class of '52 Plans 40th Reunion

The Rev. H.L. (Lindy) Martin, pastor of First Baptist Church in Vincent, Ala., is leading in planning the 40th reunion of the PSU class of '52. Martin was president of that class of 27 students, of whom only 12 are living.

The class reunion is scheduled at 3 p.m. in room 251 of the Chavis Center. Thereafter, the class will proceed to the Alumni Awards Banquet downstairs. "We want to catch up on one another's lives, answer questions and give confessions," jested Martin.

heritage as an American because of my Lumbee family. The Lumbees deserve the full recognition that other tribes in America receive.

Although I was raised in Chicago, Illinois by my Irish-American father and my Lumbee mother, my Native American kinfolk have always been involved in our lives. Many of them, including my grandmother, would stay with us in Chicago when I was a growing child. Often, we would visit "down home" and usually one of the kids would spend summers in Lumberton, NC. The influences of the Lumbee culture and values are a part of me. The life of the Lumbees is unique and rich with culture. This culture is one that must be preserved in America. The bill before Congress for Lumbee recognition will enhance the lives of the Lumbee people and assist our people with the support they need.

Mr. President, the resources of America are many. Chief among these is our people. Preserving the lifeblood of America means preserving our people and assisting them as we move into the 21st century. While America supports people the world over, please consider us, American people, Native Americans, as paramount in our desire for recognition. The Lumbees are a part of the fabric of this country. We are a reflection of America's backbone...a quality resource that you can help preserve!

As a San Diego, California resident, I praise your efforts as President. San Diego has a large Native American population. Lumbees are here and across the country helping in our personal and professional lives with the plight of the Indian. We seek your help now!

Respectfully,
CALVIN B. GAVIN [of the Canady-Bell Lumbee family]

"I Can't Believe You Only Charge 9.4% Interest On Your Credit Cards."

"Welcome To Wachovia."

If your current credit accounts have a higher annual percentage rate than Wachovia's Prime Plus VISA or MasterCard, we can help you save a lot on interest payments. In fact, a Wachovia Personal Banker™ can even show you how to transfer your current high-rate balance to Wachovia's lower-rate Prime Plus cards and begin saving immediately. For example, if you transferred a $1,500 balance from an account charging 19.8%, you'd save $156 in finance charges over the next year alone. So if you're paying more than 9.4%* for credit, stop by and talk with a Personal Banker at any Wachovia branch today. And welcome to one of the best credit card rates available. Welcome to Wachovia.

WACHOVIA

Member FDIC. *The APR may vary monthly. The rate will be 2.9% plus the "Prime Rate" as published in The Wall Street Journal on the 15th day of each month. Annual membership fee is $39 for regular cards, $49 for gold cards. Transaction fee for cash advances is 4%, $3 minimum. Issued by Wachovia Bank Card Services.
