Why People Fail In Financial Planning

1. Procrastination.
2. Failure to establish a goal.
3. Ignorance of what money must do to accomplish a financial goal.
4. Failure to understand and apply current tax laws.
5. Purchase of the wrong kind of life insurance.
6. Failure to develop a winning financial attitude.

Successful Money Management Seminars help people develop financial plans, incorporating individual objectives, assets, taxes, income, debts, and family needs.

At the end of the seminar all participants will have the working knowledge required to become financially independent and, in many cases, even wealthy.

Procrastinate no longer. Enroll today in the Successful Money Management Seminar.

Discover Many Successful Money Management Tips

Successful Money Management Seminars are designed to present the most current information on each and every available financial planning tool in an easy-to-understand manner. To appropriately accomplish its purpose, each seminar is divided into four comprehensive sessions, providing a total of 12 hours in all. An optional session comprises a free personal financial planning appointment with a professional planner to provide each participant an opportunity to initiate an individualized financial plan.

Ed Johnson Brings Successful Money Management Series To Robeson In March And April

The nationally acclaimed Successful Money Management Seminar will come to the Robeson County area beginning Monday, March 23, 1992, at the O. P. Owens Extension Auditorium, Highway 72, Lumberton; and Thursday, March 26, 1992, at Flora Macdonald Academy, Red Springs. Classes are scheduled to run from 6:30 til 9:30 p.m.

Open to all who seek financial independence, the seminar will be locally presented by Ed Johnson, President of Ed Johnson Financial Group, Inc. As a professional planner, Johnson combines community expertise and preference with national trends and forces to ensure current and accurate insights into our changing economic times.

"The Successful Money Management Seminar series is the most comprehensive program of its kind," says Johnson. "It provides every attendee with the basics of financial planning, then thoroughly explores the investment options available to implement each individualized plan. There is no better way to assimilate all of the information presented than through this seminar."
