Whereas, the fifty governors and the President of the United States have affirmed education's importance by establishing our six national education goals; and

Whereas, America's public schools remain the chief vehicle for turning the dreams of our nation's students into realities; and

Whereas, the learning environment has changed over the past decade and deserves a re-examination as well as a re-evaluation,

Now Therefore, I Milton R. Hunt, Mayor of the Town of Pembroke, do hereby proclaim November 15-21, 1992 to be "American Education Week."

Community Clean Up Day Planned at Historic Site

The renovation of the first Indian high school has become a community effort. The historic site is being preserved by members of the community and is being coordinated by Indian Solidarity. The organization has leased the building for the purpose of preservation and to establish an American Indian Center for Community Development.

Indian Solidarity will sponsor a community clean up day on Saturday, November 14, beginning at 8 a.m. Community persons will be encouraged to help clean the yards, clean up the buildings and replace glass that has been broken through vandalism. The event will coincide with National Volunteer Day. Sam Kerns, community volunteer and member of Indian Solidarity, is overseeing the renovation of the property.

Community persons have donated time and effort in the renovation effort since July. The main building will house the Native American Resource Center from the Title V Program of the Public Schools of Robeson County.

Special thanks is offered to the following for their contributions to the effort: Ronnie Elk of Elk's Drywall; LOF Glass of Laurinburg; Mayor Milton Hunt and the Town of Pembroke; Willie Harris and the Pembroke Jaycees; Broughton Oxendine and the IEA Parent Committee; commissioner Noah Woods; Florence Ransom and the Robeson County Community Services Program; Cecil Hunt and the Tuscarora Tribe of North Carolina; Lacy Jacobs and the Pembroke Recreation Commission; Rudy Paul and the Robeson County Recreation Department; Tony Clark and the Lumbee-Cheraw Dancers; and many others.

Representatives of these groups and other interested persons will be on hand Saturday at the site for Community Clean Up day. Indian Solidarity will feature a pig picking as a means of saying thank you to the many persons who have helped with the project.

Art Work from Pembroke Elementary School and Union Chapel School is on display at First Union National Bank. The display includes work that was recognized as winners at the Robeson County Visual Art Competition. Pictured is Mabel Capel, art instructor, and Frank Daughtry, of FUNB.
