

A $10,000 Serpent And Going Before Pharaoh Today

I believe Moses never knew what he had when he was walking around prodding sheep with his staff, until God got it a hold. When God told him to lay it on the ground and it became a serpent then he realized what the Lord could do with a simple shepherd's staff. Pictured above is Evangelist Billy Locklear, Brother

Billy is fixing to stretch out his staff. His staff the rolled up cable in the wooden spool he is standing side of is a 450 ft. 3 inch, TV Broadcasting cable. The cable will be "stretched out" on his TV stations, Channel 17, High altitude TV Tower. The cable will be attached to 4 sending antenna that will broadcast to 4 sending antenna that will broadcast in the 4 direction, North, South, East and West.

Brother Billy will also be increasing his wattage and sending out a stronger signal. Just as Moses was in the wilderness trying to lead the children of Israel to the promise land, Brother Billy's TV. Tower stands in the mists of the wilderness know as Robeson County. As Moses lead the Tribe of Israel, Brother Billy tires to lead the tribe of Lumbees, Tuscarora, Robeson Cherokees, Hatteras Tuscarora, Cheraws, and others to higher heights and deeper depths in the Lord.

I believe Brother Billy could use the Jethro principle here. Not the Jethro on the Beverly Hill Billy's who use to cipher and say "Ought from ought leaves ought, two ought from ought leave ought, and what you ought to do you ought to do", but the Jethro that was his father-in-law, that told him to set up a chain-of-command.

Get some lieutenants, like the lieutenant at Harper's Ferry, Scyamore Hill, First Methodist, Sandy Plains, Mt. Elem, Brother Claudie on the stormy seas, South Broadway, and several others, what it comes down to is supporting and following the leader. I'm sure the tribes of Robeson would very much enjoy and rejoice to see some of these lieutenants on Channel 17. Why even one of the head ropers like Brother Mike Cummings would look good on Channel 17 and don't forget about Brother Bruce at Berea either.

Well the promise land lay before us, will we bring back a good report when we spy out the promise land or are we going to keep singing the same old tune?

"There are giants in the land, here a giant, there are giants, everywhere a giant, giant." Aren't you Robeson Redmen and Redwomen tired of the wilderness. Don't you want the fruits of the "Promise Land". Happy homes, saved husbands and wives, obedient Children, honest friends, and trustworthy and kind folks. Support Brother Billy, because you are really supporting yourselves when you do. You know why? Because Brother Billy believes that Jesus is Our only Hope, and with Jesus we can make it. And don't forget Brother Billy is a member of the tribe, he is a Locklear you know. Remember too, To keep straight as an arrow for JESUS, straight as an Arrow. Just like the fine folks at the Carolina Indian Voice are straight as an arrow. May God Bless all the tribes and keep you safe in his Everlasting Love. See you in Heaven and on Channel 7. The Dallas Cowboys To Win It All

The easy win over a good Philadelphia team shows how strong the Cowboys' defense really is. Dallas beat them 34-10. Experience is supposed to be on the sides of Buffalo, Miami and San Francisco but you can't top youth with its hustle, desire and the best rated defense of the Cowboys. San Francisco has been the best team of the 80's but the Dallas Cowboys will be starting their "Dynasty of the 90s." Watch my word. Defense, the desire to block and tackle is the sure winner for Dallas.

Buffalo may loose to Miami on Sunday because Marv Levy just doesn't seem to give Frank Reich a chance to tart when he deserves to start. Going with Jim Kelly with his banged up knee and having been out of competition for three weeks just isn't right. Frank Reich did a magnificent job against Houston, coming back from being down 35 to 3 and winning in overtime. Marv Levy may "gum-it-up" by not starting Frank Reich. Buffalo plays good, steady football with Frank Reich at quarterback.

Marino was great against San Diego with no interceptions while Humphries threw 4 interceptions. Miami still struggles to win but has beaten Buffalo once and lost to Buffalo once but this Sunday's AFC game is a Home game for Miami and Buffalo won't have to play in the cold, chill, or Buffalo Rich Stadium.

It should be a great game with Kenny Davis getting stronger as a good replacement for Thurman Thomas with his injured hip pointer. It's a toss-up. The winner going to the Super Bowl. But Dallas is my pick to win it all.
