County of Robeson
In the General Court of Justice Superior Court Division Before the Clerk in the matter of the adoption of Brandon Edwin Jones by Lucy Evans Jones, Jr. and Verlyn T.
Jones

To: Edward Florez, Father of Brandon Edwin Jones, Minor

Take Notice that a pleading seeking relief against you has been filed in the above entitled special proceeding. The nature of the proceeding and the relief sought is to secure a judicial determination and order that you have relinquished all parental rights to your minor child, Brandon Edwin Jones, who is under the age of eighteen years, in that your parental rights have not been judicially established or acknowledged by affidavit nor has the child been legitimated by marriage in accordance with North Carolina General Statutes 49-10 nor have you provided financial support or consistent care with respect to the mother and the minor child and as a result thereof, you have relinquished all parental rights to said minor child within the meaning of North Carolina Statutes 48-5; the petitioner's further request that your consent for the adoption of said child be made unnecessary by reason of such relinquishment.

You are required to make defense to such pleading no later than the 2nd day of March, 1994, and upon your failure to do so the party seeking relief against you will apply to the Court for the relief sought.

This the 20th day of January, 1994,

Kiwanis Clubs Celebrate 79 Years of Community Service

(DM)—As Kiwanis International celebrates its 79th birthday on January 21, 1994, members of this worldwide community service organization are placing special emphasis on the needs of young children, from prenatal development to age five.
This major service initiative, called "Young Children: Priority One," includes a variety of public awareness programs that seek to highlight the health and safety needs of infants and young children.

"All Their Shots, While They're Tots" is the slogan for a major public education campaign on infant immunization. Up to 60 percent of young children in some city neighborhoods and rural areas have not been inoculated for common but dangerous childhood diseases.

"A growing number of small children are suffering disability and even death from contagious diseases that are totally preventable by immunization," says Kiwanis International President Arthur D. Swanberg of Dallas, Texas. "It may be too late if parents wait until children reach school age. Our slogan provides the best advice: all their shots while they're tots."

Kiwanis clubs are publicizing the need to immunize every child by age two with billboards along highways and city streets, and posters for window and indoor display. Payroll inserts and postal meter imprints also carry the Kiwanis immunization message.

A few months ago, U.S. President Bill Clinton helped to boost the Kiwanis campaign with 30-second spots for television and radio and public-service ads in major magazines such as National Geographic.

All their shots

while they're tots

A Public service sponsored by your local Kiwanis club.

Kiwanis clubs are playing a leading role in statewide immunization coalitions and campaigns from California and Texas to Florida and the Carolinas.

The first Kiwanis club was organized in Detroit, Michigan, in 1915.
Kiwanis International marks its 79th anniversary with 9,000 clubs and 320,000 members in more than 80 nations. During the past year, these clubs conducted more than 150,000 different community service projects, for which they raised and spent some $65 million.

The Kiwanis motto is "We Build." In addition to a wide variety of community service projects, many Kiwanis clubs also sponsor youth organizations that provide opportunities for young people to become involved in service to school and community.

Kiwanis-sponsored Key Clubs are active in more than 4,000 high schools in the United States, Canada, and a growing number of other nations. Some 500 college campuses have Kiwanis-sponsored Circle K clubs. Kiwanis International's newest youth group, Builders Club, now has groups in 1,350 junior high and middle schools.

"Kiwanis clubs continue to serve every kind of community need through voluntary action," says Swanberg. "But one important way to build better communities is to support and encourage the next generation of citizens. That's what Kiwanis is doing through Young Children: Priority One and our outstanding organizations for teens and young adults."

We'll Treat You Like An Old Friend...

In Fact, For Many, Our Dr. Frank Worriax Is Just That

There's good reason for many in Robeson County to consider Dr. Frank Worriax as an old friend. After all, he is a native son. Born and raised here and educated at Pembroke State University. His medical education took him to Duke University for a period of time, but after completing his internship and residency there,

Dr. Worriax came back home.
Since 1979, he has been in private practice.
And since March, he has focused his skills here at Doctor's Urgent Care Centre.
Here, he is able to care for friends, family and neighbors when they need him most... whether it's day or night.
