

MARY LIVERMORE LIBRARY
PEMBROKE STATE UNIV.
NC 28572-

172

1720

CAROLINA Indian Voice

"Promoting Communications Between Indians and Nations"

Pembroke, NC
Robeson County

VOLUME 21 NUMBER 9

THURSDAY, MARCH 3, 1994

25¢ PER COPY

News Briefs

Recently Mrs. Mildred Maynor, Supervisor with Public Schools of Robeson County had a nutrition class for Mrs. Brooks preschool class at Piney Grove School. She had her puppet, Combo the Chef, and Mrs. Baldwin, cafeteria manager to assist.

She spoke on where and how we get our food. The students fixed breakfast and lunch trays after the session. Mrs. Baldwin served each student a cookie made with a new recipe using only egg whites instead of the whole egg.

Piney Grove

kitchen

Recently Linda Baldwin, the cafeteria manager at Piney Grove School, had a kitchen tour for Mrs. Lisa Hester's kindergarten class. The children enjoyed seeing the storage room, the big steam kettle, stoves, and the freezer. Pictured from left to right are Mrs. Linda Baldwin, Corey Jacobs, Nicholas Freeman, China Lowery, Kayla Revels, and Matthew Norris.

USS Floyd B Parks Reunion

From Herbert J. Tartt
My former ship USS Floyd B. Parks (DD884) is holding its second reunion in Myrtle Beach, SC. On Sept. 9-10-11, 1994, a Reunion will be held for all former shipmates that were on Board the USS Floyd B. Parks (DD884) from 1945 to 1973 in Myrtle Beach, SC. For more information Contact: Herbert J. Tartt 421 Normandy Dr. Wilmington, NC 28412 or Phone (910) 452-4395.

Kite Rodeo Slated

March winds are on their way. Join in on the kite rodeo Saturday, March 12th at 2:00 p.m. Make it a family affair and enter in competitions like the highest flyer, the loop to loop, messenger race, most colorful, most original kite and more! Prizes will be awarded. Competition open to all ages. Competition in three age categories: Youth (12 and under), teen (13 - 18) and adult (19+). Kite rodeo will take place at Carroll Middle School. Instructions on how to make a kite can be picked up at the Bill Sapp Center Monday - Friday, 8:00 - 5:00. Registration will also be taken at the Bill Sapp Center through March 11th and from 2:00 - 2:30 at the Middle School the day of the event. Sponsored by the Lumberton Recreation Department

Hopewell Methodist Church plans plate sale

Hopewell Methodist Church will hold their annual plate sale at Union Elementary School on March 12, 1994. The sale will begin at 11 a.m. and last until 7 p.m. Plates will be on sale for $4.00 each. The public is encouraged to attend.

Senior Citizens of Saddletree Church of God Sponsor Plate Sale

Senior Citizen at Saddletree Church of God are having a plate sale. March 18, starting at 11:00 a.m. until 7 p.m. March 19, starting 11:00 a.m. until 3 p.m. Home cooked Bar-B-Que, Fried and Grilled Chicken Plates are $4.00 a plate. The plate sale will be located at the Fellowship hall. For more information call (910) 739-3158 or 843-8194. Also the Singing Shepherds will be special guest at our monthly singing on March 13, 1994 beginning at 2:30 p.m.

The Changing Faces of Aids Conference to be Held

The North Carolina Office of Minority Health and the N.C. Minority Health Advisory Council will be holding a very important conference on Tuesday, April 26, titled "The Changing Faces of AIDS." This conference will be held at Johnson C. Smith University in Charlotte and should be of interest to anyone who is concerned about the spread of HIV in minority communities. Those interested in attending the conference should call (919) 966-4032.

Rose's Mobile Office to visit

The mobile office of Congressman Charlie Rose will return to Robeson County Wednesday, March 9, 1994, with stops at the following post offices: Fairmont, 9:00am - 11:00am and Rowland, 12:00pm - 2:00pm. A representative of Rose's office will be available for conference at those locations. Appointments are not necessary.

Anyone having a problem with a federal agency, such as social security, veterans administration, etc. or wishing to express an opinion regarding federal legislation is invited to visit the mobile office.

Amy Locklear Crown Miss PSU Homecoming Queen

Amy Locklear of Maxton, a freshman physical education major at Pembroke State University who is the Peach Belt Conference women's cross country champion, was crowned PSU's 1994 homecoming queen here Saturday night during halftime of the PSU-USC Spartanburg men's basketball game.

She is the daughter of Eva M. Locklear and the late Bobby Locklear.

She was sponsored by Phi Kappa Tau Fraternity and won over eight other contestants in campus wide voting for queen. First runner up was Kisha Dumas of Fairmont, and second runner up was Sherril Latham of Bladenboro. Like the queen, she received a trophy and a bouquet of flowers.

A dark blonde with shoulder length hair, Amy has hazel eyes, stands 5'6" in height and weighs 129 pounds.

Not only was the conference women's cross country champion, she made the NCAA Division II All Southeastern Regional Cross Country Team. She was only one place away from qualifying as a freshman for the NCAA Division II national cross country meet.

Quinton Mills to lead Youth Seminars at Prospect UMC

Prospect United Methodist Church will hold its Annual Spring Renewal on March 12-18. Quinton Mills (Evangelist/Singer) will lead Youth Seminars on Sunday Night, March 12, 7:00 p.m. through Wednesday Night March 15, 7:30 p.m. The week of services will end with two nights of Evangelist meetings.

The Evangelism chairperson Mr. Dell Harris and Pastor Rev. Bill James Locklear invites you to join them for this special week with Mr. Quinton Mills.

"Cann" Chavis honored by PSHS

Mr. William "Cann" Chavis was honored by the Purnell Swett High School Ram Singers at the Wednesday night basketball game against Hoke County February 23.

At halftime, Mrs. Ellen Jackson, chorus teacher of PSHS, and the Ram Singers proudly paid tribute to Mr. Cann Chavis for his deep concern and support that he had displayed towards them. "He has been a champion. I've given him credit for helping us", quotes Mrs. Jackson.

Mr. Cann was honored with a boutique of roses, a plaque which read, "The Best Friend Ram Singers Ever Had", and a Ram Singers Sweatshirt. Landon Woods, and Allison Boutselious, both seniors, presented a basketball with signatures of coaches and athletes, and athletic booster club president John Lowry, presented a $200.00 scholarship fund on behalf of Mr. Cann to be presented to a student who wishes to go to college.

Mrs. Jackson escorted Mr. Cann in the presence of the Ram Singers as they sang to him "My wish for You."

Larry Rodgers, PSU cross country coach, says, "Before Amy graduates she certainly has the potential to qualify for the national meet and to make All-American."

Amy also is a private first class in the Army National Guard, joining as a 12th grader. With her cross country track scholarship at PSU and the money she draws as a member of the National Guard, she is able to pay her expenses through college.

Amy credits Julius Meekins, a former PSU track All-American, with inspiring her to run track in high school. "He encouraged me and remains one of my heroes," she said.

"My goal is to reach the nationals and to make All-American. I believe I have the desire to do so," Amy continued. During cross country season, she runs five miles a day.

As for being chosen homecoming queen, Amy said, "I was surprised and had no idea I would be chosen. I was so nervous -- and when my name was announced, there were tears in my eyes."

Amy said her mother could not be present because of attending a relative's funeral, but that her sisters, Donna (a PSU graduate) and Vanessa (a Purnell Swett High School junior) were present.

Amy's escort was Mark Jandreau of Fayetteville.

A graduate of Purnell Swett High School, Amy Locklear while there was all state in cross country and track and also a North Carolina Scholar.

She is a member of Pines Grove Holiness Church of Raeford and enjoys meeting new people and talking to friends.

Miss Lumbee to Compete in National Miss USA Pageant March 8-13

Natascha Wagoner, the reigning Miss Lumbee, will represent the Lumbee tribe at the Seventh National Miss Indian USA Pageant. The pageant will be held March 8-13 in Washington, D.C. During this traditional pageant contestants will be judged on traditional regalia, a two-part interview, and on a cultural presentation.

During the traditional regalia competition, Miss Wagoner will wear the traditional Lumbee regalia shown in the above photograph. The dress was designed by Hays A. Locklear, the patchwork (placemat) design was handstitched by Cynthia Lowry. The regalia that Miss Lumbee is wearing is the same design worn by Lumbee women in the 1800s.

The National Miss Indian USA Pageant is sponsored by the American Indian Heritage Foundation, Princess Pale Moon director. The winner of the pageant will receive a $7,000 scholarship and other prizes and awards. She will also reside in Washington, DC for a year and work at the Foundation. National Miss Indian USA will have the opportunity for extensive travel, both nationally and abroad.

Miss Wagoner is a junior at Campbell University majoring in psychology. She plans to return to Pembroke State University after this semester and earn her degree in Native American Studies.

She is the daughter of Nyra Wagoner and Glenn Jacobs of Pembroke.

Robeson Native Promoted to Master Sergeant in Army

Ruth Elaine Brooks Vollmar has been promoted from Sergeant First Class to Master Sergeant with the United States Army. The ceremony was held recently in Washington, D.C. The commemoration presented to her stated: "The Secretary of the Army has reposed special trust and confidence and valor of professional excellence of Ruth Elaine Brooks Vollmar. In view of these qualities demonstrated leadership and dedicated service to the United States Army, she is therefore promoted from Sergeant First Class to Master Sergeant." She was promoted by Col. Donald Faint.

Attending the ceremony was her mother, Mrs. Leucie Brooks of Route 1, Pembroke. M.Sgt. Vollmar is stationed at Fort Belvoir, Virginia. She is married to Judy Vollmar of Wisconsin and they have three children: Jennifer, Jessica and Christopher. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John C. Brooks of Route 1, Pembroke. She has been in the military for 20 years. She is shown receiving her stripe as her mother looks on.