Job Vacancy

Job Title: Executive Director
Salary Range: $32,172.00 - $43,320.00

Example of Duties: An employee in this position is the administrator of the housing program. The range of duties is wide and they are performed through both general and specific delegation by the Board of Commissioners. The employee exercises independent judgement, limited by review and general policies determined by the Board of Commissioners. The employee in this position formulates the operating procedures from the housing program of the Authority and recommends changes in policy to the Board. Supervision is exercised over all staff. Through frequent conferences and contacts with the Department of Housing and Urban Development, City and County officials and department heads, employee keeps informed and abreast of current and projected developments in the Authority program. Thorough knowledge of Housing Authority principals and practices, with considerable knowledge of public personnel and financial administration. Ability to write clear and concise reports, memorandums, directives and letters. Ability to meet the public and discuss problems and complaints tactfully, courteously and effectively.

Qualifications: Considerable experience in Business or Public Administration, preferably in Housing Authority setting. Graduation from a four-year College or University majoring in business/public administration, or a related field; or an equivalent combination of experience and training. Must have a Public Housing Certification and possession of a valid North Carolina driving permit for duration of employment. The job description will be available in the personnel office for review.

Applications can be obtained at: Robeson County Administration Building, Personnel Office, 701 N Elm St., Lumberton, NC (910) 671-3020. Application will be accepted from 8:15 a.m. - 5:15 p.m. through Friday, June 3, 1994. Robeson County is an Equal Opportunity Employer.
