A few weeks ago when the candidates begin in earnest to file for the Tribal Chairman seat, there was a frenzy of discussion about all the ministers that had filed to run. Someone said that there would be a lot of division and backbiting going on. But we are drawing down to the final hours before the election and I am very glad to report, that none of the feared divisiveness has occurred. We were brothers in Christ when we began and we will be brothers in Christ when the Tribal Chairman is seated, whoever it may be. I truly love and repeat all Seven Candidates.

This being the situation, having stated my position, let me be very candid about a couple of things, that I feel is very important. One candidate seems to feel that he single handedly can deliver the Lumbee Bill. Well I don't feel that any one candidate has that kind of clout, if he had why has he not delivered before now. Others talk about what they will do for business and jobs creation but they have never been in business, I haven't created the first job.

Others would lead you to think that they have all the answers and could solve all the problems as Tribal Chairman.

Again let me be very candid, I don't have all the answers, I've never been Tribal Chairman before, neither have they, who ever is elected, its going to be a learning process, for the Chairman as well the council. Mistakes will be made you can be assured of that.

I can't deliver the Lumbee Bill single handedly, but I promise to continue to work, raise money, write letters, make phone calls, and personally go to Washington to work for it. Even if I'm not elected because I feel that strongly about it.

I presented my platform before any of the other candidates many of them has since came forward with some of the same planks in their platform that I submitted early on in the campaign, some others are still vague about just what they will do if elected.

I tried to be honest and forthright from the beginning, when I said I supported the constitution, my record attest to that fact when I said I would work to bring in industry and create jobs, that was backed up when I invested more than One Half million dollars in Pembroke and First American, and created jobs and services that had been long over due to the Indian community. A lot of people had talked about setting up a concrete plant in Pembroke, but I did it.

My work on the Culture Center has been going on for sometime and will continue until it becomes a reality. There is a potential of 500 jobs being created there. It will also instill in our people a new sense of pride as for the first time it tells the world of who we are where we came from and how we survived.

Lastly I'm a firm believer that actions always speaks louder than words. Before you vote ask yourself, where has the candidate been before the constitution, what has he been doing, who was his allies, who profited from what he was doing, was his time and talents donated or was he paid well for his services and finally did he represent special interest or did he represent the People?

Look at my record and Vote Hubbard Lowery for Tribal Chairman And I thank you for Your Support.
