The 96th Thesis
Recognizing it is the right of every born again, washed in the blood, sanctified, and Bible believing, aspiring statesman to know where their fellow brothers in the Lord stand, it is necessary to ask the following questions:
1. Does your church preach the full empowered gospel of our Lord Jesus Christ that saves drug addicts, cleanse prostitutes, and sanctifies self-righteous Christians?
2. Does your church believe the Bible to be the divinely inspired Word of God without error?
3. Does your church on a minimum of four times a year conduct interracial services with a sister church that is predominately of a difference race other than your own?
4. Can an unsaved sinner attend your church and by your instruction and your teaching come to know Jesus Christ as their personal savior?
5. Does your church ardently work for REVIVAL in America, the state of Maryland and your local area?
6. Does your church pray for Christian candidates who have no money and refuse to waste money in the political process while children go hungry in America and starve in the world?
Is there hope, does the church really get it, do Christian radio talk show host really listen to themselves as they say GET INVOLVED, and will you pray for me, Harold Glynn Dial?
May God richly bless you, my beloved. (J. Vernon McGee, Through the Bible)
How to raise a Daniel, a Moses, a Joseph, a Ruth, an Esther, or finally a Messiah.
