

"Children...Honor your father and mother...that it may be well with you." Ephesians 6:1-3

The Indian Honor Association of Robeson County Honors These Indian Elders:

PURPOSE:

The purposes for the organization are as follows: to promote honor and respect for Indian elders by their families and communities by recognizing the elders for their family's full participation in the electoral process of Robeson County in all primary and general elections and to encourage eligible Indian people and the public at large without regard to race, creed, sex, or national origin to register and vote in all elections.

The Robert Locklear Family

Robert Locklear Family

On August 8, 1685 Robert Locklear came over on the ship called "Blessing" from England to Charleston, SC. He was probably an indentured servant of Stephen Bull at Charleston, SC.

Captain John (Jack) Barnwell and Captain Stephen Bull came into this area to fight the Tuscarora Indians.

Captain Bull as the Commander of a company of Indians. As a reward for his service, Robert Locklear received land in Edgecombe County and Indian slaves from the market at Boston, Charleston and etc. The local Indians would have escaped at that time. Robert had two sons, John and Major Locklear. He lived in Quanky Creek in Edgecombe County, NC. In 1738, Major and Dudley Locklear were in court in Edgecombe County NC. He was also a landowner in Upper South Carolina which is now a part of Robeson County, NC
