

...To Medical Excellence ...to Know You Well.

includes several physicians familiar to people in Robeson County.

Cardiothoracic surgeon Robin Cummings; OB/GYN Kirby

Kilpatrick; ear, nose and throat specialist G. Patrick

Henderson, Jr.,

and internist

Bobby Maynor

were born and raised in the county. They maintain strong ties to Robeson County through family members who still live there as well as caring for many of your

The second youngest of nine children, Robin Cummings was the valedictorian of his class at Pembroke Senior High School. His father was the minister of Prospect Methodist Church, the largest Native American church east of the Mississippi, for twenty years.

neighbors. For you and your family, we think it's a plus to be cared for by someone who knows their way

Patrick Henderson was raised on a farm between Maxton and Red Springs.

A member of the Class of 1955 at Maxton High School, Patrick played football, baseball and basketball. He has two brothers who still live in Robeson County with their families.

around your community. If you're thinking about choosing Moore Regional and want to know more about our services and physicians, please call (800) 724-2236.

FirstHealth
MOORE REGIONAL HOSPITAL

