It's a Bull Market in Cyberspace

The Internet is placing sophisticated research, newswires and trading tools into the hands of investors. Online investors now share the same cutting edge information that they once had to seek from investment brokers. Managing stock portfolios and trading on personal home computers are becoming commonplace.

On Prodigy Internet, investors access company news and stock quotes about the companies they are interested in. A personal stock portfolio keeps all investments in a chart that shows the highs and lows for the stock and recent stock purchases. Finally, investors sell and buy stock and securities online with links to traders like PC Financial Network and Accutrade. Because the fees of an Internet transaction are a fraction of what they would be with a broker transaction, many investors are managing their own portfolios online.

In addition to saving broker fees, many people enjoy doing their own research before investing their money. By charting a company's growth through reports like the one-year EPS and revenue growth, shares held by institutions and insiders, and shares sold short, investors gain confidence in their own abilities to predict the market.

"Investors on the Internet are demanding more and more information," said Seth Radwell, Prodigy's Vice President of Electronic Commerce. "They're finding that the 'do-it-yourself' approach is much easier than it seems."

Princess Di Charities have Life After Death

The causes Princess Diana were most strongly identified with—AIDS, hospices, land mines—demanded more than a reflexive commitment. There is no question that her luminous presence made a difference in all the worlds she touched, which is why reaction to her sudden death was suffused with an almost numbed shock. Diana Princess of Wales, often advocated personal action to touch those around us. Doing so is no longer in her power: but to those who would mourn her, that power remains.

British pop legend Elton John has set the tone by releasing his "Candle in the Wind" single dedicated to the princess. All the proceeds will benefit the Princess Diana Memorial Fund. Several other Princess Diana commemorative pieces are being offered with all or part of their proceeds going to her memorial fund as well. The Danbury Mint is offering a four plate limited edition collection bearing her image and will make a $100,000 donation to Diana's favorite charities. The Heartland Collection introduces the Diana Limited Edition collectors coin and will make a donation to her fund with every purchase. By purchasing any of these remembrances we have the opportunity to commemorate her life for ourselves while carrying on her spirit by helping those in need.
