Looking Back While Walking Forward

Walter Pinchbeck & Indian Scouting Room planned at Indian Education Resource Center

Plans are underway to honor Mr. Walter Pinchbeck, our long time Indian scouting leader, at the Indian Education Resource Center. The project will be co-sponsored by Indian Education and Ms. Mary Alice Pinchbeck Teets, the daughter of the late and esteemed scout leader. "Mr. Walter" was responsible for many Eagle Scouts among the Indian youth, and he was known in scouting circles throughout the United States. A room will be devoted to "Mr. Walter" and all those who took part in scouting under his leadership.

This wonderful caricature was done by Alan Sugar in 1975. It looks like him, doesn't it? We'll say more about this project in the next few days. If you have a "Mr. Walter" story, or a moment or picture that you would like to share with the organizers of this project, you can contact Bruce Barton at the Indian Education Resource Center Monday through Friday, or you can call 521-1881, extension 13. The Indian Education Resource Center is located in the historic Pembroke "Indian" High School building, next door to the UNC-Pembroke chancellor's residence.

If you have a historical curio, let us know about it. It might make the next LOOKING BACK WHILE WALKING FORWARD. Call 521-2826, or write the Carolina Indian Voice, P.O. Box 1075, Pembroke, N. C. 28372.

Search for Truth

by Elder Joseph Bullard
Pembroke Seventh Day Adventist Church

Not Under Law But Under Grace

What is the relation of law and grace in a Christian's life? What is meant by "not under law but under grace?" What does the Bible mean when it says that God has promised to write His law in our hearts? Why are people confused about this?

Is it true that we cannot earn salvation....that we may receive it only as a gift? Elder Joseph Bullard invites you to explore what the Bible actually says about law, grace, and salvation in this Search for Truth.

There is only one way to be saved. Ephesians 2:8-9: "For by grace are ye saved through faith; and that not of yourselves: it is the gift of God: Not of works, lest any man should boast."

There are three other important matters in regards to salvation that we need to understand clearly: 1. We are saved by grace, 2. We are saved from sin, 3. We are saved to obey. Romans 6:14-15: "For sin shall not have dominion over you: for ye are not under the law, but under grace. What then? Shall we sin, because we are not under the law, but under grace? God forbid."

The wages of sin is eternal death--the second death. Romans 6:23: "For the wages of sin is death; but the gift of God is eternal life through Jesus Christ our Lord." Some understand the word fulfil to mean "do away with," or "bring to an end." However, if I asked you to raise your right hand and you did it, you would have obeyed my request--you would have fulfilled my request.

This Bible verse is often misapplied. Matthew 5:17: "Think not that I am come to destroy the law, or the prophets: I am not come to destroy, but to fulfil."

Some say the Law was nailed to the cross. What does the Bible say was nailed to the cross? Colossians 2:14-17: "Blotting out the handwriting of ordinances that was against us, which was contrary to us, and took it out of the way, nailing it to His cross; And having spoiled principalities and powers, He made a shew of them openly, triumphing over them in it. Let no man therefore judge you in meat, or in drink, or in respect of an holyday, or of the new moon, or of the sabbath days: Which are a shadow of things to come; but the body is of Christ." The Bible makes it very clear that these "Sabbath days which are a shadow of things to come" refer to the seven yearly sabbath days during six annual feasts: (1) the Passover; (2) the Feast of Unleavened Bread; (3) the Feast of Harvest, or the Feast of Weeks, or Pentecost; (4) the Feast of Trumpets; (5) the Day of Atonement; (6) the Feast of Tabernacles. But please notice what the Bible says in Leviticus 23:37-38: "These are the feasts of the LORD, a burnt offering, and a meat offering, a sacrifice, and drink offerings, every thing upon His day: Beside the sabbaths of the LORD, and beside your gifts, and beside all your vows, and beside all your freewill offerings, which ye give unto the LORD."

The law of God cannot save. It cannot make man right with God. Romans 8:3-4: "For what the law could not do, in that it was weak through the flesh, God sending His own Son in the likeness of sinful flesh, and for sin, condemned sin in the flesh: That the righteousness of the law might be fulfilled in us, who walk not after the flesh, but after the Spirit."

Mortal Law: Written by God: Exodus 24:12. On stone by finger of God: Exodus 31:18. Placed inside ark: Exodus 31:18. Is perfect: Psalm 19:7. Eternal: Psalm 111:7-8. Not destroyed by Christ: Matthew 5:17. Royal Law: James 2:8

Ceremonial Law: Written by Moses: 2 Chronicles 35:12. In a book: 2 Chronicles 35:12. Placed on side of ark: Deut. 31:24-26. Made nothing perfect: Hebrews 7:19. Nailed to the Cross: Colossians 2:14. Abolished by Christ: Ephesians 2:15. Law contained in ordinances: Ephesians 2:15.

Two Laws Contrasted
God will put His law in our hearts and minds. Jeremiah 31:33-34: "But this shall be the covenant that I will make with the house of Israel: After those days, saith the LORD, I will put my law in their heart and mind, and they shall be my people...I will forgive their iniquity, and I will remember their sin no more."

The Carolina Indian Voice Published each Thursday in Pembroke, N.C. by First American Publications

The first issue of the weekly newspaper, The Carolina Indian Voice was published on January 18, 1973, by then editor, owner and founder, Bruce Barton with a $500 personal loan. It has a proud history of continuous publication, having never missed an issue since its inception. Bruce's sister, Connie Brayboy, the current editor, is the only person to have enjoyed full-time employment since the newspaper's inception. A brother, Garry Lewis Barton came to work full-time in 1973 and ended his affiliation with the newspaper in 1985; its founder, Bruce Barton left to further his education shortly thereafter. Another brother, Ricky Barton, has been affiliated on a part-time basis with the newspaper since its inception. For the first time in years, the four siblings are reunited and dedicated to publishing the best newspaper humanly possible.
