New book by Delano Cummings to be available during Lumbee Homecoming

Delano Cummings, author of Moon Dash Warrior, will release his second book on June 29, 2001. The new book is called River Dreams and is totally different from his previous book. Moon Dash Warrior deals with the Native American perspective as a veteran of the Vietnam War.

Is his new book, River Dreams, "Cummings combines his Indian heritage, his experiences as a Marine in Vietnam and his dreams to weave images of the past, the present and the future into a thoughtful, spiritual and exciting narrative of Native American life and lore."

Cummings stated, "I interpret my own dreams, take the role of a storyteller and talk about life on the Lumber River."

Cummings will be in the Pembroke Town Park with both his books for sale on July 6 and 7th during Lumbee Homecoming. River Dreams will sell for $15.00 and Moon Dash Warrior, now in its second printing, will sell for $22.00.

Rev. Douglas Locklear, owner of Eagle Feathers Gift Shop, Third Street, Pembroke, will sponsor a book signing for Cummings on July 6, beginning at 3:30 p.m. until 6:30 p.m.

Either or both books may be ordered from Delano Cummings, 956 Saddletree Road, Lumberton, NC 28360 for the price of the book plus $3.00 for shipping and handling.

The new books has been illustrated by Eileen Harrison and Lumbee artist Van Wilkins. Both books are published by Signal Tree Publications in Livermore, Maine.

For further information contact Mr. Cummings at 910-739-1025 or the publisher at 207-897-6184.
