Book on Indian basketball nearing publication date ...

As many of you know, Tim Brayboy and Bruce Barton have been working on a book about Indian basketball in Robeson & adjoining counties for some time. And the end is in sight. They expect to present the book at the second annual meeting of the Indian Basketball Alumni Association, Inc. at the Indian Education Resource Center (located in the old "Indian" Pembroke High School building), next door to the UNC-Pembroke chancellor's residence. The meeting will be held tentatively on December 13, 2001, beginning at 7 p.m. Hope to see you there. More information will be forthcoming in the next few days and weeks. The name of the book is:

PLAYING BEFORE AN OVERFLOW CROWD.
The story of Indian basketball in Robeson & adjoining counties between 1939-1967.

The book, now about 90% complete, is a history of "Indian" basketball in Robeson as we remember it. Information is scant, but it was a time of rank segregation although positive currents emanated from the unique social incubator and experiment. The book explores what happened, where it happened, when, how, who, and, most importantly, WHY? Also, what valuable lessons can be learned from this special moment in time?

TO RESERVE A COPY, fill in the blanks and send it to Indian Basketball Book, c/o Bruce Barton, Post Office Box 362, Pembroke, N.C. 28372. Or call 910-521-2054 for more information. We also welcome old "Indian" basketball photographs and memories.

"STEP BACK, FELLERS!"

Lace as we know it developed in Italy in the 1400s. It grew out of cutwork or open pattern in embroidery.

Hope, there was born with a hand and foot abnormality, which led to the amputation of her feet and ankles. But that didn't slow her down. At Easter Seals Camp, Hope learned she could do anything. Including bow-shooting. Later, Seals helped bring Hope's life into full bloom. To learn more, visit www.easterseals.org.
