Published Every Thursday in Pembroke, NC

CAR LINA INDIAN VOICE

VOLUME 29 NUMBER 25

THURSDAY, JUNE 20, 2002

"Building Communicative Bridges in a Tri-Racial Setting"

25c Per Copy

"Swing for Good Health" Raises more than $14,000 for health care

Larry Chavis

The 104 golfers who played in the Southeastern Regional Medical Center Foundation's annual tournament have made it possible for more local students to train for careers in health care. Twenty-six teams competed in the twelfth annual Swing for Good Health golf tournament held June 6 ant the Pincrest Country Club.

'The food was great! The fellowship was great!" said Larry Chavis, chairman of the golf tournament. "But, most importantly, the event raised more than $14,000 for health care scholarship loans." The proceeds of hole #17 The award for the long-$14,345 from the tournament will est drive on hole #18 went to help fund scholarships for Robeson County residents who have chosen to study medicine. nursing, or allied health and who plan to return to this community to practice

82

Winners of the 2002 Swing for Good Health Tournament with a team score of 57 were Bruce Curry. Stan Kinney, Grant Lewis and Mike Steinbacher. They each received a trophy and a $100 gift certificate from the Pinecrest Pro Shop

Two teams tied for second place with a score of 60. Based on the tiebreaker score on hole #12. the foursome of Brian Adams, Bill Alston, Darren Brown and Roy Cox took second place and each received a trophy and a $65 gift certificate. Third place winners were Harold Gillespie, Robin Pate, Tom Peters and Roy Swanberg. They received trophies and a $40 gift certificate.

Stan Kinney claimed the prize for closest to the pin on hole #2; Darren Brown took home the prize for closest to the pin on hole #10. The honors for closest to the pin on hole #12 went to Dr. Author Bradford. Buddy McLean took honors for the most accurate drive on hole #8; Debra Quick had the most accurate drive for women on

Claude Fulghum The award for shortest drive on hole #1 went to Joe Glezen

There were no winners of the two hole-in-one prizes, one of which was two round-trip airline tickets to anywhere in the continental United States provided by Summary Travel Services and USAir and the other, a trip for two to Hawaii, sponsored by Hill-Rom.

Corporate sponsors for the tournament were: BB&T; BB&T Insurance Services of Lumberton; Baxter Healthcare-IV Systems; Brodie Contractors, Inc.; Buckeye of Lumberton; Cape Fear Con-struction; Cardinal Health Inc.,; Carolina Spine Systems; Corporate Development; Danaher Controls: Delaware Investment Advisers; Diversey Lever; Dowless Catering, S. Preston Douglas & Associates: Emergency Physician Associates; Encompass Electrical; Encompass Group; Forms & Supplies; Freeman Mechanical; Grainger Industrial Supply, Healthcare Enterprises-NCHA; Jefferson Pilot Financial; Jerry Johnson Chevrolet, Oldsmobile, Pontiac; King Guinn Associates: Lumbee Guaranty Bank; Lumbee River Electric Membership Corporation; Lumberton Ford, Lincoln, Mercury; Lumberton Radiological Associates. Lumberton Surgical Associates: Sheriff Glenn Maynor. McKesson Empowering Healthcare: Medline: Montag & Caldwell; N.S. Farrington & Company, Pate Sheet Metal, Peterson Associates: Philips Medical: Quik Print of Lumberton, Robins &Morton; Sage Products, Inc: Siemens Medical Solutions; Skinner, Lamm & Highsmith, PA; Smith Advertising; Southmost Drywall. Inc.; Standard Register; STERIS Corporation: Triangle Ice Com-pany: VALIC and YAMAS Controls.

Donors were: Belk of Lumberton; Bob's Jewel Shop, Carolina Spine Systems; Coca-Cola: Cracker Barrel; The Fashion Bar; First Bank; Forms and Supply: The Front Porch, The Gallery, Grainger Industrial Supply, Hill-Rom; J.C. Penny; Joe Sugar's of St. Pauls; K'L and Tire and Automotive; Lamplighter Village Station: Lowe's of Lumberton: Naylor Tom's Sales; Outback Steakhouse; Patton's Inc.; Pepsi Bottling Ventures; Robeson County Clean & Green; Robins & Morton; Ruby Tuesday; Smith & Nephew; SRMC Food Services; Sports Relay, Summey Travel and USAir; TarPackers; Texas Steakhouse & Saloon; US Foodservices; Washington's Men's Store and Woodard, Inc.

New Hospice of Robeson Volunteers, from left, are Christine Locklear of Pembroke, Cinder Graham, Mary Jacobs, Rosa Ashley-Dickerson, and Lydia Kinlaw, all of Lumberton.

New Volunteers join Hospice of Robeson

comed into the Hospice of Robeson family of volunteers recently. The newly trained volunteers had just completed 25 hours of study during a seven-week course designed to prepare them to help terminally ill patients and their families. During the graduation ceremony, each volunteer received a certificate of completion. This was the first class in the last 10 years to meet during the day and it worked out well." said Anne Crain, volunteer coordinator for Hospice of Robeson. The daytime format provided an alter-native to the usual evening training sessions.

Four of the new Hospice volunteers are from Lumberton: Cinder Graham, Mary Jacobs, Rosa Ashley-Dickerson and Lydia Kinlaw. Christine Locklear is from Pembroke. Each volunteer attended sessions designed to increase their awareness of issues important to the care of dying patients and their families--including concepts of dying, death and grieving; introduction to cancer and other terminal diseases; care criteria. and comfort measures for the patient and family; dynamics; communications skills; and aging and

Five new recruits were wel- sures for relatives of the terminally ill patient might include providing volunteer services during the day to allow family caregivers greater opportunities to run errands. go shopping or take care of other business.

These new volunteers bring many skills and a wide range of experiences to our group. All have been caregivers to their own family members and understand the difficulties, challenges and blessings of caring for loved ones,' said Crain, "This is an important attribute when dealing with hospice patients and families.

Mohammed A. Jaleel, M.D., eynote speaker for the graduation ceremony, welcomed the new volunteers. Dr. Jaleel has served as medical director for Hospice of Robeson since the fall of 2000.

Hospice of Robeson was established in 1985 to offer care and support for terminally ill patients and their families. Its services are available without regard to age. sex, race, religion, national origin, handicap or ability to pay if the individual meets the admission

Hospice staff and volunteers are available to speak to church and civic groups. For more infor-

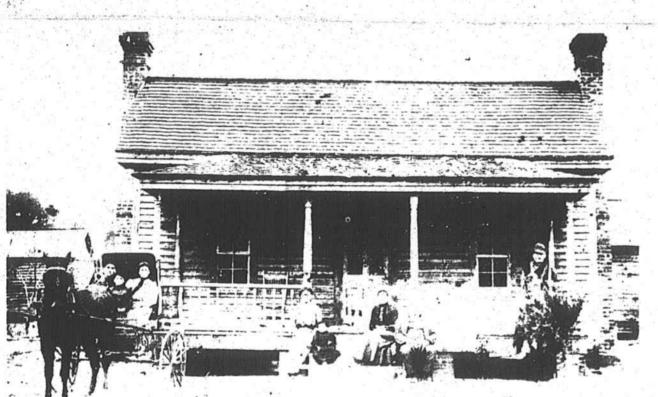

Photo on reverse: Lumbee family in the Prospect Community, circa 1900. Courtesy of James Moore

THE LUMBRE River FUND

Please join the Lumbee River Fund for our Lumbee Homecoming Events. All events are free and open to the public. For more information, please contact Malinda Maynor 910-521-9513 or mmaynor@nc.rr.com or visit our website: www.uncp.edu/lumbeeriverfund

Genealogy Workshop & Family Photo Exhibit

Indian Education Resource Center Wednesday, July 3. 7.00-9.00 pm Genealogy Consultants: Garth Locklear, Grady Locklear, and Elisha Locklear (Tuscarora) Presenter: Cynthia Hunt (Lumbee River Legal Services)

Lumbee Sports Legends Roundtable & Sports History Photo Exhibit

LRDA Office Complex Thursday, July 4. 3:00-5:00 pm Presenters: Kelvin Sampson, Mr. and Mrs. Ned Sampson, Bruce Barton and Tim Brayboy Moderator: Joe Oxendine

Shape-Note Singing & Religious History Photo Exhibit

Givens Performing Arts Center Thursday, July 4.6:30 pm (in conjunction with the Gospel Singing planned that evening) Singers: Prospect Men's Choir

Traditional Arts, Photo Exhibit & Storytelling Tent

Prospect Road

Saturday, July 6, 11:00 am-1:30 pm Invited presenters: Mary Sue Locklear (herbal medicine), Sadie Dial Foust (broom-making), Elisha Locklear (bowl-making) reminiscing mation, call the Hospice office at An example of comfort mea- 671-5655

Strike at the Wind Opens on July 6th

By Vinita Clark

Henry Berry Lowrie will be told once again on the stage of the Adolph L. Dial Amphitheater with the 24th performance season of the outdoor drama "Strike at the Wind!" The drama written by Dr., Randolph Umberger is directed by David Oxendine of Pembroke for his 12th season. Musical Director for the drama is its' Composer Willic French Lowery.

For the first time in the history of the drama the characters of Henry and Rhoda are not only married on stage but also in real life Corbin and Misha Eddings will play the Lowrie couple. Corbin first joined the cast in 1981 and told everyone including the Director Dr. Chet Jordan of UNCP "one day I am going to play Henry." Well, it has been 21 years and now his dream is coming true. Misha is returning for her third season in the role of Rhoda. Also for the first time in a leading

Pembroke, NC- The legend of role is Danielle Saunders who first joined the cast in 2001 as a Citizen will now be standing beside the Leader Carol Oxendine as the Child. Barry Locklear who played Inderson Oxendine in 2000 will be playing the role of Boss Strong Favorites that have returned are

> Robert Bryant as Shoemaker John. Bruce Barton as Allen Lowrie Sr., Collette D. Locklear as Dolly King. Randolph Eddings as Colonel Harris. Edith Ward as Mrs. Shoemaker, Harlless Smith as Hugh McGreggor. Steve Pate as Hector McCord and a host of other returning cast members

> Members of the SATW cast recent completed their first fundraiser among the cast members for the creation of plaques to be given to the families of Ray Lowery and Jessica Oxendine who died while the drama was closed this past scason

Reflections by Alta Nye Oxendine

FATHER'S DAY MESSAGE

Here are some nuggets from Pastor Harold Hunt's Father's Day message at Branch Street UMC:

Make sure God is the utmost in making decisions for your family. Make sure there's no parasites devouring our children.

"Sometimes we get in front of God" with our "snap financial decisions" and "self-willed ambitions."

Ask: "Where am I living?" A little boy said, "Daddy, pick out a good trail ... because I'm right behind you!

Your sons and daughters are mocking every action you do. Ask: "What am I leaving?"

Are you two-faced? Do you put on a Sunday face to go to church? Fathers need to pattern their lives after a Christ-like life.