

St. Pauls student awarded several scholarships

Megan Mechelle Jolly, a senior at St. Pauls High School, on Monday, May 12, was awarded the Fulghum Family Scholarship, James Lowery Scholarship and the Rebekah Revels Follow Your Dream Scholarship, at the Awards Ceremony for the school.

Megan has been actively involved in her school and community. She is the Editor-In-Chief of the St. Pauls High School Annual. She received the Superintendent Academic Award this year. She served as President of the FFA, is a National Honor Society member, Native American Student Association, American Indian Students of Engineering and Science, and Quiz Bowl. She also served on a mission trip with her church to Asheville to work in a soup kitchen and in Kentucky she helped distribute gifts to underprivileged families in a poverty stricken community.

She volunteers at the Lifestyles Rehabilitation Center working with therapists, volunteers at Special Olympics, volunteers with the St. Pauls Medical Responders as a junior member and serves with the Rape Crisis Center. She also has worked at the Lumberton Children's Clinic for the past three years part-time. She was also a former part-time employee at Putt Putt and with Attorney Greg Bell of Lumberton.

Megan plans to attend The University of North Carolina at Wilmington. She will be attending the second session of summer school beginning June 24. She plans to pursue a degree in social work and continue on to become a psychologist. She is the daughter of William and Mechelle Chavis Jolly of St. Pauls, the granddaughter of Cleveland and Ruby Bell Chavis of St. Pauls and the great-granddaughter of Maggie L. Bell of Glenflora of Lumberton.

Completes basic training

Air Force Airman Jason Henry has graduated from basic military training at Lackland Air Force Base, San Antonio, Texas.

During his six weeks of training the Airman studied the Air Force mission, organization and military customs and courtesies; performed drill and ceremony marches, and received physical training, rifle marksmanship, field training exercises and special training in human relations. In addition, Airmen who complete basic training earn credits toward and associate degree through the Community College of the Air Force.

He is the son of Ronny and Dale Henry of Calvary Drive, Maxton, NC. Henry is a 2003 graduate of the high school program at Brunswick Community College, Bolivia, NC

"The Heart of a Mother and the Hand of God," newly released book by Bonnie Horton

Xulon Press has just released a new book by local author, Bonnie Horton of Laurinburg, NC, formerly of Robeson County. The new book, "The Heart of a Mother and the Hand of God," is the heart wrenching story of a woman's journey through life, beginning with her loving but painful childhood. It then tells of a young love that ended sadly, but with three beautiful little girls. It continues with the most devastating loss a mother could ever endure. Finally, it describes a true and lasting love and a deep peace within, found only through an everlasting and abiding faith in God.

Bonnie's story will encourage and inspire other believers, and for the unbelievers it will guide them towards their own point of salvation, deliverance and peace.

Bonnie has taught on "leaving the Past Behind," "Healing Damaged Emotions," "The Prosperity of God in the Lives of the Saints," and many other topics. She has completed her first book which is now released.

Bonnie Horton has been a born again Christian since 1980. She has been teaching the Word of God since 1986. She is currently enrolled in the Christian Life School of Theology in which she has earned an Associate Degree. Bonnie is a minister of the PHC of the South Carolina Conference, located in Lake City, SC. She is a Native American and resides in Laurinburg, NC with her husband and partner in ministry. Bonnie has been married to Donnie Horton for over twenty-one years and they have one precious son, Chezz Horton. They are members of Northview Harvest Ministries where Bonnie also teaches.
