

GREENSBORO IS READY FOR BIG VARSITY GAME

Ball Park Has Seating Accommodations for 4,000 While 2,000 Can Stand Up—German at Neese Hall Will Be a Brilliant Event.

At Cone Park, and throughout Greensboro everything is ready for the reception of the Carolina-Virginia baseball teams and the student and visiting crowds and with the people generally there to buy the game, the team and visiting a good time, no matter what the result.

At the park the grandstands and bleachers have been put in first-class shape with seating accommodations for 4,000 and it is expected that fully 2,000 more will be lined up around the field and just above the benches surrounding the grandstand and bleachers. Tickets will be placed on sale at several popular drug stores, Scales, Farris, White and the Greensboro drug company and at King's department store and every effort made to avoid a rush or congestion of the crowd at the entrance. A number of regular and special police officers will be on hand at the grounds and every thing possible will be done to handle the crowd orderly and comfortably.

The admission to the game will be 50 cents, with a 25-cent charge for grand stand seats.

Both Carolina and Virginia are confident of victory and it is but natural that the hottest fight should be made in the opening game. For here both teams will be anxious to get the start towards the coveted series. Captain Pickford of the Virginia team will probably send Wimer, the man who held Fayetteville to 1 hole, to the box for his team, while "Red" Stewart will in all probability turn out for the Carolina team. The Old Dominion and Blue will perform in a similar capacity for Carolina.

The probable line up for Virginia will be: Pickford, 1; J. H. H. Fitchell, ss; Douglas B. Hume, C; Blackney, rf; Hitch, 2b; Robinson, cf; Wimer, p.

Captain Stewart will pick his line up from the following: Williams, Stairs, Loft, Hedges, Dorman, Stewart, Hamilton, Bine, Blackney, Puck, Brown, Armstrong, Ross, Swank.

The day promises to be a repetition

DEBATE HERE TONIGHT

Carolina Meets Washington and Lee. Greensboro Champions on Stage.

The second of a series of three debates between the University of North Carolina and Washington and Lee University will be held in the Grand opera house at 8 o'clock tonight. Owing to the fact that the annual baseball game between Virginia and North Carolina is to be played on the following day, it is expected that a large number of visiting alumni of each institution will be present to root for their alma mater.

The first contest of the series was in 1908, and on that event the Washington and Lee representatives were victorious.

Judge W. P. Bynum, jr. will preside over the debate tonight, and the judges will be Messrs. B. F. Dixon, W. I. Crawford and Rev. Plato Durham. The usher will be the regular commencement usher of the Greensboro high school.

The "Greensboro Champions," Messrs. Argy, Forney, Andrew Joyner, jr., Edward Eubler and James White, who were victorious in the triangular high school debate last week, will occupy seats of honor on the stage at the request of the Carolina and Washington and Lee debaters.

The question to be debated tonight is: "Resolved, That all corporations doing interstate commerce business shall be required to take out a federal charter under such conditions as Congress may by law prescribe, constitutionality granted." Carolina will uphold the negation.

The representatives of Carolina are W. R. Edmonds and H. E. Stacy. The representatives of Washington and Lee are W. L. Cozart and C. D. Dunn. Edmonds was on the winning side of the intersociety contest held at Chapel Hill during commencement of 1909 and was awarded the Bryan prize. Stacy was on the team that defeated Tulane University in New Orleans last spring. Cozart and Dunn are both experienced debaters.

A number of seats in the opera house have been reserved for the alumni of the two institutions, and requests for them will be gladly furnished by Messrs. W. H. Swift or D. P. Stern, who are on the chamber of commerce committee on arrangements.

CONFERENCE CLOSES

Several Able Addresses Were Made By Education Board Members.

The joint meeting of the boards of education of the North Carolina and Western North Carolina Methodist conferences adjourned at 10 o'clock last night, after a night and day session which was conspicuous principally by harmonious manner in which the delegates went about the work before the meeting.

The sessions were held in West Market Street Methodist church and commenced with a strong and practical discussion of "The Relation of the Church Schools to the Government," by the Rev. Dr. J. C. Kilgo, on Tuesday evening.

Dr. Kilgo commenced his address with the statement that Christian education was the highest education, because it began with the highest of knowledge—the knowledge of God. He discussed the "unmistakable" powers of the church and the light that Christianity sheds on the world. The basis of his great speech were the words of Christ: "Ye are the salt of the earth; ye are the light of the world." He said there was something certain in the teaching of the church. The scriptures of God was the basis of his teaching and these scriptures were established beyond the power of any sort of criticism to overthrow them.

He stood squarely for orthodox Christianity and asserted the fact of sin inherent in humanity in opposition to an evolution theory that regarded it as an undeveloped condition of the race. The purport of sin, he asserted, was a fact of conscious experience and the regeneration of human nature by the spirit of God was a necessity to save man from sin in this life. He showed that education without religion did not save, and pointed to the failure of secular training to save the people of the United States, for in spite of the millions we are spending for education, crime is on the increase and there are more murders committed in this country than any other, and there are more divorcees here than anywhere else, except in Japan.

He made a very strong speech and backed his arguments with facts. The speech made a profound impression, and some who were not great admirers of Dr. Kilgo expressed themselves as being more favorably impressed by his speech than anything they had ever heard from him.

The sessions of yesterday were taken up with routine work and addresses on various phases of the educational work of the conference.

Rev. T. T. Mann delivered a very thoughtful address last night on the discrimination against the educational collections. He gave figures collected from the journals of the two conferences for 10 years and showed that there was great improvement in the collections for education in the last few years.

He emphasized the importance of contributing to the support of the church schools in order to be able to furnish prepared workers to carry forward the work of the church at home and abroad. In the absence of Rev. E. L. Dain, chairman of the board of education of the Western North Carolina conference, the Rev. A. P. Trice, who is chairman of the board of education of the North Carolina conference, presided. The attendance on the meetings was not large owing, probably, to the fact that the general public was not aware of the interesting subjects that would be discussed. A good migration heard Dr. Kilgo Tuesday night.

Colored Revival. Evangelist E. M. Collett is conducting special evangelistic meetings at the People's Tabernacle on East Washington street, and he and the members of the church issue a cordial invitation to the public to attend and take part in the services.

DISTRESSING BREATHLESSNESS

Mrs. Rentz, of Adel, Has An Interesting Story to Tell About How Her Husband Cured Her With Cardui.

Adel, Ga.—"For 3 years I suffered with female troubles," writes Mrs. C. J. Rentz. "When I would lie down I could hardly breathe. I had a distressing feeling in my breast, and I could not do any work at all without being exhausted. My husband heard of Cardui and we decided to try it. I took it according to directions and in 3 days I could tell it was helping me. I can now do all of my work, and do not suffer at all. I give Cardui the praise for it, and recommend it to all."

We have thousands of such letters, and more are arriving every day. For over 50 years, Cardui has been relieving women's sufferings, and building weak women up to health and strength. If you are a woman, give it a fair trial. It will help you, for it has helped a million others. Its ingredients are purely vegetable and harmless, yet curatively restoring in their action on the womanly organs.

Your druggist sells Cardui because there is a demand for it. The demand proves it to be a good medicine. Try it.
