LAST STATE FAIR PAID OFF LOSSES OF FORMER EVENT

(Special to Daily News.)

Raleigh, April 27.—That the assets of the North Carolina state fair here aggregate $63,250 net, is the showing made in an exhibit of the affairs of the state fair made by Secretary Joseph E. Pogue in his annual report just from the printers. The total assets, in fact, amount to $86,750, and this is reduced by liabilities that consist of $22,500 in 5 per cent bonds maturing in 1923, and by about $1,000 in bills payable. The assets enumerated include the following: Grounds, $38,900; floral hall, $7,500; grandstand, $7,000; race tracks, $5,000; machinery hall, $3,000; horse stalls and stables, $3,000; cattle, sheep and hog stalls, $1,000; restaurant booths, $1,200; secretary and treasurer offices, $750; keeper's house, $800; storage house, $300; other buildings and improvements, $2,400; Caraleigh Mills 6 per cent note, $4,000; Caraleigh Phosphate company, 6 per cent note, $8,000. The report shows that the last fair netted $57,751, but that $3,500 of this amount had to go toward paying off an indebtedness incurred through losses by the preceding fair. The report shows $600 of the net profits of the 1909 fair still in the hands of the treasurer.

Long-Woodward

(Special to Daily News.)

Graham, April 27.—On Wednesday afternoon at 5 o'clock, at the First Presbyterian church, occurred one of the prettiest and simplest weddings in the history of Graham. It was the marriage of Miss Claudia Long, of Graham, daughter of Col. Jacob A. Long, to Hersey Woodward, Jr., of Norfolk, Va. The bride was attired in a going-away gown of blue cloth, and she carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lily of the valley. She entered the church with her father, Col. Jacob A. Long, who gave her away. Miss Kathleen Long, youngest sister of the bride, was maid of honor. She wore a beautiful gown of white shantung silk, black picture hat and carried a bouquet of LaFrance roses. The bridegroom was attended by his brother as best man, J. S. Woodward, of Suffolk, Va. The ceremony was performed by the bride's uncle, the Rev. William S. Long, D. D. L.L.D. Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Woodward left on the 6:18 train for an extensive northern tour, and upon their return they will make Norfolk their home, where Mr. Woodward has a very responsible position with the Norfolk and Southern railroad. A great many wedding presents were received, among the collection being a chest of silver, the gift of the bridegroom's people, and a set of Lyocett hand-painted china, the gift of the bride's people. Some of the out-of-town guests were:

Whitsett, April 27.—The marriage of Miss Effie Eugenia Wharton to Harry Winstead was solemnized in Bethel Presbyterian church this afternoon at 2 o'clock. The bride wore white imported satin, trimmed in real lace, with white tulle veil caught with orange blossoms, and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses. The bridegroom's gift to her was a splendid brooch of pearls and diamonds. The three bridesmaids were Miss Blanche Rankin, of Whitsett; Miss Joy Belle Kline, of Burlington; and Miss Edna Wharton, of Greensboro Female college. Their dresses were white batiste with pink girdles, and they carried shower bouquets of sweet peas. Mrs. T. E. Wharton, of Greensboro, sister-in-law of the bride, was dame of honor, and was dressed in pink mull with pearl and silver trimmings with black picture hat. She carried pink carnations. The gift of the bride to her bridesmaids was a beautiful necklace to each. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Charles E. Hodgin, of Westminster Presbyterian church, Greensboro, and Miss Leslie Lindsey and Herr Roy, both of Greensboro, were in charge of the music, which was a special feature of the occasion. The church was beautifully decorated in green and white, and made a fine setting for the interesting event. Mr. and Mrs. Winstead left in automobiles with the bridal party soon after the ceremony for Greensboro, where they will leave tonight for a trip to Florida and other points south. Upon their return they will visit for some days in Norfolk, Va., after which time they will be at home in Roxboro, N. C. The church was filled with friends of the families from Greensboro, Roxboro, Whitsett, Burlington and other nearby points.

Mrs. J. G. Holladay, of Suffolk, Va.; Mrs. Robert J. Mebane, Greensboro, sister of the bride; Robert J. Mebane, Greensboro; Mr. and Mrs. H. Woodward, mother and father of the bridegroom; Mrs. R. L. Woodward, Jr., sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Marie of Suffolk, Va., and Dr. and Mrs. J. W. Page, of Burlington, N. C.

Condition Practically Unchanged.

(Special to Daily News.)

Eliu College, April 27.—President Moffit's condition during yesterday and last night remained practically unchanged. There was a slight reduction of temperature noticed and his pulse was stronger, but there was no decided change for the better in his general condition. While it is hoped he will soon recover, it is not all sure, and the greatest fears are felt here respecting his condition.

Yesterday Herbert Moffit, brother of President Moffit, of Ashboro, and Mrs. Emma Rhodes, Harrisburg, Va., mother of Mrs. Moffit, were summoned to his bedside.

Both Ends Are Folded Alike!

When we launder your turn-down collars, both ends are folded exactly alike. When you put your collar on, and button it in front—one side does not stick up an eighth or a quarter of an inch higher than the other.

We make the correct folding and shaping of your collars possible by dampening the seams exactly even before we fold the collar.

Of course it takes more time and care—but you will be better pleased with the work.
