Claude Manly, of Winston-Salem, is spending the day in the city with relatives.

S. L. Gilmer and a party of friends drove over to Winston-Salem yesterday in his new automobile to attend the ball game.

Mrs. Stanford Kenneday, of Charlotte, is here on a visit to Mrs. W. D. McAdoo, sr., and Mrs. C. M. Lea, on Ashboro street.

Miss Elizabeth, of Richmond, Va., who has been visiting friends and relatives in Mississippi and Texas, is stopping over a few days in the city as the guests of Misses Marion Lea and Mary McAdoo, en route to her home in Richmond.

WHO GETS DIFFERENCE
Some Figures Bearing on the Cost of Living.

New York, May 6.—Representatives of the eastern railroads today quoted freight rates on foodstuffs, such as eggs, butter and vegetables from various parts of the country to New York city, to show how small a part of the higher price of food is due to transportation charges. The facts were put forward in the following manner:

A vice-president of one of the large railroads recently saw a farmer unloading potatoes at a railroad station in Rochester. He asked at what price the farmer had sold his potatoes. He learned that it was 20 cents, and that the potatoes were to be shipped to New York city. The freight charge on a bushel of potatoes from Rochester to New York is 5 cents. At this time potatoes were retailing in New York nominally at $1.30 a bushel. In reality, potatoes are sold mostly by the quart to consumers at a price of 25 cents a quart. The retail price of a bushel of potatoes was $2.50.

That is, a bushel of potatoes shipped from Rochester and laid down in New York costs 25 cents. The bushel was sold by retailers for $2.50. Who got the difference?

Last winter when eggs were retailing in New York at from 40 to 50 cents a dozen, the price for fresh eggs in Salamanca, 400 miles from the city, was 20 cents. The freight rate on eggs from Salamanca to New York amounted to about half a cent. The cost of eggs laid down in New York came to 20 1/2 cents. The consumer paid from 40 to 50 cents, sometimes more. Who gets the difference?

On butter the rate from various Ohio points to New York city is 40 cents per 100 pounds. On New York state butter, retailing at 25 cents or more a pound, the average freight charge amounts to less than a third of a cent per pound.

The rates on table luxuries that are brought from far distant states in the winter and early spring are shown to be able to do with a freight charge of only half a cent a quart for hauling strawberries from Augusta, Ga., to New York city. The freight rate on strawberries selling at 38 to 40 cents was no greater than those that were sold at 15 cents.

Fresh asparagus in early spring may be termed a luxury. This year a crate containing 25 bunches of asparagus, which would retail for $3.40 or more, was shipped from Augusta, Ga., to New York for about 80 cents.

From Jacksonville, Fla., to New York city the freight charges on a package of cabbage weighing 120 pounds came to 85 cents, on a 50-pound package of cauliflower, 43 cents, on an 80-pound crate of egg plant, 54 cents; on a 50-pound crate of cantaloupes, 48 cents; on a 50-pound crate of celery, 28 cents.

In early spring new potatoes that come from Florida cost the consumer about 15 cents a quart. This is cents worth of potatoes weighs 1 pound and 14 ounces. The new potatoes from Florida are shipped in 185-pound packages. The freight rate on the potatoes in the package bring in at retail the sum of $1.70. For hauling the 185-pound package from Florida, the railroads get 61 cents. When 61 cents is subtracted from $1.70 the remainder is $1.09. If the farmer gets 42 for the 185 pounds of potatoes he is lucky. Who gets the difference?

MISS DORA BELVIN BECAME MRS. ROBERT L. POLLARD

(Special to Daily News.)
Durham, May 6.—Miss Dora Florence Belvin and Robert L. Pollard were married last night at the bride's home on the Roxboro road, one mile from Durham, the Rev. Dr. J. W. Lynch, of the First Baptist church, officiating.

The country home was beautifully prepared for the occasion and the couple took the vows in the presence of a goodly company. The maid-of-honor was Miss Isabelle Belvin, a sister, and the bridesmaids were the Rev. T. G. Vickers, Miss Lillie Mangum played Mendelssohn's wedding march.

The couple will make a short trip and will return to live in the city. Both are quite popular and belong to the county's best families. They will live on Holloway street.

Brown-Andrews Wedding.
Another marriage of interest last night was that of W. W. Brown and Miss Carrie Andrews, both of this city.

The officiating minister was the Rev. O. N. Marshall, of the Edgemont Baptist church. The wedding music was played by Miss O'Neal.

The bride entered the parlor, white crepe media satin, trimmed in pearls. She wore beautiful carnations. The wedding was very quiet and there were no attendants. They will live in the city.

Poverty No Bar to Savage Matrimony.
(Wide World Magazine.)
Among African savages poverty is not considered a bar to matrimony and happiness. The fact that a man has no sufficient wealth in cattle or kind to satisfy the parents of his young woman with the usual presents need not necessarily prevent him from marrying her. He forms a species of limited liability company with two or three of his brothers, and the capital is sunk in the purchase of the wife.

DO YOU WANT
anything better than those small farms? J. E. Jordan proposes to sell you one May 11. His terms will suit anybody.

Too Much Manners.
(The Delinquent.)
After Louise returned from her first visit to Sunday school she said to me as she turned up her tiny nose and put out her tongue, "Mama, a boy in Sunday school did this way to me!" I said, "Oh, dear! and what did you do?" She said, "Oh, I did that way, too!" I said, "Louise! You should not have done that!" "Oh, yes, mama," she replied, "I had to, cause he always so polite (polite)."

Save It By Dyeing It Black

Many times an expensive gown or wrap is so badly soiled or stained that the owner considers it ruined.

Often the garment can not only be saved for further wear, but actually made to look like a new article, by simply having us dye it over to a dark color, preferably black.

It might surprise you to learn how many articles we dye over in this way—and always satisfactorily.

Consult us about work of this kind.

NOTES FROM REIDSVILLE

Reidsville, May 6.—Farmers in this section say tobacco plants hereabouts are small and scarce.

T. R. Wall, the tailor, spent two or three days of this week in Greensboro on business. It is understood Mr. Wall will return to Greensboro soon to make it his home.

The city graded school closed last week with the largest graduating class in its history.

R. A. Dye, of Summerfield, was in Reidsville yesterday on business.

Thieves entered the tailor's establishment of T. R. Wall recently and carried away four suits of clothes and other articles, the total value of which is over $100. As yet there is no clue to the guilty parties.

Dr. Rominger, of Zion City, Ill., is visiting friends and relatives in Reidsville.

J. R. Holden is out again after a severe attack of acute rheumatism.

Mr. Phillips, the popular telegraph operator at the Southern station here, declared today that he saw the comet last night. He says it is of immense size.

WEEKLY REVIEW OF THE SUGAR AND RICE MARKETS

(By The Associated Press.)
New York, May 6.—There is a better feeling in the sugar market than has existed for a long time, brokers being encouraged by the large business in refined which came to hand this week.

As usual, the stimulation which caused distributors to alter their holding of attitude was an advance of 10 points refined to 5.20 cents net with the privilege of purchasing at the old basis. Despite the damage to the fruit crop, a good summer campaign is awaited in local circles.

Uncollected the belated action of the larger interests in raising refined finds, an explanation in the strength of raws, the pressure upon which is decreasing. The Cuban cane crop is being rapidly ground. The European market continues strong.

The sentiment in the local rice market is more cheerful, though business shows no sensational improvement, owing to the general hand-to-mouth policy of wholesale grocers. Offers here from the mills, as a rule, have been at full prices and where concessions were granted, business has resulted. The prospects for the present crop are reported as none too good owing to the continued drought.

IT MAY BE YOUR
last chance to get a small farm near Guilford college on a macadam road. J. E. Jordan allows nothing crooked at any of his sales. This one will be May 11.

RICH SQUARE ITEMS
(Special to Daily News.)
Rich Square, May 6.—The recent election in Jackson, the county seat of Northampton, on the question of a special school tax of 30 cents on property and 90 cents on the poll to supplement the general fund of the district, has stimulated the interest in special taxes for schools all over the county and the commissioners last Monday ordered two more special tax elections at Lasker and Milwaukee. The school won in Jackson by a vote of 5 to 1. Four other places in the county had already voted the tax, but by smaller majorities.

Farmers in Northampton are well up with their work, and early planted corn is looking well. It appears that the acreage in cotton and peanuts will be about the same as last year.

Rich Square has waked up to the importance of law enforcement. During the past week one alleged blind tiger has been lodged in the county jail and five more are under bonds varying in amounts from $100 to $500 for their appearance at the next term of the Superior court to answer the charge of selling liquor illegally.

Mrs. Benjamin F. White, of Melbane, N. C., has announced the engagement of her daughter, Miss Fattie Vaughn, to Henry Dorney Holoman, of Rich Square, the wedding or marriage to take place some time during the summer. Miss White is a talented young woman, a graduate of the State Normal college, where she won high honors, and has since taught very successfully in the high school of this place and has been a leader in good works. Mr. Holoman is a young man of high character and a prosperous business man of this place. He is a son of the late Hon. George D. Holoman, who represented the Third district for two terms in the state Senate and a man of sterling worth and great influence.

E. C. Huffin, principal of the high school here, has returned to his home in Edgecombe county, but before leaving for his vacation turned over to the school board the most complete record of the school the school officials here ever saw before. He not only had the records as provided by law, but a complete record of the progress of the members of each class, description of the books used, and much other data in abridged form. Entire strangers could take the records he left and take up the work of the school next fall without the loss of any time arranging classes, etc., and not only this, but in a moment's time turn to the record of the progress of each student during the past year.

Cardui Will Help You

Mrs. M. D. McPherson, of Chadbourne, N. C., suffered intense pain for five years, but found relief and got well by taking Cardui, the woman's tonic. Read her letter, telling about her experience. "I suffered five years with awful pains, every so often. They grew worse, till I would often faint. I could not walk at all, for two or three days at a time, and had awful hurting in my side and headache and backache.

"I gave up and thought I would die, but my husband suggested Wine of Cardui. So I began and the first bottle helped me so I could do my cooking. By the time I had used three bottles of Cardui, I could do all my work. The Cardui home treatment does all and more than you recommend it to do."

Are you a woman, suffering from some form of female trouble? Have you tried Cardui, the woman's tonic? If not, you are neglecting your opportunity to get well.

Cardui is a pure vegetable medicine and contains no dangerous drugs. It is non-mineral and non-intoxicating, a safe remedy for women of all ages. Try Cardui today. You will appreciate its prompt tonic effect, as well as its quality of relieving pain.
