ITEMS OF INTEREST IN STATESVILLE SOCIETY

(Special to Daily News.)

Statesville, May 28.—Among the number of June weddings of interest to take place in Statesville, that of Miss Mary E. Miller, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. D. Miller, and an attractive young woman, to the Rev. John Oscar Mann, a young Presbyterian minister, formerly of Barium, which will take place on the 28th day of the month of June. The Rev. Mr. Mann, who finished his course at Davidson college of few years ago, finishes at the Union Theological seminary in Richmond, Va., this spring. He is an excellent young gentleman and a promising minister. After his marriage he will become pastor of a Presbyterian church at Tinkling Springs, Va.

A pretty marriage of more than usual interest took place in Little Joe's church at the Barium orphan's home, five miles south of Statesville, Wednesday evening, the principals of the occasion being the Rev. Alfred S. Caldwell, formerly of Barium, now of High Point, and Miss Inez Ballard, whose home is at Mooresville, but who has recently been an instructor in the Barium home. The little church was attractively decorated for the event and a large crowd witnessed the ceremony, which was performed by the Rev. S. C. Caldwell, of South Walker, assisted by the Rev. W. T. Walker, superintendent of the Barium home. Miss McEachin, lady manager of the home, was maid of honor and Miss Rena and Pearl Ballard, Lucy Culbertson and Betty Christensen were bridesmaids. The bridegroom entered with his son, S. Caldwell, Jr., of High Point, Miss Mabel Chamberlain, president of the organ and just prior to the ceremony Miss Annie Long sang "Because."

The Rev. and Mrs. Caldwell spent Wednesday night in Statesville and left Thursday for a bridal trip over the Johnston City way, via the Clinchfield road. After a few days they will be at home in the Presbyterian manse in High Point.

L. J. Freel, who slipped away from Statesville some days ago on the pretext of going to Ohio to visit relatives, without telling the real object of his departure, has returned, accompanied by an attractive and cultured young woman whom he has the pleasure of introducing to his many friends as Mrs. Freel, his bride. Mr. Freel and Miss Gladys Parker were married Monday at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. C. S. Parker, in Connetquot. The marriage was a quiet affair, only the intimate friends and relatives being present. The couple left shortly after the ceremony for Pittsburg and Washington, where they spent a few days before coming to Statesville. Mr. Freel, whose original home is at Niagara Falls, N. Y., came to Statesville from Ohio two years ago and has since been a chief and electrician for the Iredell Telephone company. He met and wooed Miss Parker while wire chief for the telephone system at Connetquot.

This has been a week of many social events in Statesville, the first occurring Monday evening, when Mr. and Mrs. Elig Wallace entertained at their handsome new home on Walnut street in honor of Mrs. Wallace's brother, Fred, Dear, of Wilmington, and other visitors in town. Progressive games were played and Miss Rose Stephany won the ladies prize, a silver hatpin, while the gentleman's J. C. Barstine and J. M. Soley, who were very enthusiastic over what they saw and heard at the meeting and returned with much material of value that will be used in the various departments of Sorosis when the club resumes work in the fall. The National Federation recommended that all the clubs make special efforts to have the mosquito exterminated and this appeal especially to the Wilmington Sorosis, who are planning a strenuous campaign on the germ-carrying pest. They will begin the crusade next fall and will work during the fall and winter months, using the new oil prepared for the purpose. The delegates to the state convention were Miss Julia Parsley and Mrs. W. L. Berry, and they reported that the special work of the State Federation this year would be in the interest of the Jackson Manual and Training school at Concord, because the governor had appointed women on the board of trustees. The new president, Mrs. Herbert McClumny, was installed at the meeting Thursday. The vice-presidents are Miss James R. W. Hicks and E. L. Prince and Mrs. W. J. Ranserman is the treasurer.

The members of the Bridge club and other guests were charmingly entertained Thursday afternoon by Miss Marie Long, the event being complimentary to Miss Catherine Copeland, one of the June brides. The Long home was made beautiful by the use of many cut flowers in the decorations and the affair was a most enjoyable one from every standpoint. Bridge was played at four tables and the club prize, a fan, was won by Mrs. H. O. Steele. The guest of honor prize, which, of course, went to Miss Copeland, was a beautiful embroidered table cover. Refreshments were served in two courses.

Miss Bertha Cline entertained Wednesday night at her home on West Front street in honor of her guests, Misses Belle Finster and Fannie Elmer, of Wilkesboro. Progressive hearts and music were sources of entertainment, and the affair was one of real pleasure.

About 15 of her young friends gave Miss Hazel Wallace a surprise party Wednesday evening at the home of her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Julius Wallace, on Walnut street. The guests arrived early, very unexpectedly, and remained late, but there was not a dull moment from the time they gathered until they left.

The affair was turned into a charming dinner party and four dishes of candy were made by the young folks. Miss Wallace being one of the high school graduates from the city school this week, Prof. D. Matt Thompson, superintendent, and Prof. H. E. Craven, principal of the school, were present at the party as honor guests.

Miss Rose Stephany was hostess to the Entre Nous ladies and other guests Wednesday afternoon. Progressive games were played and Miss Marie Long won the prize, a large brass vase. The visitor's prize was awarded to Miss Clara, of Richmond, it being a framed copy of the North Carolina coast. Other visitors present were Miss Bonzer, of South Carolina, and Misses Whitlock Long, of Asheville. A two-course luncheon was served.

A pleasant meeting of the Thursday Afternoon club was held with Mrs. W. M. Berringer Thursday afternoon. The literary program for the afternoon consisted of the reading of an excellent paper by Mrs. L. White. The Berringer home was prettily decorated and a social refreshments were served.

Mrs. L. W. MacKesson will entertain Tuesday afternoon in honor of Miss Copeland's bride-elect. The function promises to be a pleasing one. A large number of invitations have been sent out. Cards are also out for a euchre party, which will be given on the evening of June 7 by Mr. and Mrs. Earl S. Pogram in honor of Miss Copeland.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN WILMINGTON SOCIETY

(Special to Daily News.)

Wilmington, May 28.—The last regular meeting for the summer months of the North Carolina Sorosis was held Thursday afternoon at 5 o'clock, the society being entertained delightfully by the retiring president, Mrs. W. Hicks, at her home on North Third street. Among the features of the meeting were reports from delegates to the state and national conventions of the Federation of Women's Clubs, held recently in Hendersonville and Cincinnati, respectively. The delegates to the national convention were Mesdames J. C. Barstine and J. M. Soley, who were very enthusiastic over what they saw and heard at the meeting and returned with much material of value that will be used in the various departments of Sorosis when the club resumes work in the fall. The National Federation recommended that all the clubs make special efforts to have the mosquito exterminated and this appeal especially to the Wilmington Sorosis, who are planning a strenuous campaign on the germ-carrying pest. They will begin the crusade next fall and will work during the fall and winter months, using the new oil prepared for the purpose. The delegates to the state convention were Miss Julia Parsley and Mrs. W. L. Berry, and they reported that the special work of the State Federation this year would be in the interest of the Jackson Manual and Training school at Concord, because the governor had appointed women on the board of trustees. The new president, Mrs. Herbert McClumny, was installed at the meeting Thursday. The vice-presidents are Miss James R. W. Hicks and E. L. Prince and Mrs. W. J. Ranserman is the treasurer.

The chairman of the different departments for the ensuing year are: Home science, Mrs. H. E. Batten; art, Mrs. R. L. Cobb; literature, Mrs. Richard Price; music, Mrs. William French. The hospitality committee for the year, appointed by the retiring president, Mrs. J. C. Stevenson, are Mrs. Hugh MacRae, Miss Julia Parsley, Miss Bessie Leoler and Miss Blanche Morton. Invitations have been issued to the marriage of Miss Lillian Kirby, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Andrews, to William Archibald McGirt, which will be celebrated at the home of the bride-elect, No. 819 Princess street, June 1, at 5 o'clock. The young people are very popular in wide circle of friends and friends will extend to these happy nuptials upon this announcement.

Lieut. R. O. Edwards, of Fort Caswell, and Miss Lillian Martin Perry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. Sawyer Perry, of Roanoke, Va., will be married in St. Paul's Episcopal church, Salem, Va., June 6, at 8 o'clock. They will be at home at Fort Caswell after July 1. The prospective groom is lieutenant in the coast artillery corps, United States army, stationed at Fort Caswell. One of the events of the coming week, socially is the Music Festival, which will be given in the Academy of Music on Wednesday and Thursday nights, under the auspices of the Choral Society of Wilmington. The first concert will be devoted almost exclusively to orchestra numbers, an attractive program of high class music having been arranged by Prof. John F. Kneisel, director of the orchestra. Mrs. Horace R. Dowell, of Raleigh, will be the soloist. Part I of the program on the second night will be orchestral numbers, and Part II will be the rendition of Cowen's "Rose Maiden." The chorus of 75 voices has held weekly rehearsals for the past five weeks under the direction of E. H. Munson, the director. The soloists for the production are Mrs. Horace R. Dowell, of Raleigh, soprano, a singer of wide reputation; Mrs. Joseph D. Edwards, contralto; Mrs. Joseph B. Fenley, tenor, and Harry R. Bates, baritone, the last three named being of Wilmington. It is expected that many out-of-town people will be here for the event, which will be made a brilliant society affair.

Miss Elizabeth Gordon, of Williamsport, is the guest of her aunt, Mrs. James C. Stevenson. Mrs. A. H. Dawson, of Philadelphia, is visiting her parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. W. Gibson, on South Third street. Mrs. Julia A. Turner and daughter, Little Miss Annie Turner, have returned to their home in Greensboro after a visit to Mr. and Mrs. W. P. Mangum Turner. Mr. and Mrs. Swift Bostwight are visiting Mr. and Mrs. Trench Cox in Asheville.

EVENTS OF THE WEEK IN STATE CAPITAL SOCIETY

(Special to Daily News.)

Raleigh, May 28.—The literary department of the Woman's club, of Raleigh, held its last meeting for the season Thursday afternoon when there was an admirable paper on "The Drama Since Shakespeare," a reading from "The Stoops to Conquer," and another from "The School for Scandal" and "The Rivals." The program was under the direction of Miss Eliza Poole. Her associates on the literature committee the past season have been Mrs. M. B. Sherwood, Mrs. S. E. Young, Miss Mattie Bailey and Miss Caro Gray.

Thursday afternoon Miss Lizzie Rogers was hostess for a delightful "miscellaneous shower" for Miss Katharine Barbee, who is to become the bride of Mr. Hart, of New Bern, June 8.

John E. Wyatt issues invitations for the marriage of his daughter, Miss Louise, and Dr. C. Pritchard Norris, of Durham, the wedding to be at the Wyatt home in this city June 8. Dr. Norris is a dentist of Durham. Miss Wyatt is a cultured and highly esteemed young woman.

Wednesday afternoon Mrs. A. B. Ball entertained at cards in honor of Miss Kate Barbee, who is to be married early in June. Bridge was played and Miss Ruby Norris won the prize. There were lovely special decorations and a service of delicious refreshments. The punch was served by Mrs. Herbert Rosenthal and Mrs. E. H. Baker.

Mr. and Mrs. Claude R. Barbee have issued invitations for the marriage of their daughter, Miss Kate Wayland Barbee, to B. M. Hart, of New Bern, the ceremony to take place Wednesday, June 8, in Edenton Street Methodist church. Mr. Hart is a well known cotton broker of New Bern. The marriage will be one of special social interest.

Tuesday morning Miss Ruby Norris was hostess for a bridge luncheon at which Miss Katharine Barbee, bride-to-be of B. M. Hart, of New Bern, was the guest of honor. The decorations for the Norris home were wild flowers, ferns and palms, and quantities of especially handsome roses. The following were the guests: Miss Congdon, New Bern; Miss Hancock, New Bern; Miss Hart, Edenton; Miss Gertrude Winston, Miss Annie Young, Miss Fannie Young, Miss Caro Gray, Miss Lee, Miss Duncan, Miss Crews, Miss Wright, Miss Dewrey, Miss Boyland, Miss Rogers, Miss Latta, Miss McDonald, Miss Lacy, Miss Annie McKimmon, Miss Causse, Miss Minette Causse, Mrs. Latta, Mrs. Herbert Norris, Mrs. Holt, Mrs. Ball, Mrs. Herbert Rosenthal, Mrs. Hyllier and Miss Willa Norris.

The keenest interest is being manifested in the approaching marriage of Hon. Platt D. Walker, associate justice of the Supreme court, and Miss Alna Locke Mordecai, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Mordecai, of New Orleans, at Newport News Wednesday, June 8, the ceremony to be by Rt. Rev. Joseph Blount Cheshire, bishop of the Diocese of North Carolina, and Dr. Darst, rector, in St. Paul's church. Pembroke Jones, the well known millionaire, of Wilmington and New York, a cousin of Judge Walker, will serve as best man. There will be three maidens of honor, Mrs. John H. Chalmers, New York; Mrs. William E. Holt, Lexington, and Mrs. Cecil L. Cornelius, Newport News.

The bridesmaids will be Miss Annie Preston Bridges, Asheville; Miss Alice Davis, Wilmington; Miss Lelia Sanders, New Orleans. Attending as flower girls will be little Misses Sallie Cameron, Raleigh, and Annie Manning, Durham. The ushers will be Judge Manning and Judge Brown, associates of Judge Walker on the North Carolina Supreme court bench; United States Senator Overman, Hon. Thomas Settle, Charles W. Tillitt, Charlotte; John M. Walker, Baltimore; Walter Mordecai, New York, and Herbert Mordecai, New Orleans. A marriage of much interest for which the invitations are just issued is that of Miss Elsie Stockard, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Henry Jerome Stockard, of Peace institute, to Arthur J. Wilson, of Knoxville, Ill., now an instructor in chemistry in Cornell university. The marriage is to be in the First Presbyterian church here on Wednesday, June 8, at 5 p. m. Mr. Wilson was an honor graduate of the A. A. M. college here.

At a Fire in Mexico. (Wide World Magazine.) It might be thought that such an exciting thing as a fire would startle the Mexicans out of their habitual indolence, but such is not the case. The alarm of a fire at Matamoros, Coahuila, Mex., was given by the discharge of numerous pistols and guns; and the writer hastened to the scene—thinking at first that a battle was raging. After a long interval during which the people watched the fire with interest, chattering among themselves meanwhile—there appeared, placidly trundling along the road, the Matamoros equivalent of a fire engine, drawn by a reluctant burro. A whiplash in each end of the keg permitted it to roll freely and ropes attached it to the animal. Behind walked the "fire brigade" a solitary peon, bearing a bucket. Arrived at the scene of the conflagration, the water in the barrel was poured into buckets and hauled to the roof of an adjacent house, whence it was flung on to the flames. Everybody was greatly excited; the calmest thing of all was the fire, which burnt steadily on till there was nothing left to consume. Then, as the spectacle was over, the people dispersed. Everyman was
