GUILFORD COLLEGE

(Special to Daily News.)

Guilford College, June 4. As an emblem of Guilford commencement we speak very proudly of the fine exercises of the week. After the rush of the ten days past the students and visitors have left the college and the campus is quiet and lonely except for the remaining school students. The dormitories are not kept open for the summer school as was the case last year. Several students are bounding over the neighborhood, however, and making up lost work on taking advance classes under the direction of Prof. D. H. Crisp and Henry Dicks.

The college was filled with visitors during commencement. Three who have attended the commencement in years past give the number as the largest they have ever known. In addition to the home guests from the adjoining counties were several from various parts of the state. Among these were Mr. and Mrs. William Anderson, of Charlotte, parents of North American, a member of the graduating class who visited Mrs. Anderson's mother, Mrs. Emma Worth. Mr. and Mrs. Wilson Spray, of Waynesville, parents of Miss Corbin, who graduated in the literary course and in piano music. Mr. and Mrs. Zeno Dixon, of Yorkville, whose daughter, Miss Dixon, won the highest honors of this year's class. Professor Dixon is principal of Yorkville academy.

The Missionary society met at the home of Mrs. James Yates on Thursday afternoon. Miss Hazel Terrell gave an interesting and instructive talk on the customs and peculiarities connected with the mission work in India. Miss Terrell has been a missionary at Puerto Padre mission for the past six years and is in the state on a furlough. She, with her mother, have spent several weeks with her sister, Mrs. Fred Hollowell. They will leave on the 7th inst. for their home in Ohio.

Mrs. Nellie Knight entertained the Epulian club at her home this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock.

FIRST COMMENCEMENT AT HIGGS A DECIDED SUCCESS

(Special to Daily News.)

Parmelee, June 3.—The first annual commencement exercises of Higgs Industrial institute, Parmelee, N. C., began last Sunday afternoon at 3 o'clock. The baccalaureate sermon was delivered by the Rev. M. B. M. Butler, Greensville, N. C. He chose for his text "Seek and ye shall find." So practical did he handle the subject that no one present could go away without being greatly benefited. He urged the importance of seeking industrial education and showed that no person could be truly religious without the habits of industry. That one must seek proper association in order to maintain a high intellectual and moral standard. "In the midst of this," said he, "first seek eternal life."

Monday evening at 8 o'clock, program by the Primary department. The principal speech was delivered by the Rev. Charles H. Davis, D. D., Greensville, N. C. He spoke of the need of a school in this section of the state that would train the colored youth to the habits of industry that they may become better citizens. He said that the school would have a broad field of usefulness in such a needy section of North Carolina and appealed to the people to give thoughtful encouragement to such a worthy cause.

Tuesday evening, program by the Douglas Literary society. The address was delivered by Prof. C. E. Askew, president of the Haver Institute, Washington, N. C. He emphasized the importance of maintaining a high moral standard, accumulating property, his showed with telling effect that success on individual could see hope for much so long as their earnings were thrown in the wind.

Wednesday, the exercises of the week closed with a very interesting program that was a credit to the institution. Principal Carter spoke of the object of the school and what it had accomplished during the session. He appealed to the students to give up their play and at all times cultivate good habits as to make real men and women.

The Young Men's entertainment for the benefit of the school was a great success.

Appropriately Celebrated

Epsteinville, June 4.—The late Mrs. Termon Davis was appropriately celebrated here this morning by the J. F. B. Stuart chapter United Daughters of the Confederacy. An eloquent address being delivered by Mrs. C. S. Traylor. The other members of the program, who sang songs by the Annie M. Kelly, did not's share and a quartet, a sketch of Mrs. Margaret Davis Davis and a recitation "President Davis" by Miss Mamie Garrison.

SPRING HOPE MERCHANTS MAKING IMPROVEMENTS

(Special to Daily News.)

Spring Hope, June 4.—W. N. Gardner and C. E. Parker, two energetic and enterprising young men, have formed a partnership, and have started the Spring Hope Bottling works. All sorts of soft drinks will be bottled. They are now turning out drinks, and hope to be able in a week or two to take care of local trade. These two young men also run an up-to-date machine shop.

The firm of T. C. May and Sons, one of the best known firms of the town, is planning at an early date to build a large addition to their storehouse. Already they occupy one of the most commodious buildings in town. It now consists of two big storehouses, but a third will be added. The additional room, which is demanded by increased business, will be used as a storage room for heavy groceries, hay, etc.

The firm of W. H. Griffin company is preparing to build a large double brick storehouse in the near future. The store will be built on the lot formerly owned by Woodard and Capland, and the former site of the Hotel Margaret. W. H. Griffin is the head of this enterprising firm, and he will build a storehouse that is in every way a credit to the town.

The regular monthly meeting of the board of county commissioners will be held at Nashville the coming Monday. It will be an important meeting. The tax voters will be given final instructions. The tax levy for the coming year will be fixed. Already five districts have voted the local tax for schools this year. The commissioners will levy the tax voted. There will be other important matters to engage the attention of the commissioners. It is expected that there will be a large crowd in Nashville Monday as it is the last first Monday before the primary June 25.

The meeting is still in progress at the Baptist church. The Rev. Charles F. Maddy, of Statesville, is the preacher in charge.

Pleasant Reading for the Fat

What a simple and inexpensive solution of the fat problem the Marmola Prescription Tablets provide. They take care of those fat men, pleasant little tablets, after a meal and at bedtime and from 12 to 16 ounces of fat every day and yet suffers no harm, creates no disturbances in work and produces no wrinkles. This elegant preparation, made exactly in accordance with the famous Marmola process, has rendered excess flesh as superfluous as a fifth wheel. A further recommendation is that it is the least expensive fat reducer on the market. A large case costing only 75 cents from any druggist or by mail from the Marmola Co., 604 Farmer Field, Detroit, Mich., containing a quantity of tablets large enough to give very decided results in most every case.
