

TWO HEARTS MADE ONE

One of Burlington's Social Favorites Becomes a Bride.

(Special to Daily News.) Burlington, June 8.—A marriage this morning in which the whole town was interested, at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Holt, on Park Square, at 10 o'clock, when their daughter, Miss Nina Fleetwood, and Dr. John Samuel Frost were married.

Last Saturday afternoon the Embroidery club, of which the bride is a member, gave a "linen shower" for her at the home of Mrs. George O. Summers. This was a most enjoyable affair.

For the ceremony, which was extremely simple and sweet, the hall and parlor were beautifully decorated with potted ferns and palms. A huge bank of these plants in the bow-window formed the setting for the marriage. The shades were drawn and shaded lights were used.

Before the marriage a musical program was rendered by Miss Mammie Best of Goldsboro. Miss Byrde Dalley sang "Oh, Promise Me." To the joyous notes of "Lohengrin," Dr. Frost and Miss Holt came in from the hall together and unattended, and standing before the officiating minister, Dr. F. H. Fleming, they took the sacred vows, using the ring ceremony "Traumerel" was played during the ceremony. Following this a reception was held for an hour at the home.

The receiving party in the hall was Miss Hester Holt and Mrs. G. D. Summers. During the reception Miss Lola Lashley gave a musical program, which was very enjoyable. In the dining room, Misses Mary Freeman, Margaret Hall, and Nettie Dalley presided. The decorations in the dining room were pink sweet peas, and the candles and electric light were shaded with pink shades. Pink streamers fell from the chandelier to the corners of the table. The color scheme of pink and white was carried out in the ice also.

The bride was attired in a going-away suit of gray, shoes and gloves to match, and wore a lavender hat. She carried bride's roses during the ceremony.

They drove to the station and boarded the noon train to Washington, New York, Albany and Philadelphia. They will be gone two weeks and upon their return will make their home here.

The array of bridal gifts was a shimmering mass of silver, cut glass and china. The parents of the bride gave the young couple a handsome home and lot on Freck street.

Dr. Frost is a native of Mocksville and a graduate of Baltimore Dental college. For the past year he has been practicing dentistry here and has won a most enviable reputation and a host of friends. The bride is one of the town's social favorites and is known far and wide for her sweet and attractive disposition.

SMILAX AND DAISIES

Beneath Beautiful Arch Happy Couple Plighted Their Troth.

Wadesboro, June 8.—Surrounded by a large circle of friends, beneath a beautiful arch of southern smilax with a profusion of daisies, erected on the lawn in front of the home of her parents, Dr. and Mrs. Walter Jones McLendon, Miss Helen May McLendon took the marriage vows tonight with Dr. Witt H. Morton, of Thomasville.

In the history of Wadesboro social circles there has not been a more beautiful arrangement for a marriage than upon this occasion. The spacious McLendon home sits well back from the street upon the crest of a beautifully terraced lawn. The ceremony was on this lawn, and the bridal party, handsomely costumed in full evening dress, came from the reception hall, and beneath the double arch on the carpet of green grass, with the starlit sky for a canopy, the solemn vows were exchanged. The large gathering of guests were grouped about the bridal party forming an immense circle. All was beautiful. The rooms of the house, reception hall, parlor and dining-rooms, were tastefully decorated, a profusion of daisies everywhere, with ferns, smilax and potted plants. The color scheme was gold and white and was carried throughout in decoration and costume. Mrs. T. B. Henry was in charge of the decoration and her work was much admired.

Two little flower girls, little Misses Eunice Morton and Marion McLendon, carried baskets of daisies before the bride.

The ushers were W. J. McLendon, of Marshall, and H. H. McLendon, D. W. Liles and W. C. Bivens, of Wadesboro. In conventional black full evening dress they formed the first circle.

The other attendants were: Dams of honor, Mrs. James Coit Redfern, sister of the bride. Matrons of honor, Mrs. James Henry Howse McLendon, and Larry Louidas McLendon, both sisters-in-law of the bride. Bridesmaids, Misses Sara Allen, of Polkton; Ruby Reid, of Wake Forest; Mary Johnson, of Thomasville, and Sue Watkins, of Henderson. These were college mates of the bride.

Shortly before the approach of the bridal party, Miss Charlie Belle Craig very sweetly rendered, "Could I But Tell." The piano was played in the deep bay window of the parlor and here Mrs. Walter Jones McLendon, of Marshall, presided and the wedding party left the house to the strains of the wedding march by Mendelssohn.

The pastor of the Wadesboro Baptist church, the Rev. T. W. Chambliss, in a service prepared for the occasion, took the vows and the solemn service closed with the sealing of the vows with the ring.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was held on the lawn and concluding in the reception rooms with a dainty ice course in white and gold.

The bride and bridegroom left on the Seaboard Air Line for a southern trip and will be at home at Thomasville upon their return.

The bride is a very attractive and cultured young woman, popular in the church and social circles. The bridegroom, Mr. Morton, is a successful business man of Thomasville.

VICTIMS OF CUPID

Beautiful Whitsett Home Scene of Pretty Marriage Ceremony.

(Special to Daily News.) Whitsett, June 8.—An extremely pretty and picturesque marriage was celebrated this afternoon, at 5 o'clock at the home of J. H. Rankin, at Whitsett, when his attractive daughter, Miss Blanche, was united in marriage to Dr. Julius Vance Dick.

For the occasion the lovely home was profusely decorated in daisies, thousands of them being seen on every hand, forming a most beautiful picture. In the parlor potted ferns were banded to form a background for the marriage. Mrs. W. C. Rankin, of Durham, and Mrs. E. M. Rollins, of Roberdel, received the guests at the door. The receiving party in the hall consisted of Misses Georgia Clapp and Rosalie Smith; Mrs. Dr. W. T. Whitsett; Mrs. J. Y. Joyner in the north parlor and Mrs. R. E. Buck, of Greensboro, and Miss Willie Smith, of Durham, in the south parlor.

Before the ceremony Miss Leslie Lindsay, of Greensboro, rendered a musical program wonderfully sweet and impressive. Miss Elizabeth Wheeler presided at the piano and played Mendelssohn's wedding march, for the entrance of the party, as follows: Dr. Dick with his best man, Dr. Dees, of Greensboro; the maid of honor, Miss Zula Rankin, of Fayetteville; the bride, Miss Rankin, with her father, who gave her away, Rev. J. A. Wilson, of Greensboro, used the ring ceremony uniting their lives.

The bride was gowned in white silk, an train, wearing veil and lilies of the valley, and carrying a bouquet of bride's roses. The maid of honor wore white batiste and carried pink roses.

After the ceremony a reception was held. Elegant refreshments were served, with Misses Mabel Thompson, Lola Wheeler and Elizabeth Clapp presiding in the dining-room.

At 8 o'clock Dr. and Mrs. Dick, accompanied by many of their friends, drove to Greensboro and left for Washington and New York to spend six weeks. Upon their return they will reside at Gibsonville.

Many beautiful presents of silver, china, cut glass, etc., attest the popularity of both parties.

Dr. Dick is well known all over this section, being a physician of no mean repute. He completed the medical course at the state university three years ago, and has since been practicing at Gibsonville, where he has built up a most enviable reputation and practice. His bride is one of Guilford's most charming young ladies. She is a graduate of Whitsett and has taught several years at Whitsett and Greensboro. She is known far and wide for her sweet disposition.

MARRIED ON THE LAWN

Greensboro Men Captured One of Hawfields' Favorite Young Ladies.

(Special to Daily News.)

Burlington, June 8.—A marriage of wide interest from the prominence of the contracting parties was solemnized at the home of the bride's father, J. R. White, at Hawfields, near here, this morning at 9:30, when Louise Knox Thompson, of Greensboro, and Miss Lola White were married.

A most delightful reception was held at the home of the bride for the bridal party last night.

The marriage occurred on the spacious lawn in front of the house. A magnificent arch of daisies and ferns, from the center of which was suspended a beautiful wedding ball of daisies, made a fitting spot for the plighting of their troth. Miss Annie Morrow, of Burlington, presided at the piano and played Mendelssohn's wedding march as the party came out. First came the attendants, D. E. White, of Greensboro, and Miss Margaret Call, of Mocksville; the groom with his best man, Q. J. Scott, of Winston-Salem; the maid of honor, Miss Agnes White, sister of the bride; the bride, with her father, who gave her away. Before the ceremony Miss Annie Bennett, of Burlington, sang "As Long as the World Rolls On." Using as the ring ceremony, Dr. B. W. Mebane, pastor of the Hawfields Presbyterian church, spoke the beautiful words, which only eternity can unsay.

The bride was lovely in a sweet gown of white batiste and carried a shower bouquet of bride's roses and lilies of the valley. The bridesmaids wore white and carried pink roses.

Many handsome gifts from friends spoke the high esteem in which they are both held.

Immediately after the ceremony Mr. and Mrs. Thompson drove to Moham, and left on the eastbound train for a trip to New York, Washington and Philadelphia. After two weeks they will return to Greensboro and make their home there.

Mr. Thompson is a native of this place, but has been in Greensboro the past two years where he holds a responsible position with Cone and Hedgepeth. He is a splendid young man. Miss White is a native of this county and has numerous friends all over this section. She is a graduate of the State Normal college and has spent the past two years teaching. She is a young woman of splendid worth and sweet disposition.

CAUGHT IN SNOW STORM ON FIRST DAY OF SUMMER

(Special to Daily News.)

Hickory, June 8.—Mr. J. W. Clay of this city has just returned from his mountain trip. He says that on June 1, the first day of summer he was caught in a fierce snow storm. The storm lasted for only five minutes but it was awful.

Mr. Clay and his party were held up the day before at Edgemont on account of a mountain rain and wind storm that had blown 30 or 40 ft trees across the new turnpike over which the 41 and N. W. auto mountain party were traveling. The mountain men were a whole day getting the trees and limbs out of the road.

MENDELSSOHN'S MARCH

Beautiful Country Home at Mt. Tirzah Scene of Ceremony.

(Special to Daily News.)

Rougemont, June 8.—On June 2, 1910, at the beautiful country home of James Robert Reare there was solemnized the marriage of La Fayette Sutherland, jr., and Miss May Reare.

The home was beautifully decorated with ferns and cut flowers, the color scheme being white and green.

To the strains of Mendelssohn's exquisite wedding march, beautifully rendered by Miss Sallie Hunter Reare, the bride, leaning of the arm of the bridegroom, marched to the artistically improvised altar. The Rev. N. C. Yearby, of Roxboro, N. C., officiated, the quaint and impressive ring ceremony being used.

Just before the entrance of the bridal party, "Because of You" was sung by Miss Lila Reare, the attractive sister of the bride.

Immediately after the ceremony the bridal party were driven to Helena, from which place they left for an extended tour through the northern cities.

The bride, who was handsomely gowned in a mauve colored hand embroidered costume, is one of the five lovely and attractive daughters of Mr. and Mrs. James Robert Reare.

She was educated at Littleton and Greensboro Female colleges. Since finishing school she had made her home with her parents at Mt. Tirzah, N. C.

Mr. Sutherland is an energetic and rising young lumber dealer, whose home is in the eastern part of the state.

After the return from the north, Mr. and Mrs. Sutherland will make their home in Wallace, N. C.

Senator Travis Improving.

(Special to Daily News.) Scotland Neck, June 8.—The friends of Hon. E. L. Travis throughout the state will be delighted to learn that he will be so much improved that he will return to his home in Halifax from Richmond during next week. Since Senator Travis was shot here on the fourth of March, he has been in a hospital, and at one time but little hope was held out for his recovery, but now, if no other complications arise, he will soon be well again, according to the latest reports.
