New York, June 9.—The jury in the New York, June 9.—Mayor Gaynor has been hunting graft in another field. He says that he has found it, and that it was flourishing openly in the federal building here. He has written to Attorney-General Wickersham saying that bribes are extorted from aliens who de sire to become naturalized.

Soon after the mayor took office he received complaints which led him to be gin an investigation. Applicants for naturalization papers are lined up in the federal building and stand there day after day awaiting attention. City detectives were stationed in the line and one of them reported that Jacob Goldstein approached him and demanded $25 as the price of having his case attended to. Goldstein told him, he said, that if he did not pay he might stand in line 100 days without getting any nearer to the room in which the clerks were making out the papers.

The defective says he paid $14 to Goldstein who was then arrested.

"Read these letters from Havenseyer parsonable details." "Read these letters from Havenseyer parsonally directed in all its details.

"Read these letters from Havenseyer here."

The detective says he paid $14 to Goldstein, who was then arrested. When Goldstein was arrested he was brought before a United States commiss who knew it all, who did it all. Havebrought before a United States commissioner charged with baving conspired to extort money from applicants for naturalization. Assistant United States District Atterney Walton, the complainment in the case, said that he was not prepared to proceed and the prisoner was discharged. The evidence in Mayor Gaynor's possession will be submitted to the federal grand jury.
