KING KELLY'S CREW TOOK IN GOLDSBORO THREE STRAIGHT

EASTERN CAROLINA LEAGUE. Monday, Tuesday and Wednesday. Raleigh at Weldon. Wilmington at Goldsboro. Rocky Mount at Fayetteville.

TWINS GOT THEIR FOURTH CONSECUTIVE TROUNCING

(Special to Daily News.) Winston, June 18. Greenville ended its Winston streak today by administering the fourth consecutive defeat to the Twins. There were 10 runs scored and but few missed out to see it.

POOR LAVE MUST HAVE BEEN THINKING OF WASHINGTON

(Special to Daily News.) Charlotte, June 18. Anderson just simply walked away with today's game. There didn't seem to be anything much the matter with the losing team but they didn't play baseball.

BROOKS WON HIS OWN GAME WITH A TWO-BASE HIT

(Special to Daily News.) Wilmington, June 18. In one of the best games seen here this season a game determined by a single round ball stroke took the Twins to the wire from the Athletics by a score of 2 to 1.

HIGHLANDERS TAKE HIGHER RUNG IN THEIR CLIMB

(Special to Daily News.) Greenville, June 18. Fayetteville continued its lead on first base as it averaged a third successive defeat to Weldon in the afternoon.
