

IN DURHAM'S CHURCHES

Variety of Subjects Discussed by Pastors of the Town.

(Special to Daily News.) Durham, June 20.—Rev. L. H. Jones, the new pastor of Mangum Street Methodist church, held his first services yesterday morning and evening.

Mr. Jones comes here from Drew seminary, New York, where he has been studying. He had previously held a pastorate in Central church, Raleigh, a period of three years. He is a native of Camden county, a young man and recommended highly as a pastor. He will room for the present with I. G. Lawrence.

Rev. George P. Bostic, former pastor of the Baptist church, held that pulpit last night and told of the missionary cause in China.

Mr. Bostic was pastor of the Durham church 20 years ago, and though there were a few of the old ones present, he found strangers largely. His service was very interesting.

At yesterday's First Baptist service the captains of the sections committed to the task of raising money for repairs and a good pipe organ, were named, 80 men and women having the work of lifting the $10,000 that will be necessary to put the church in the shape desired.

Rev. Dr. Lynch, the pastor, told the congregation that this was the first request that he had many of them, and that he would make it a test of his ministry.

After telling the congregation that he would make his request the test of his ministry here, he stepped to the pulpit and made perhaps the greatest address of his entire ministry, choosing the narrative of the third chapter of Genesis, the prophecy relating to the serpent: "Thou shalt bruise thy head," as the text. It was one of his real wonderful sermons.

The congregation will have to build the church like he wants it.

WILL MAKE ANOTHER TRY FOR REIDSVILLE POSTOFFICE.

(Special to Daily News.) Reidsville, June 20.—The people of Reidsville were hoping that Congressman Morehead would succeed in securing the passage of his bill making an appropriation of $35,000 for the enlargement of the postoffice building at this place and there was keen disappointment among our people when the Reidsville item was not found in the omnibus bill, as published in the papers yesterday. However, Postmaster Joyce is in receipt of a telegram from Congressman Morehead this afternoon informing him that he has secured a report on the bill, and will use every effort to have the item included in the public buildings bill at the present session.

It is believed now that Mr. Morehead will be successful. If so, Reidsville will have a building commensurate with the growing needs of her postal business, and one of which her citizens will be proud.

Appropriation for the original construction of the building was secured by Hon. John M. Brewer, when he represented this district in Congress in 1891. The building was first occupied in 1894. At that time, and for some years afterward, it was sufficiently large for the transaction of the postal business of the town, but in more recent years the town has outgrown the building and the space now required for the transaction of the postal business is inadequate.

WINSTON NEWSPAPER MAN WINS WADESBORO YOUNG LADY.

(Special to Daily News.) Wadesboro, June 20.—Cards are out announcing the approaching marriage of Miss Ethel Patrick, daughter of Col. John T. Patrick, of this city, to Carl Raymond Lawson. The ceremony occurs Wednesday evening, June 23, at 6:30 o'clock. Miss Patrick has a large circle of friends in Wadesboro and the surrounding section, and is a cultured young woman. Mr. Lawson is a newspaper man at Winston-Salem.

THEY COME IN THREES

Railroads Suffer Several Wrecks, But No Loss of Life.

(Special to Daily News.) Raleigh, June 20.—Every railroad running into Raleigh had traffic tied up some time or another during the past week by serious freight wrecks. President and General Manager John A. Mills declared today that it seemed to be just one of those seasons of wreckage that seem to come to the railroads from time to time in the most unaccountable manner. However, he and other railroad men express the view that the wrecks of the past week were due largely to the heavy and continued rains that had an unsettling effect on the roadbeds. The worst wrecks close around Raleigh were on the Southern and Norfolk and Southern railways Saturday afternoon and night. The Southern wreckage two miles east of Raleigh was not cleared up until toward noon Sunday, while the Norfolk and Southern track was blocked until far into the afternoon Sunday in spite of the fact that the wreck was early in the evening Saturday. In this wreck, which was a freight train derailment between Raleigh and Wilson, there were a dozen box cars smashed and the track was completely torn up for a couple of hundred yards. No one was hurt.

The wreck on the Raleigh and South port railroad, which was not made public at the time, was on Friday and cost the company three cars. A remarkable feature of this wreck, President Mills says, was that the running gear of the three cars were piled one on top of the other. Traffic was delayed only a few hours.

SCALED THE ALLOTMENT
Poor Old Tobacco Company Can Have But $700,000 of Those Bonds.

(Special to Daily News.) Raleigh, June 20.—State Treasurer R. R. Lucy made the statement today that he found it necessary to scale the state bond allotment to the American Tobacco company down to $700,000, instead of issuing the company the $1,000,000 of bonds for which the company bid. The reason for this was that all the bids that were opened May 28, having been accepted at the time, when the time for the next sale came June 10, all the bids opened were from North Carolina bidders except the American Tobacco company. There is a clause of the bond act that requires that the state treasurer give the preference to North Carolina bidders. Hence it was necessary to allow the bids in the state first. When this was done, there remained only the $700,000 to be allotted to the American Tobacco company. Governor Kitchin was busy as Chester today signing the bonds, which are to be gotten out by July 1. The issue aggregates $3,430,000.

BURLINGTON NEWS.

(Special to Daily News.) Burlington, June 20.—Mayor C. R. Lovv starts off well as chief executive of Burlington. Some of the violators of the law are criticizing him, it is true, but that is in his favor. The best interests of all classes demand that the laws should be enforced, and it now looks like Mayor Lovv means to do that very thing.

Children's day exercises were held in Front Street Methodist church yesterday morning at 11 o'clock. A program of unusual interest had been prepared for the occasion and this program was followed throughout without a single hitch of any sort. The children taking part in the exercises manifested superior natural ability and splendid training. Great credit is due to Mrs. A. L. Davis and Miss Nettie Dailey for the complete success of the exercises. The collection amounted to about $75.

Professor Singletary, the new superintendent of our schools, spent a day or two in our town last week. Those of our people who met him seemed pleased with him and he seemed to like the looks of Burlington. Three new teachers have been elected for the graded and the high school, as follows: Prof. W. A. Fick, Professor Carrick and Miss Bernice Hornaday.

The Epworth League of Front Street Methodist church, at the business meeting last week, elected Miss Berde Dailey and Miss Dora Hornaday delegates to the annual meeting of the conference league, to be held in Hertford this week.

Must Provide the Sidings.
(Special to Daily News.) Raleigh, June 20.—The corporation commission today made an order in the long drawn out contest at Reidsville, in which the P. R. Penn Tobacco company, the Southern Railway company and a number of property owners are involved over the question of right of way for additional sidetracks needed by the Penn company. The order is to the effect that the siding required by the Penn company must be provided within 60 days.

The Tenderfoot Farmer
It was one of these experimental farmers, who put green spectacles on his cow and fed her shavings. His theory was that it didn't matter what the cow ate so long as she was fed. The questions of digestion and nourishment had not entered into his calculations. It's only a "tenderfoot" farmer that would try such an experiment with a cow. But many a farmer feeds himself regardless of digestion and nutrition. He might almost as well eat shavings for all the good he gets out of his food. The result is that the stomach grows "weak" the action of the organs of digestion and nutrition are impaired and the man suffers the miseries of dyspepsia and the agonies of nervousness. To strengthen the stomach, restore the activity of the organs of digestion and nutrition and brace up the nerves, use Dr. Pierce's Golden Medical Discovery. It is an unfailing remedy, and has the confidence of physicians as well as the praise of thousands healed by its use. In the strictest sense "Golden Medical Discovery" is a temperance medicine. It contains neither intoxicants nor narcotics, and is as free from alcohol as from opium, cocaine and other dangerous drugs. All ingredients printed on its outside wrapper. Don't let a dealer bleed you for his own profit. There is no medicine for stomach, liver and blood "just as good" as "Golden Medical Discovery."

JEALOUSY THE CAUSE

Pink Page in Jail for Killing of Will Barham.

(Special to Daily News.) Raleigh, June 20.—Pink Page, connected with the Whitman sawmill near the edge of Franklin county, was committed to jail here this morning for the killing of Will Barham, the fatal fight having grown out of jealousy on the part of Barham because of alleged attention that Page was paying to Jim Perry, a divorcee wife of N. Denton, of Raleigh. The killing was at the home of the woman's sister, Mrs. Tinker Perry, near Wendell, to which place Page came to give himself up to the officers. He was talking to the Pulley woman when Barham came up and struck him across the head. Knives were drawn and Barham cut Page deeply down the left side of his face and again across the right side. Page shot Barham three times and says Barham was drawing his revolver when he fired his first shot. He insists that he had offered no provocation to bring on the fight.

RANDLEMAN NOTES
(Special to Daily News.) Randleman, June 20. The funeral of little William Aldison Cole, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. H. Cole, was held yesterday afternoon at 5 o'clock at the residence on Main street, the interment following at St. Paul's cemetery. The Rev. G. E. Kaves, pastor of the M. E. church, conducted the services. The many friends here and elsewhere deeply sympathize with the bereaved parents in the loss of their bright little son. Miss Annie McIntyre, of Troy, is the guest of Miss Mary Ferree at the Hotel Randolph. Misses Juanita and Mabelle Redding and Ernest Redding went to Ashboro yesterday to attend the funeral of the infant of Mr. and Mrs. Hinshaw. Mrs. J. W. Long and daughters, Misses Marjorie and Frances, of Greensboro, were here yesterday to attend the funeral of little William Cole. Miss Hannah Wise was in town for a few hours yesterday. The Rev. Mr. McFadyen, of Clarkton, is visiting at the home of his son, Dr. P. R. McFadyen. John Woolen, of Danville, is visiting his mother, Mrs. P. J. Woolen. Miss Mildred Burkhead, of Ashboro, is the guest of Miss Lucy Gaudell. The Misses Fox have returned from a visit to Dr. M. L. Fox, of Rameaux. Mrs. John R. Ferree and daughters, Helen and Annie Woolen, of Danville, came Sunday to attend the funeral of the little son of Mr. and Mrs. Cole. They will remain for some time with relatives here.

ST. JOHN'S DAY CELEBRATION AT OXFORD ORPHANAGE, JUNE 24
Announcement of the program for this occasion has been made. A special session of the grand lodge of Masons of North Carolina at about 11:30 a. m. Open-air exercises, to begin about noon. Prayer by the grand chaplain. Address of welcome by W. B. Ballou, of Oxford. Response. Song, "Old North State," by the children, the audience joining in the chorus. Introduction of the orator of the day by Grand Master Richard N. Hackett. Oration by Rev. Plato Durham, of Concord. Song by the children. Recess for dinner. Near the hour of 3 o'clock in the afternoon the children of the orphanage will give a concert from the large stand in the grove. This celebration will occur in one of the grandest old oak groves in the state. The Oxford orphanage is now caring for 320 children. A visit to this institution is well worth while. The exercises of the day will be interesting and profitable. The communication of the grand lodge of Masons will be attended by many members of the fraternity. For the people who attend, pure ice water in abundance will be furnished. Some of those who go will take with them baskets and will enjoy their dinner out under the spreading oaks. For those who do not bring dinner, or provide elsewhere for it, there will be on sale at reasonable prices barbecues, ham, sandwiches and other lunches. Fruits, confectionaries, ice drinks and ice cream will also be sold to meet the demand for such physical wants and needs. The Southern railway will have special equipment on its regular trains into Oxford and will give very low rates. The schedules of their trains are very favorable, except from points west of Durham. The Southern railway will, this time operate an excursion train from Greensboro to Oxford for the accommodation of people of that section. From Weldon, Raleigh, Durham and Henderson, the Seaboard A. L. Line will conduct excursions and grant very special rates and give splendid schedules. If weather is favorable from 8,000 to 10,000 people will likely be present. Not only will this be a day of pleasure, but it will be one of genuine recreation and profit to many.

Durham, June 20.—Victor S. Bryant returned Sunday night from Maiden, Va., where he went last week to assist in the defense of Jim Tingen, charged with the murder of one Myers. Tingen was acquitted. Myers, a giant in strength, appears to have taunted Tingen, as he had the reputation of having done other penitentiary mates, and battered him for a fight. The case was so clearly one of self-defense that the trial judge told the jurist that in the event of a verdict against the defendant it would be set aside. Tingen, a former Durham boy, was at that time serving a term of five years for housebreaking, and has been in the penitentiary about two of these.

Bob, These "Burrojaps" Are Certainly Great

"DO you know, old man, it's a real delight to wear a new pair of BURROJAPS. There's no 'breaking in' to be done. You get comfortable service while the shoe's new—right at the time when you ought to be enjoying its newness most. Many's the time I've had to go back to my old hikers when my new shoes began to hurt, and just at a time when I wanted to look my best. But that was before I owned my first pair of BURROJAPS.

"Did I first buy "BURROJAPS for comfort, did you say? No, I was on my usual hunt for style. Then, I was also attracted by the BURROJAPS guarantee. You know every purchaser is guaranteed a new pair absolutely free, if the uppers break through before the soles wear through. This guarantee covers patent leather BURROJAPS as well as the dull and tan models.

"But to get back to style. You know how all the fellows have been envying my footwear lately. Well, these beauties I have on represent somewhat less than one-sixtieth of the entire range of styles CALLAHAN-DOBSON showed me. Bob, I don't know what particular style shoe hits you hardest, but I do know that CALLAHAN-DOBSON have it."
