BROKE A RECORD

Champs Had Twenty-Eight Men Left on Bases.

BUT NONE OF THEM COUNTED

Brazile Pitched Fine Ball in First And Wallace Was Poorly Supported in Second.

Inability to hit and exceedingly listless work on the paths was responsible for a double setting of eggs handed the champs by Lave Cross and his Hornets yesterday.

The first game started promptly at 2:30 o'clock, about 700 fans being on hand. Tony Walters went to the mound, his opponent being Brazile and both pitchers twirled good ball, though the latter had much the best of the proposition.

Time after time the locals had golden opportunities to score, but they always went glimmering, seemingly without an especial effort, and there was little doubt about the result after the first two rounds.

The second game, like the first, was notable for the absence of hits at the proper time. Wallace, the new twirler, went in and Hankie delivered the benders for Charlotte.

Thursday, Friday and Saturday. Fayetteville at Rocky Mount. Goldsboro at Wilmington. Wilson at Raleigh.

Rocky Mount, June 25.—After having tied up the game in the early sessions, the eleven inning game singled through the box for one base and on Miller's single in right he rumped home with an nerve racking piece of base running as was ever seen here. The ball was handled clean and the throw to the plate was good, but the thief beat it there and by a phenomenal slide won his own game in the eleventh.
