

GREENSBORO DAILY NEWS

Published Every Day in the Year by Greensboro News Company.

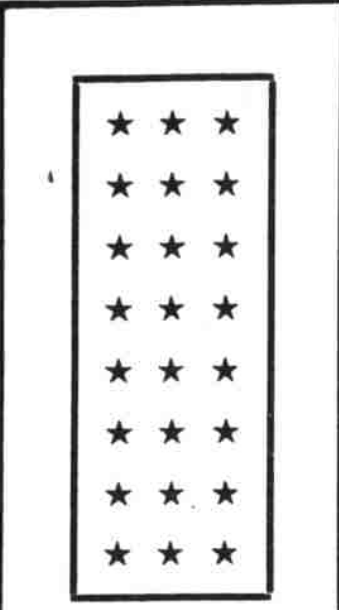

Managers: H. B. JOYNER, Advertising Manager; EARLE GODFREY, Editor; A. L. STOCKTON, Managing Editor.

MEMBER OF THE ASSOCIATED PRESS. The Associated Press is exclusive.

SUBSCRIPTION PRICE: One Year $10.00, Six Months $6.00, Three Months $3.50.

By NEWS carrier delivery service in Greensboro for one week: Daily and Sunday $1.75.

MONDAY, DECEMBER 30, 1918.

PARAGRAPHS.

"Ring out the old"—do you get that Hohenzollern? In o. w., if we get the secretary of war right...

WILL HEAD THE LIST.

When Secretary of the Navy Josephus Daniels entered the cabinet of President Wilson in 1913 a great hubbub went up...

MANGIN'S WARNING.

Since the abdication of William Hohenzollern as emperor and king, his inglorious flight to Holland, the apparent collapse of the German military machine...

NO SENSE IN RUNNING WILD.

A part of New York society—the upper part—gave a victory ball Saturday night, not so much in celebration of victory as in celebration of the state of relaxation now permissible.

THE GENERAL ASSEMBLY.

There are lots of important things that the general assembly could do, that need to be done without delay.

KING MISHANDLES KING'S ENGLISHLISH.

"This is an historic moment and your visit marks an historic epoch," said George Woodrow. The king's English, it may be said, is unquestionably the king's English.

and progressively by the lessons of experience.

And in the evening light of the war the earnestness of his patriotic purpose and the magnitude of the job he has done are clearly visible.

A REMINDER.

Many things, it will be recalled, were greatly more difficult during the war. Take first instance the meteorological phenomena.

British Premier and President Agree—Headline in favorite newspaper.

If that is the case, the rest of 'em might as well be.

Soldiers' Letters

[The public are interested in letters recording the experiences and impressions of our soldiers in the field.]

From Cook L. Andrews, 8th A. A. Battery, A. E. F., November 24, to his mother.

I am well and getting along fine with my work. Believe me I was sure glad to get in the kitchen again this winter.

From Samuel T. Latta, Jr., Battery "C," 113 A. A. E. F., Oct. 20 to his home people, Orange county.

I am living in a dugout made by the Germans. We have been in this place about 14 days.

From W. E. Baldwin, Battery C, 4th trench artillery, A. E. F., France, November 24, to his father, M. A. Baldwin, Greensboro.

I'm well and happy at date. Hope this will find you well and all.

From Private Robert Forbis McLean, company B, 15th Cavalry, A. E. F., A. P. O. 775, A. E. F., November 18, to his mother, Mrs. J. C. McLean, Greensboro.

We are in a large town now, but I can't say that I like it. I know that we will soon be home.

From Charles R. Garrett, supply company, 12th Inf., 30th division, A. E. F., A. P. O. 24, to his father, H. F. Garrett, Greensboro.

I could write a week and not tell you half of what I have seen and done since I have been here.

able I'll try to enjoy myself in France today have been right pretty. We'll have a nice old turkey here.

From Henry M. Moore, company C, 105th engineers, 30th division, A. E. F., Bateau France, December 2, to his sister.

As the war is over I hope to soon be sailing westward. I sure would like to have been there the 11th.

From Corporal W. A. Curtis, Co. G, 105th regiment, United States Engineers, A. E. F., P. O. 749, November 13, Greensboro.

I guess the war is over and I sure am glad of it. At least the fighting has stopped.

From Private A. B. Holt, base hospital, No. 65, base section No. 5, P. O. 716, American expeditionary forces, France, November 28, to his home people.

I wanted to write to you last Sunday, but was feeling too bad to do anything.

From Cook L. Andrews, 8th A. A. Battery, A. E. F., November 24, to his mother.

I am well and getting along fine with my work. Believe me I was sure glad to get in the kitchen again this winter.

From Samuel T. Latta, Jr., Battery "C," 113 A. A. E. F., Oct. 20 to his home people, Orange county.

I am living in a dugout made by the Germans. We have been in this place about 14 days.

From W. E. Baldwin, Battery C, 4th trench artillery, A. E. F., France, November 24, to his father, M. A. Baldwin, Greensboro.

I'm well and happy at date. Hope this will find you well and all.

From Private Robert Forbis McLean, company B, 15th Cavalry, A. E. F., A. P. O. 775, A. E. F., November 18, to his mother, Mrs. J. C. McLean, Greensboro.

We are in a large town now, but I can't say that I like it. I know that we will soon be home.

From Charles R. Garrett, supply company, 12th Inf., 30th division, A. E. F., A. P. O. 24, to his father, H. F. Garrett, Greensboro.

I could write a week and not tell you half of what I have seen and done since I have been here.

boom a southern born and southern raised lady for my wife, I mean the results of the war.

From Henry M. Moore, company C, 105th engineers, 30th division, A. E. F., Bateau France, December 2, to his sister.

As the war is over I hope to soon be sailing westward. I sure would like to have been there the 11th.

From Corporal W. A. Curtis, Co. G, 105th regiment, United States Engineers, A. E. F., P. O. 749, November 13, Greensboro.

I guess the war is over and I sure am glad of it. At least the fighting has stopped.

From Private A. B. Holt, base hospital, No. 65, base section No. 5, P. O. 716, American expeditionary forces, France, November 28, to his home people.

I wanted to write to you last Sunday, but was feeling too bad to do anything.

From Cook L. Andrews, 8th A. A. Battery, A. E. F., November 24, to his mother.

I am well and getting along fine with my work. Believe me I was sure glad to get in the kitchen again this winter.

From Samuel T. Latta, Jr., Battery "C," 113 A. A. E. F., Oct. 20 to his home people, Orange county.

I am living in a dugout made by the Germans. We have been in this place about 14 days.

From W. E. Baldwin, Battery C, 4th trench artillery, A. E. F., France, November 24, to his father, M. A. Baldwin, Greensboro.

I'm well and happy at date. Hope this will find you well and all.

From Private Robert Forbis McLean, company B, 15th Cavalry, A. E. F., A. P. O. 775, A. E. F., November 18, to his mother, Mrs. J. C. McLean, Greensboro.

We are in a large town now, but I can't say that I like it. I know that we will soon be home.

From Charles R. Garrett, supply company, 12th Inf., 30th division, A. E. F., A. P. O. 24, to his father, H. F. Garrett, Greensboro.

I could write a week and not tell you half of what I have seen and done since I have been here.

to whom I refer in my article in the

of the boys found out near here in an old town.

From Henry M. Moore, company C, 105th engineers, 30th division, A. E. F., Bateau France, December 2, to his sister.

As the war is over I hope to soon be sailing westward. I sure would like to have been there the 11th.

From Corporal W. A. Curtis, Co. G, 105th regiment, United States Engineers, A. E. F., P. O. 749, November 13, Greensboro.

I guess the war is over and I sure am glad of it. At least the fighting has stopped.

From Private A. B. Holt, base hospital, No. 65, base section No. 5, P. O. 716, American expeditionary forces, France, November 28, to his home people.

I wanted to write to you last Sunday, but was feeling too bad to do anything.

From Cook L. Andrews, 8th A. A. Battery, A. E. F., November 24, to his mother.

I am well and getting along fine with my work. Believe me I was sure glad to get in the kitchen again this winter.

From Samuel T. Latta, Jr., Battery "C," 113 A. A. E. F., Oct. 20 to his home people, Orange county.

I am living in a dugout made by the Germans. We have been in this place about 14 days.

From W. E. Baldwin, Battery C, 4th trench artillery, A. E. F., France, November 24, to his father, M. A. Baldwin, Greensboro.

I'm well and happy at date. Hope this will find you well and all.

From Private Robert Forbis McLean, company B, 15th Cavalry, A. E. F., A. P. O. 775, A. E. F., November 18, to his mother, Mrs. J. C. McLean, Greensboro.

We are in a large town now, but I can't say that I like it. I know that we will soon be home.

From Charles R. Garrett, supply company, 12th Inf., 30th division, A. E. F., A. P. O. 24, to his father, H. F. Garrett, Greensboro.

I could write a week and not tell you half of what I have seen and done since I have been here.

to whom I refer in my article in the

of the boys found out near here in an old town.

From Henry M. Moore, company C, 105th engineers, 30th division, A. E. F., Bateau France, December 2, to his sister.

As the war is over I hope to soon be sailing westward. I sure would like to have been there the 11th.

From Corporal W. A. Curtis, Co. G, 105th regiment, United States Engineers, A. E. F., P. O. 749, November 13, Greensboro.

I guess the war is over and I sure am glad of it. At least the fighting has stopped.

From Private A. B. Holt, base hospital, No. 65, base section No. 5, P. O. 716, American expeditionary forces, France, November 28, to his home people.

I wanted to write to you last Sunday, but was feeling too bad to do anything.

From Cook L. Andrews, 8th A. A. Battery, A. E. F., November 24, to his mother.

I am well and getting along fine with my work. Believe me I was sure glad to get in the kitchen again this winter.

From Samuel T. Latta, Jr., Battery "C," 113 A. A. E. F., Oct. 20 to his home people, Orange county.

I am living in a dugout made by the Germans. We have been in this place about 14 days.

From W. E. Baldwin, Battery C, 4th trench artillery, A. E. F., France, November 24, to his father, M. A. Baldwin, Greensboro.

I'm well and happy at date. Hope this will find you well and all.

From Private Robert Forbis McLean, company B, 15th Cavalry, A. E. F., A. P. O. 775, A. E. F., November 18, to his mother, Mrs. J. C. McLean, Greensboro.

We are in a large town now, but I can't say that I like it. I know that we will soon be home.

From Charles R. Garrett, supply company, 12th Inf., 30th division, A. E. F., A. P. O. 24, to his father, H. F. Garrett, Greensboro.

I could write a week and not tell you half of what I have seen and done since I have been here.

Advertisements for 'SHEARS AND PASTE' and 'Mr. Morrison's Candidate'.