the first four years of the governor's

The colonel's license to operate on this huge scale was given him today when the governor announced his appointment to the new position of com-missioner of revenue created by the late general assembly. The Wafts commission authorizes an interim tenure. It depends on "the gdvice and consent of the senate." Of course, the senate never would advise a course so sordid and grotesque, but it may consent. The Lord only knows.

The governor made the appointment early this morning and set out to Tarboro to dedicate a Presbyterian church is that goodly city. He made no comnent on his appointment, but left with his secretary a word for the newspa-per men. The colonel and the gov-erner are in accord on taxation. Governor Morrison declared. It was a work of supercrogation. Colonel Watts never failed to harmonize with his appointer. Prior to Woodrow Wilson's nomination in Baltimore the colonel That word was not used it is not in the colone's vocabu-lary. But this is a religious thesis. It would blot badly the page if the real estimate of the schoolmaster were given by the colonel. Throughout the Watts tenure in revenue position, Wil-son was the mightlest and the best. Following the colonel's retirement from the service the George Harvey some the service the George Harvey shuse of Wilson was not more sincere. Harvey may have excelled in artistic tapression, but not in another kind. Wherefore the Morrison-Watts con-tord on taxation isn't, news. They ord on taxation isn't, news. They agree on it and on nearly everything else. They harmonize on the need of Watts in the state administration. They agree likewise that it would be They agree likewise that it would be powerfully risky to undertake the qualing of Overman without an impossing organization to collect revenue—both kinds. They agree that Watts meds the governor and that the governor needs Watts. German To Explain "Relativity" Theory

Prof. Albert Einstein startied the scientific world last year, with his discovery of a "relativity" basis which revolutionized all hitherto accepted theories on the subject. Scientists in England, France and America have since corroborated his new doctrine. Einstein has been attacked by his German colleagues, for "hobnobbing with English scientists. So violent became these attacks that he announced his intention of leaving Germany and making his home in Holland. Professor Einstein is now on his way to America.

Iriah Republic the Goal. Thus again Michael Collins, Ireland's hero, reiterated in two words the as-pirations of the Irish people—an "Irish republic."

I arrived at headquarters about 3 o'clock this afternoon in company with members of Collins' staff. I had been followed during the morning by heavy footed detectives but once I was appointed. Then the British government determined to get rid of the newly elected new Irish government and attempted to break the peoples' alregiance to it. When they found persuasion useless they resorted to aregiance to it, when they found persuasion useless they resorted to force which began comparatively mildly at first. Then the country elections showed that force was ineffective, the Irish people reasserted their support of their own government. Then sterner measures of repression were used and they were unsuccessful.

Throughout this time the Irish government drew more and more in these contracts.

Throughout this time the Irish government drew more and more in the hands of the Dail Rireann, the British police and law courts gave way to the republican tribunals.

After this the British decided upon more drastic steps, and the policy of terrorism was deliberately considered and decided upon by the British cabinet. This terror was to be under three heads—one, removal of leading mentus, imprisonment of minor persons; three, terrorization of the population to break their allegiance and prepare the way for acceptance of the partition act to excuse this violence.

This information supplements anything that may have been heretofore said by Mr. Meekins. former Senator Marion Butler, or

A statement issued by Colonel Meekins Friday night said that he had been offered without solicitation on his part the job of assistant allen property custodian. It also said Colonel Meekins thought it would be too had if the Republicans of North Carolina did not compose their differences and avoid an unseemly scramble for offices in the state. That statement was all right so far as it went, but it did not cover the patronage territory of North Carolina. The truth is that Colonel Meekins was here in conference with former Bena-tor Marion Butler, that they thorough-ly went over the patronage situation in North Carolina and reached this conclusion:

Colonel Meekins is not going to aucept the job of assistant allen proper ty custodian.

He is to return home and either become an active candidate for the job of district attorney for the eastern district or throw the influence of the Butler-Meekins faction to the support of one of a half dozen candidates Brit-whose views would be sounded out by Colonel Meekins.
