

NEGRO FARM BOSS TELLS OF PART HE TOOK IN KILLINGS

SIX WERE CHAINED TO ROCKS AND THROWN IN RIVER AT FARM ALIVE

Five Others Were Knocked On the Head Or Shot. HE WAS AFRAID NOT TO "Mr. Johnny" Told Him, Witness Said, "It's Their Necks Or Yours."

A SORDID STORY IS TOLD

John Williams, Negro farm boss, told the jury today in Newton county superior court that he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

Williams said he was present at the killing of five Negroes on the Williams farm, near Covington, Ga., April 6. He said he was afraid to tell the truth, but he was forced to do so by the evidence against him.

GOLDSBORO-CINCINNATI THROUGH TRAIN URGED BY BODY OF TAR HEELS

Appear Before Vice-President Miller, Of The Southern. HE MAKES NO PROMISES If Train Is Established There Must Be Curtailment Of Service Elsewhere.

PELL OFFERS SCHEDULES

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

Washington, April 6.—The Southern Railway system has agreed to establish a through train between Goldsboro and Cincinnati, but the service will be curtailed elsewhere. The train is to be operated by the Southern Railway system.

IMPORTANT NOTES ARE DISPATCHED BY HUGHES TO FOREIGN NATIONS

They Are Sent to Britain, Japan, France and Italy. THEY ALL DEAL WITH YAP REVALUATIONS URGED

We Have Surrendered None Of Our Rights To German Overseas Possessions. ONE NOTE MADE PUBLIC

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

Washington, April 6.—The American government, although not a party to the treaty of Versailles, has surrendered none of its rights in the overseas possessions of Germany secured to the principal allied and associated powers by that treaty. The governments of Japan, Great Britain, France and Italy are informed by Secretary Hughes in similar notes dispatched by the state department last Monday.

French Girl First To Fly Over Andes

Policy of Mr. Hughes Virtually Envisages New Peace of World

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

Washington, April 6.—A statement of the authoritative information given out after the cabinet meeting yesterday was not sufficiently emphasized. It was that the administration would not consider the international problem apart from the domestic problem. The policy of Mr. Hughes is virtually envisaged a new peace of the world.

French Girl First To Fly Over Andes

CONSOLIDATE BUREAUS FOR SOLDIERS' RELIEF

This Will Be the Chief Recommendation Of The Dawes Committee. TO DRAFT REPORT AT ONCE

Washington, April 6.—Consolidation under one head of all government bureaus dealing with ex-soldier relief to function directly for the President will be the chief recommendation made to President Harding by the special commission which concluded its inquiry into government relief work here today.

Washington, April 6.—Consolidation under one head of all government bureaus dealing with ex-soldier relief to function directly for the President will be the chief recommendation made to President Harding by the special commission which concluded its inquiry into government relief work here today.

Washington, April 6.—Consolidation under one head of all government bureaus dealing with ex-soldier relief to function directly for the President will be the chief recommendation made to President Harding by the special commission which concluded its inquiry into government relief work here today.

Washington, April 6.—Consolidation under one head of all government bureaus dealing with ex-soldier relief to function directly for the President will be the chief recommendation made to President Harding by the special commission which concluded its inquiry into government relief work here today.

Washington, April 6.—Consolidation under one head of all government bureaus dealing with ex-soldier relief to function directly for the President will be the chief recommendation made to President Harding by the special commission which concluded its inquiry into government relief work here today.

Washington, April 6.—Consolidation under one head of all government bureaus dealing with ex-soldier relief to function directly for the President will be the chief recommendation made to President Harding by the special commission which concluded its inquiry into government relief work here today.

Washington, April 6.—Consolidation under one head of all government bureaus dealing with ex-soldier relief to function directly for the President will be the chief recommendation made to President Harding by the special commission which concluded its inquiry into government relief work here today.

Washington, April 6.—Consolidation under one head of all government bureaus dealing with ex-soldier relief to function directly for the President will be the chief recommendation made to President Harding by the special commission which concluded its inquiry into government relief work here today.

Washington, April 6.—Consolidation under one head of all government bureaus dealing with ex-soldier relief to function directly for the President will be the chief recommendation made to President Harding by the special commission which concluded its inquiry into government relief work here today.