

With Saddler Hurling, Locals Beat Raleigh 5 to 1; Babe Ruth Gets Two More Home Runs

RALEIGH DEFEATED BY PATRIOTS, SCORE 5 TO 1

Moorefield and Parmelee Hit Opportunely, While Saddler Pitches Well.

FAST GAME THROUGHOUT

The magnificent hitting of George Moorefield and Otto Parmelee, coupled with the brilliant pitching of Roy Saddler, gave the Patriots a clean-cut victory over Raleigh yesterday by a score of 5 to 1. It was not until the seventh round, when the champions by hitting Higgins timely, forced ahead of their advantage.

Hurlingham, Eng., June 14—So much depends in polo upon how affairs may break on some particular day that it is extremely difficult to issue any guess that bears the mark of strong probability concerning America's chances of return with the international cup.

The American four make a strong team but lacking in the main international experience, their form is not so consistent as that of the old Big Four which brought home and then defended the cup through several years.

You can bank upon them as a hard hitting hard fighting team, who will never quit trying. Possibly one of their main faults is that they may try too hard for it is just as easy to press to pile on as it is to go. If things go wrong, this tendency to overdo may lead to serious trouble.

C. C. Himes at No. 1 has been doing good work and Louis Stoddard has been right along in a first-class way. If, as needed, can be depended upon when the next comes.

At No. 2 Tommy Hitchcock is one of the main catches. In time, he is expected to be the greatest polo player in the world. On the day of the first match he may easily be the greatest polo player on the field.

Nothing very exciting occurred until the fifth inning when the catalyst threw the game into a deadlock.

After this lukewarm animation, on the part of the Wardsmen Roy Saddler was inevitably holding the victors to three scattered hits.

Until the seventh the Patriots had garnered but three safe-aways, but in this real the champions showed over a brace of runs.

In the eighth inning the catalyst swelled their tally sheet with two more runs, making a total of five.

Miss Manilla Martin, the celebrated motion picture star, tossed the first ball over the plate.
