Mrs. Dyer Is Given Allowance Against Her Husband by Court

Judge Webb Orders Willard M. Dyer, of High Point, to Pay $100 For Wife's Immediate Needs and $150 Monthly Allowance, Also $500 Counsel Fees—Trials May Come Soon.

Judge James L. Webb, presiding over Superior court here this week, Tuesday afternoon signed orders requiring Willard M. Dyer, of High Point, to pay to his wife, Mrs. Nina Barnes Dyer, $100 for her immediate needs and $150 per month until the further order of the court for subsistence, beginning October 1, 1921. He also orders Mr. Dyer to pay to his wife $250 for counsel fees in his action against his wife and also $250 counsel fees in the proceedings instituted by Mrs. Dyer against her husband.

Yesterday's orders came as a result of protracted argument of motions several weeks ago here before Judge Webb. Attorneys Brooks, Hines and Smith, for Mrs. Dyer, contended that Mr. Dyer was well able to pay his wife an allowance for subsistence until the final settlement of their litigations in court. King, Sapp and King, representing Mr. Dyer, strongly contended that their client was not able to pay, declaring that his assets and liabilities would just about balance. Judge Webb's action yesterday comes after a number of days of deliberation.

In the case of Mrs. Dyer against her husband, in which she alleges inhuman treatment, brutality and non-support, Judge Webb in his order stated that the following facts were found:

1. That the plaintiff and defendant were married in Guilford county November 1, 1916, and are now husband and wife.

2. That the defendant has maliciously turned the plaintiff out of doors and abandoned her, and has failed and refused to provide for her and contribute to her support, and has inflicted such bodily injuries and indignities upon her as to render her life burdensome and her condition intolerable.

3. That the defendant used whisky to excess and became an habitual drunkard.

4. That the charges of adultery against the plaintiff set up by the defendant in his answer are not supported by the evidence, and that the defendant was not justified in abandoning his wife and failing to support her.

5. That the plaintiff is at this time in a bad state of health, and is in need of medical attention and hospital treatment.

6. That the defendant is solvent and amply able to pay the sum of $150 per month for the support and maintenance of his wife and the sum of $100 to provide for her immediate needs, and the sum of $250 as counsel fees for the prosecution of this action.

7. That the said sums are reasonable allowances for said purposes.

In the action instituted by Mr. Dyer against his wife, in which he alleges infidelity, naming Lucy Seawell as co-respondent, and finally asking for absolute divorce, Judge Webb in his order declares that "upon a motion of the defendant (Mrs. Dyer) for expense money with which to defend this action against her, and it appearing to the court, and the court finding as a fact, that the defendant has denied under oath the adultery charged against her in the complaint; that the defendant is unable financially to employ counsel and otherwise prepare for the proper defense of this action; that plaintiff, her husband, is solvent and amply able to pay the sum of $250, and that said sum is a reasonable allowance for the purpose of counsel fees."

Judge Webb's order states that the sum of $250 counsel fee in the latter action must be paid to the clerk of the Superior court of Guilford county for Mrs. Dyer on or before November 12.

The first order, giving Mrs. Dyer a subsistence, does not give a time limit, but merely states that the husband must pay the required amounts to the clerk of Superior court of Guilford county.

The two actions will probably be heard in Superior court before a jury within the near future.

FIND N. L. SHOEMAKER DEAD FROM APOPLEXY

Statesville Man Passes Suddenly—Sunday School Convention Will Open November 16.

(Special to Daily News.)

Statesville, Nov. 8.—Noah L. Shoemaker, who was found dead in bed at his home here yesterday morning, was buried this morning at 10 o'clock in Oakwood cemetery, funeral services being conducted from the home by Rev. E. W. Fox, pastor of Race Street Methodist church, assisted by Rev. C. K. Turner, pastor of the Western Avenue Baptist church. For 20 years Mr. Shoemaker had been in the employ of J. C. Steele and Sons. He was in his usual health when he went to bed and was planning to resume his regular duties yesterday. When he failed to get up, members of the family went to his room and found that he was dead. Physicians assign apoplexy as the cause of his death. He was 57 years of age. He is survived by two brothers, T. L. and E. S. Shoemaker, of Statesville, and two sisters, Mrs. F. J. Childers, of Mount Ulla, and Mrs. O. W. McLain, of Kannapolis.

Mrs. Summa F. Ratledge, aged 47, wife of J. B. Ratledge, died Sunday night at her home in Fallston township, after a long illness. Funeral services were conducted by Rev. L. A. Cornell this afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at Bethel church, East Monro. Mrs. Ratledge is survived by her husband and two daughters, Misses Alma and Mary Ratledge, and her mother, Mrs. Jane Cluffeter.

The Iredell county Sunday school convention will meet at the Broad Street Methodist church, Statesville, on November 16, 17 and 18. Prof. M. A. Hontela, associate educational superintendent International Sunday School association, of Dayton, O., and D. W. Sims, general superintendent North Carolina Sunday School association, Raleigh, will be present and take an active part in the three days' program. Iredell Superior court convened yesterday with Judge P. A. McElroy on the bench and Solicitor Hayden Clement prosecuting. There is a very heavy criminal docket for trial this term. A large number of liquor cases and one murder trial, that of Bob Benson, a negro, charged with killing Robert Dishman, farmer and sawmill man, are on the docket. In his charge to the grand jury, Judge McElroy emphasized the importance of the jurymen reporting all violators of the law, neighbors as well as others.

Pimples and boils are signs of lowered vitality

A familiar food now used to correct them

PIMPLES and blackheads (acne) and boils are often the signals of a falling off in health. "A bad acne may indicate profound debility," writes a physician connected with a number of leading New York hospitals, and "the repeated occurrence of boils should always be looked upon as an indication of lowered vitality."

It has been found from actual clinical tests that remarkable results are obtained in treating these complaints with Fleischmann's Yeast.

Today Fleischmann's Yeast is everywhere recognized as a valuable "conditioner." It is a fresh food which supplies in rich quantities the newly discovered vitamins known to be lacking from many of our foods. It thus corrects lowered vitality which is so often the underlying cause of these minor ailments.

To protect themselves against these complaints many are making Fleischmann's Yeast a part of their regular diet. It is a highly digestible food assimilated like any other fresh food. You will like its fresh, distinctive flavor and the clean, wholesome taste it leaves in your mouth.

Eat Fleischmann's Yeast before or between meals—from two to three cakes a day. Only one precaution: if troubled with gas dissolve yeast first in very hot water. This does not affect the efficacy of the yeast. You will like Fleischmann's Yeast spread on toast or crackers, dissolved in milk or fruit-juices, or just plain. Place a standing order with your grocer for Fleischmann's Yeast and get it fresh daily.

Send 4 cents in stamps for the interesting booklet, "The New Importance of Yeast in Diet." So many inquiries are coming in daily for this booklet that it is necessary to make this nominal charge to cover cost of handling and mailing. Address THE FLEISCHMANN COMPANY, 701 Washington Street, New York, N. Y.

The need for scientifically tested yeast

Fresh yeast has been proved by recent scientific tests to be a valuable food for correcting run-down condition, constipation, indigestion and certain skin disorders. These original tests were all made with Fleischmann's Yeast. Beware of untested yeast-vitamins preparations that contain drugs or other mixtures. Fleischmann's Yeast (fresh) is a pure food, rich in vitamins, in which it measures up to the high standards set by laboratories and hospitals. The familiar tin-foil package with the yellow label is the only form in which Fleischmann's Yeast for Health is sold.
