GREENSBORO DAILY NEWS

Published Every Day In the Year By Greenshoro News Company

Daily and Sunday, $9.00 per year; he per week; Daily Only, $7.00 per 20c per week; Dally Unity, 87.00 per year; 15c per week. Single Copy, Dally, 5c; Sunday, 7c.

SATURDAY, NOVEMBER 18, 1921.

BORROWED BRIEFS

Disarmament is up to the peoples, nee it can come only through im-rovement of human nature,—Pitts-

The disarmament conference might be a greater success if the delegates were representative taxpayers—Baltimore Sun.

It will be called the disarmament conference. Josephus Daniels says, "unless the public finds some shorter words for it." Shorter and uglier, perhaps.—Memphis News-Scimitar.

The set of the called the disarmament conference of the called the

The ad writer who says: "You re-member the quality: you forget the price." wasn't talking about war.— Associated Editors. Chicago.

Krupp works made 2000 freight cars last year, and each of them will carry farther than any "His Bertha" ever could—St. Louis Globe-Democrat. Each nation's conviction that it is God's chosen people might be listed under the head of surplus war ma-terial.—New York Evening Telegram.

The "highest honor" that could be paid to the Unknown Soldiers, we suggest, would be not to have any more of them in future.—New York Evening Post. It is estimated that the world war cost more in money than all the other wars of the world's history put together. If it is the last war it was worth the money.—Chicago Dally News.

PARAGRAPHICS.

So it appears that the banking

It's lots of fun, and much honor to do you want to see it repeated for commanding voice. Great words, Mr. There is not. some unknown soldier killed in a war President, and bold words. with Japan?

in the city election of Tuesday.

tory for Americanism" when the oming escaped from grave perils.

One thing about these Kentucky and distrusted you will take heart of hope again. Stand to them, not hope again. Stand to them, not catablish a system of state highways only in Arlington cemetery, but in the ought to have been put out of the way.

The Hylan men were fearful that former President Wilson might indorse his candidacy and hurt him; but even that could not have overturned a half million majority.

The Russellites are running a series of nation-wide lectures on "Millions Now Living Will Never Die." Might with equal truth say that "Millions CHINA IN THE CONFERENCE. Now Living have always Been Very

the state.

Prohibitionists are going to carry on a campaign for the suppression of prohibition jokes. That ought at least to furnish employment for a lot of deserving Democrats who are at present without state jobs.

coming altogether too confining.

"There must be, there shall be, the commanding voice of a conscious civilization against armed warfare." Rank league of nations stuff, Mr. Harding; better watch out, or the senate will be attending to you for Timely admonition from the Rocky Mountain Telegram: "Chairman Hull geographical position has enabled would do well to begin schooling prospective Democratic presidential candidates in the fundamentals of group is not China, and its delegates the game of golf." Golf has dwelt in the White House 16 years.

The skillfulness of Ah Sin's preliminary propaganda leads us to suspeet that this conference business is reported by Truthful James.

and insist on throwing up their hata Chinese people to such control. and hollering their heads off every While we are not prepared to con-population yesterday to the reckless a world awakened; and we are here ern world. to testify undying gratifude and revfreedom.'

AND BOLD.

the United States said, standing over THE INTENT OF THE ROAD LAW. ened ruins this morning. the bier of the unknown soldier:

News.

G. B. Shaw predicts that England and America soon will be at war. Now we feel better. It was G. B. who picked Carpentier as a cinch winner in the Jersey City contest.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Age, the resolution and skill to make them good. And spoken in that presence, on that occasion, in the presence of that multitude, they assume the solemnity and significance of an oath, sworn by the solemnity and significance of an oath, sworn by the solemnity and significance of an oath, sworn by the solemnity and significance of an oath. So it appears that the banking promise made before God and man; bonds issued under this act, the reit is the language of leadership, conmainder of said fund to be used . . . a vigilance committee hazards, as well as its opportunities. fident of its strength and of the jus- in the maintenance of the highways tice of its cause-"the commanding taken over." our soldiers, to blow out a baby's volce of a conscious civilization. The contention of the treasurer

New York World thinks New York to something sacred to the evil doc- most explicit mandate running never votes for anybody. The great trine that a nation must reserve the through the act, that the highways city sustained the World handsomely right to break the laws of God and shall be maintained. There is no It doesn't look so much of a "vic- traditionalism that translates the no more emphasis, take the law as a nium gatherum which helped to win holy scripture. No room here for given fund, on construction debt, than old and foul prejudices against other of your men.

Thus in section 2, "The general on the given fund, on construction debt, than on paying for maintenance.

Thus in section 2, "The general of the given fund, on construction debt, than on paying for maintenance.

Thus in section 2, "The general of the given fund, on construction debt, than on paying for maintenance." see eye to eye with us in all things. And, after passing the barrage on No room for craven fear of doing to lay out, take over, establish and right, lest some one take advantage on the construct, and assume control of it. Nothing but the single purhichways: "to assume control of the she can draw a sigh of relief at havstraight and narrow code of honor.

> Stand to those words, Mr. President, and many who have doubted ways." And section 3, "That the dent, and many who have doubted the boys and girls a chance in life took their losses and charged them of state highways of hope again. Stand to them, not only in Arlington cemetry, but in the conference room and capitol when the storm of opposition bursts upon the storm of the storm of the storm of the storm of the the captive conscience of the world.

Mr. Gilbert writes interestingly and informingly of China and the consortium; but we could wish that Mr. Wells is of course a great he had taken time to explain what writer, but we should hate mightily he means by China. The opposition to count on him, at his present rate to the consertium is the opposition of of turning in copy, to catch our bull- the Peking government. The Canton dog edition for the eastern portion of government is not represented in the conference, nor is any of the halfdozen semi-independent governments in the interior.

There is the really hopeless factor in the Chinese situation. One never knows with whom he is dealing. In fact, all that one can be certain of is that no matter which faction one rec-The moral of the Thomasville af- ognizes, he will be ignoring the fair seems to be that the ultimate test bulk of the Chinese people. The of the ability of a high financier is Peking government controls an inknowing exactly when to take a little considerable territory immediately trip to prevent the business from be- surrounding the Manchu capital. The Canton government controls a similar territory around that southern city. The bulk of the country is in the hands of the military leaders, robber barons who recognize no sovereignty.

Therefore it is misleading to speak of what China wishes, or what China claims, at the Washington conference. China is not represented there. A small group of Chinese leaders, whose them to secure control of Peking, has delegates at the conference; but this cannot speak for China. There is much evidence, indeed, that the political philosophy of this group is diametrically opposed to the political philosophy of the people of the United States. There is reason to believe another "game he did not under- that the Peking group is headed by stand," exactly as he did not under. "men who hope for, and work toward, stand the fine points of cuchre, as a Manchu restoration—that is to say, men who believe that force is rightfully the final authority in political strong resemblance to an honest man. sion should be restricted by a to to battle with no hatred for any peo- motivated by the desire to accomplish regulation that applies to all days. ple in the world, but hating war and something for his country. The fact If citizens, and especially the younghating the purpose of every war for that the Peking government has set a sters, feel inclined to celebrate strom of destruction and suffering the Peking government itself. We backs for once.

erence for that thought of a wider eral attitude toward China in the but when it comes to a threat of put-Only gratitude and reverence, Mr. the United States should befriend up the town, it is time for prompt President? They are fine sentiments, China. But before we commit our and drastic action. The Providence

State Treasurer Lacy resting upon low American, and knowing that the world is noting this expression of the republic's mindfulness, it is fitting to say that his sacrifice, and that of the millions dead, shall not be in vain. There must be, there shall be, the commanding voice of a conscious civilization against armed warfare."

Great words. Mr. President, if we concrete head, it may be well, before the crime of scatteringly explosives along the streets should be punished with severe penalties. When it comes to standing in the upper stories of business buildings and tossing giant farmed warfare."

Great words. Mr. President, if we concrete head, it may be well, before the crime of scatteringly explosives along the streets should be punished with severe penalties. When it comes to standing in the upper stories of business buildings and tossing giant farmed warfare."

Great words. Mr. President, if we concrete head, it may be well, before the crime of scatteringly explosives along the streets should be punished with severe penalties. When it comes to standing in the upper stories of business buildings and tossing giant farmed warfare."

Great words. Mr. President, if we concrete head, it may be well, before the crime of scatteringly explosives along the streets should be punished with severe penalties. When it comes to standing in the upper stories of business buildings and tossing giant farmed warfare."

Great words. Mr. President, if we concrete head, it may be well, before the counter is lost sight of, to quote store the crime of scatteringly explosives along the streets should be punished with severe penalties. When it comes to standing in the upper stories of business buildings and tossing giant farmed warfare."

The tax page of Greensboro have Great words, Mr. President, if we nance and construction of the hightion. "There must be, there shall be" next be set aside a sum annually suf- through another inferno, such as Elm -not merely an announcement, a ficient to pay the interest on the street was converted into yesterday?

eyes with a giant firecracker, isn't it? against armed warfare." Not an appears to be that there is at present of the Greensboro club the other even-It was a stupendous pageant; but meeting of the "best minds"—a ute, to built a state highway system.

Regardless of priority of applica-No room for that petty arrogance, tion of the special tax money as set miscalled nationalism, that clings as out in the section quoted, there is the man, or lose something of its sover- more emphasis on construction than eignty. No room here for the ossified there is on maintenance; therefore frank opportunism of the past into whole, on paying interest from a

Thus in section 2, "The general state highways, repair, construct, and reconstruct and maintain said high-enough; it is the purpose that was in the minds of the people-to construct and maintain a system of for doing these things; it could not, under the revenue scheme now in force.

Issuing ten millions of dollars in bonds per year, or thereabouts, receiving three millions and upwards per annum from the motor car owners, paying interest and spending an about 1930, the exact year depending on factors that cannot be defiits expenditures. If the school of fiscal economy that is never to be paid, but always to be nearly so. refunded, is to prevail in this state, then either for paying interest, or for maintenance-since both are to come out of the same pocket, it makes no difference which comes out first—some more bonds will have to be sold—road bonds that are not to

that it could not be done, and it be used in the construction of roads: long enough, the cost of owning and operating a car in the state will beome prohibitive, and the roads will be, as automobile roads, for the exclusive use of people from other

As we size up the situation, Woodrow Wilson has been proved wrong by 7,000,000 majority; but the trouble is, the fool people don't know it, that attraction was affairs. If the people of the United States were certain of that, they would have no hand in any program ble is, the fool people don't know it, that contemplated turning over the city administration has invited by its Chieses received. course in turning over the helpless cent.

GREAT WORDS, MR. PRESIDENT; conference. Sun Yat-Sen bears a the people to celebrate such an occaperican soldier went forth His whole career has apparently been rigid enforcement of every rule and conquest. He cherished our national price on his head is, to our mind, less Armistice day with more or less rights, and abhorred the threat of proof that Sun Yat-Sep is a traitor racket, no great harm will be done armed domination; and in the mael-than reason for strong suspicion of if the police discreetly turn their and death he fired his shot for libera- cannot help believing that a really But mere noise is one thing, and tion of the captive conscience of the honest government would have the hurling giant charges of explosives world. In advancing toward his ob- support of the only apparently honest into crowds of women and children is jective was somewhere a thought of Chinese politician known to the west- quite another. None but a constitutional grouch will resent an assault We are strongly in favor of a lib- on his ear-drums on such an occasion: coming conference. We believe that ting out people's eyes and burning no doubt; but only sentiments. And it is not fitting for the strongest and most energetic nation in the world to be sentimentalizing. But that isn't all. Hear what more the President of of the city would be a pile of black-

"Standing today on hallowed his citation of a single section of the trivances in plenty to celebrate the ground, conscious that all America road law and the dictum that Daily merriest holiday without the use of has halted to share in the tribute of News editorial articles emerge from a fireworks, and in a town of this size heart and mind and soul to this fel-

The taxpayers of Greensboro have

THE CIVITANS.

Now the Civitans. At the meeting ing, precedent to the meeting to organize a state association, it is noted that the following things were discussed: Public education of a prophylactic nature, on cancer; preparations for the armistice day parade;

—in a new field, become familiar in the past few years. They simply add another to the forces laboring for community progress along certain lines. A number of terms might be applied, as making the town, the cleaning is seen stuck up here. applied, as making the town, the world, a better place to live in; making easier things that have always been especially difficult to a lot of people; helping in the most practical ways people who need help; giving the boys and girls a chance in life took their losses and charged them off them were lot for head to help with the boys and girls a chance in life and them were lott for head to help with the most practical ways people who need help; giving the boys and girls a chance in life took their losses and charged them off and them were lott for head to help were lott for head to help were lotted.

nance and upkeep of said roads, and bodies striving along practical paths shall as soon as practicable organize toward the ideal; always learning, a proper and sufficient patrol force and always teaching, a special sort of to keep said roads in good condition," culture that combines the utilitarian, The purpose of the act is clear the spiritual and the truly esthetic.

How much is the city getting for the fireworks-sale concession that in highways. The act is finally defect licenses the use of explosives tive in that it does not provide means on the streets of Greensboro on a day of solemn memorial, and on Christmas day? Unless the sum is quite large, it is very probable that, even with taxes as heavy as they are, citizens could be found who would be willing to make up that sum by donation.

The press makes or unmakes them when it so desires.

It is not that the editor is a man of such superior intelligence that he

It could hardly be called a suita approximate million annually on ble atmosphere that was provided in maintenance, there will come a time. Greensboro yesterday for prayer for the success of the Washington conference. But perhaps some of the nitely foreseen, when the highway devout sought the rural solitudes, or commission's income will be less than the seclusion of sound-proof closets.

The German government is now holds that money berrowed by a state Wirthless and the German money

SHEARS AND PASTE

Bonds For a Premium Means Better

certainly discouraging man that has earned the classification or else the motor car owners will of a spreader of gloom, nevertheless have thereafter to be subjected to increasingly heavy levies. It is inevitable that if that policy is followed sold for a premium. And there was sold for a premium. And there was not a messly few of them purchased at that but rather five million dollars worth and there was a premium paid worth and there was a premium paid despite the fact that the premium was small. This certainly should be rather discomforting and deprenaing to the man that has been going about preaching hard times, gloom, poor business and depression generally, and, it may well be taken as a forerunner of events which may force him to change this text at any case November seems WILL A VIGILANCE COMMITTEE his text. At any rate November seems to have started things on nearer an even key than has been occasioned.

Things are opening up in most every and hollering their heads off every time they catch sight of him. It must be a great grief to Mr. Lodge that the people will carry on so; but we don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we wish that some don't know just what he can do about the people will carry on so; but we will be in hand property, a like of business has encountered. The most every where that business has encountered its very much desired is $200,000, and it where that business has encountered its very much desired is $200,000, and it is readjustment. As disposed of its very much desired is $200,000, and it is readjustment. As disposed of its very much desired is $200,000, and rations for the armistice day parage; the tubercular hospital election.

Where There Was So Much Enthusiasm Over the Ending There Ought To Be Some For Prevention

This gives an indication of the meaning of the new organization, adding to what is furnished by its name. The Civitans are going to work—in their own way, whatever that may be in a new field, become familiar find a new field, become familiar find a new field, become familiar find the public at some figure that will save him a possible loss. At the same but another link which will sement the two friendly nations but the closer tobeen able to get underway and into high gear for this very reason that they have not undergone this readily accepted. Every one who gives a dollar, or more, will be honored by have not undergone this readily accepted. Every one who gives a MILDRED STROUD HURT and they have not undergone this readily accepted. Every one who gives a MILDRED STROUD HURT IN AN AUTO ACCIDE having his of her name enrolled in the justiment, and you don't have to search archives of the rebuilt Belleau city High Point Child Struck By Madel

Newspapers Make Men.
Many people imagine that the prominence of great men is due entirely to their own genius. But it is not so.

this age the most brilliant of men In this age the most brilliant of men would be practically unknown except for the work of the press in following their careers step by step and report-ing them to the country at large. Newspapers have been known to pick

Newspapers have been known to pick up men of just ordinary intelligence and make them governors, or place them in other offices of honor and responsibility. They are commonly known as favorities of the newspaper. More often it is simply because they are willing to allow the paper to dictage and appointments.

Fortunately most culture are rather homan. They know the weakness of public men, but they do not expect perfection in any one. They are content to give a fellow a fair show, and if he makes reasonably good they boost him along. If not, they generally pornis, him to gracefully retire at the end of his term, unless bis acts are such as twarrant condemnation and expense. It is not the will of the editor along that decides these things. It is the fact that the editor places his information from the force the nable and they render makes and unnakes men. But it does it, just the same.—Snow Hill Standard-

A number of patriotic women America have formed themselves an association for the purpose of re-building the little French village of Belleau. It was at Belleau Wood that the little French village of It was at Belleau Wood that more than two thousand Americans made the supreme sacrifice, and the fact that so many of our heroic dead sleep there should be sufficient urge to lead us to the accomplishment of Daily. to lend us to the accomplishment of this tank to which these good women have set themselves. The money is being raised by private subscription. The amount desired is $200.000, and it is very much desired that the amount gether. Schator Overman was one of the first, bury Post.

Voting Women in Trouble. Since the women were by law al-

Other cities cited included that of a Brookline woman who did not know the whereabouts of her husband and was refused registration, and that of a woman in Sharon who said that she was legally separated from her husband, but had been given to understand that she was not "divorced enough" to spaintain a separate residence and so could not vote. could not vote.

As it looks now woman suffrage may separate some wives from their hus-

More often it is simply because they are willing to allow the paper to dictate certain policies and appointments. But few men ever succeed in getting into public office against the hostility of their party press.

The press makes or unmakes them when it so desires.

It is not that the editor is a man of such superior intelligence that he towers above the rest of manifind. Far from it. We of the fraternity claim to be so more than ordinary humans who are trained in the arts of observation, analysis and dissemination.

No public man is over so perfect but what is now known as the "dry beit," are hit hard. Their the editor can unearth giaring and dissemination of these flaws that puts him out of the sun flar puts him out of the sun fl of which the public knows but little.

If the press keeps these things to the fore it is only a matter of time when the official becomes what is known as a "made man."

Fortunately most editors are rather human. They know the weakness of public men, but they do not expect perfections are content.

"Civil War" Persont:

"Civil War" Personts:

and great ability to writing a history of the "Civil War." Bosh)—The Uplift.

Nothing To Be Said.

"No decent man would make such charges, and I measure my words when I say that," is the remark of Secretary of War Weeks with reference to Watson's repetition of reflections on the characters of army nurses. Well, no decent man has made them, retorts the Greensboro News, and that aves nothing to be said.-Statesville

With the Women The census reports show that the somen voters of North Carolina can marshal more votes at the polls than the men. There used to be a time the men. when public men said they

IN AN AUTO ACCIDENT

High Point Child Struck By Machine Near New Hotel—Big Armistice Day Celebration.

High Point, Nov. 11,-Service men of this section were honored today in the greatest Armistice day celebration ever staged in High Point. Several thousto speak up for this gift and Mrs. E. and men, women and children from C. Gregory is one of the officers who within a radius of many miles of the are directing the whole work over the city came here to participate and make nation. It ought to appeal to us in the day one that will probably not Salisbury, and it no doubt will.—Salissoon be forgotten by local citizens.

The elaborate program began at 10:45 o'clock this morning with a clossal street parade in which nearly a owed to vote, their troubles are be- thousand persons marched. The parade was seriously injured early this act. This is a legal status that should be taken up and looked into by the next legislature.—Tarboro Southerner.

ernoon when struck by an automobile, the accident occurring on North Main street near the new hotel. The little girl was given first said treatment and

Salisbury, Nov. 11.—Practically everybody joined the American legion post here in celebrating Armistics day, All business houses and public works were closed and the business the that the editor places his information before the public and they render we cannot think of Dr. Hill, the like own independ.

It is in this way only that the pressuances and unrakes men. But it does tween the Sintes," lending his talents and an address by Editor John Oglesby, of Concord, constituting mission of the day's program. Mr. Oglesby spoke on the presmble to the tween the Sintes," lending his talents and his address was punctuated a number of the "Civil War." Bosh;—The Uplift.

whom the local legion is named. Today the Samuel C. Hart post of the American legion and the American legion and auxiliary of Salisbury aent a message to Weodrow Wilson extending "to our former commander-in-chief tokens of respect and admiration." Looks Like The Big Stick.

(Washington Post.)
One problem the powers have to solve is how to lay down the law after laying down the arms.