THE ARMS CONFERENCE WILL ACHIEVE SUCCESS

Vice-President Tells Philadelphia Forum Ours Is An Unselfish Motive.

IS SALVATION OF WORLD

Philadelphia, Nov. 14.—The altrulam of America that moved it to call the conference to limit armanent and the absolute need for economics on the part of the nationals will work for the success of the Washington conference, Vice-President Calvin Coolidge tonight told the members of the Philadelphia forum.

tonight told the members of the Philadelphia forum.

"The great purpose of the present conference is not to establish a force which no nation will dare to disobey." Mr. Coolidge declared, "but to establish an understanding in which all nations will desire to concur. There lies the practical prospect of immediate benefit and the great expectation of world salvation. The only price exacted is a trifling diminution of theoretical national security. But even the lessened power of defense will be balanced by the leaswened power of attack."

The aims of the conference are not new, Mr. Coolidge pointed out. The side anteduce modern civilization, he said. "Previous plans, however," he said. "Previous plans, however," he said. "have for the most part turned upon political and military alliances which undertook, by combination, to increase the military power, rather than by agreement and independence to decrease it."

to decrease it."

The fulfilly of the past arrang ments will lay the foundation for taucess of the present conference, A Coolings asserted for they have deconstrated the absolute necessity some understanding regarding toxuses of war.

He said he felt certain the conference would achieve the high purpose for which it was accented.

once would achieve the high purpose for which it was accented.

"America," the vice president as "is proposing this conference withe most unselfish of motives. have emerged from the great war. mpaired than any other nation have suffered as yet very little frank in the many internal economic reaction. I can meet the test of competitive ar ament with less strain than would felt elsewhere. There is small do that we might prosper on the distr of others."

Rheumatism Due To Waste Products In the Blood

For Genuine Relief Your Blood Must Be Purified.

As the blood circulates, it has two functions to perform. First to carry nourishment to all parts of the body. Second: to take up the waste products and cast them out through the proper

To Business Women

Women, having proven their fitness to fill positions once held only by men, share man's responsibilities and his opportunities. Life Insurance was devised to replace man's carning power—to protect him and his dependents from powerty. It holds for women the anme value that it holds for men.

Tode- you may be twenty, and it is difficult for you to think of forty-five; but time (seemingly) passes more quickly every year. The question is, when you art twenty-five years older, would an income, apart from daily earnings, some in bandy? Ask any women who looks backward toward forty.

foward forty.

From the Provident Life and Trust Company you can secure a policy that will guarantee a check to you every month; from an age which you select, to the end of your life. This income is absolutely sure. It saves you from worry and from the danger of possible unwise investment later.
