

FARMERS Bring Your Tobacco to Planters Warehouse Best Prices and the Right Kind of Attention

The Planters Warehouse in Greensboro is large, splendidly lighted and ventilated, and the service to farmers is the very best. We have been getting splendid prices and have satisfied our patrons. Prices in Greensboro have ranged as high as on any market in the state.

Other Markets Are "Glutted"—Why Not Give the Planters At Greensboro a Trial Load

That is all we ask, and we know it is to your advantage to come to this market. When a floor is overcrowded, when a market is glutted, it is impossible for the farmer to get the right kind of service, and frequently it means he suffers in price, as it is easy for buyers to overlook a pile of tobacco on a crowded floor. It will help you, and it will help us for you to come to Greensboro. Try the Planters Warehouse.

Mrs. Mary Andrews has returned

Social at White Oak

On Tuesday evening, November 22, the Woman's Missionary society of the White Oak Baptist church entertained the ladies of the church from 7:30 until 10 o'clock at the Pastorium. Mrs. Chas. E. Stevens and Mrs. A. Andrews received the guests at the door.

and Mrs. R. H. Armfield directed them up stairs, where Mrs. Frank Graves and Mrs. C. V. Webster directed them to the cloak rooms. While all were assembling in the parlor and living room Mrs. Ed Jones played several pieces on the Edison. All the officers and circle leaders of the society formed the receiving line. After all the ladies were introduced everybody felt well acquainted and all were then asked to join hands and sing "Blest Be the Tie That Binds," after which Rev. Chas. E. Stevens was called on to lead in prayer. The society was very happy to have present Miss Nellie Patterson, superintendent of the Woman's Missionary union of the Piedmont association, and Mrs. Kearns, of Greensboro. Both of these ladies gave very interesting and helpful talks. They came the social hour which afforded much merriment for the occasion. While pads, needles and thread were distributed, and everybody was asked to work a monkey; for 15 minutes the ladies had much fun trying to see who could work the best monkey. The first prize, a box of handkerchiefs, was awarded to Mrs. R. H. Armfield, and the second, a pin cushion, to Miss Minnie Hain. Hot chocolate, wafers and nuts were served, after which all departed declaring that they had spent a most joyous evening. There were about 50 ladies present.

BURLINGTON LEGION MEN ELECT THEIR OFFICERS

Dover G. Heritage Re-Elected Commander—Welfare Office is Created. Want Teaching of Patriotism.

(Special to Daily News.) Burlington, Nov. 24.—At a special meeting at Wallace B. Hill post, American Legion, held in the offices of the chamber of commerce Tuesday night, the following members were elected to office for the ensuing year: Commander, Dover G. Heritage, re-elected; first vice-commander, George Fowler; second vice-commander, T. D. Cooper; adjutant and finance officer, A. M. Carroll; historian, Ben Johnson; publicity, Staley A. Cook; insurance officer, H. D. Rhodes; chaplain, Roy Mr. Colwell; executive committee, J. A. Cook, Cloe Fowler, Devoe E. Moran, and A. Glenn Holt.

Following the unanimous consent of the membership a new office was created, a welfare officer. The duties of this office will be the assistance of all ex-service men who may be tangled in their business with the government along the lines of compensation, hospitalization, vocational training, etc. This is thought to be a needed office in the post, and one which will save time and money for those who are not expert in filling out the many government forms required to advance any case before them. Charlie Garrison was elected to the office.

Not of less importance, in fact, of more importance, was the adoption of a resolution of J. L. Loy that the executive committee draft and place before the North Carolina legislative assembly, soon to sit in extraordinary session, a bill calling for patriotic teaching and display of Americanism in the schools of the state. It is said that this is given too little attention in some cases. A young man new in this community, just started out in the school room, rose to second Mr. Loy. He said, he "was heartily in accord with this great idea; it is being neglected in a great many schools; the time to insure the everlasting future of real Americanism is to instill it into the hearts of our children." He told the story of schools in the north where on every morning "flag exercises" are held, and how the little ones stand at right attention, like soldiers, when the national anthem is played.

(Special to Daily News.) Guilford College, Nov. 24.—The endowment campaign committee of Guilford college met last week-end in Greensboro and decided to secure a field secretary to direct the work of organizing county clubs among Guilford alumni and to travel over the state stimulating interest in the college in Quaker communities.

He appears on the program of the association, speaking on "The Organization, Purposes and Aims of the North College Conference," of which conference he was elected president at its recent organization.

The treasury committee is now complete except for one date which has only been tentatively fixed as yet. Miss de Klier, soprano, will appear in concert on January 7. The biology department considers itself fortunate to have recently become the possessor of a $92 apochromatic lens for use in the laboratory courses in bacteriology and cytology. This type of lens is most perfectly adapted for such work since it produces great clearness of vision without increasing the magnification.

The basketball season for the Guilford co-eds opened Tuesday with a great display of enthusiasm. Sixty-four girls reported for the first practice.

The key to success is work— There is no substitute for it!

In order to do your best work, you must be healthy. You must sleep soundly at night, your nerves must be strong, steady and under perfect control.

If you are accustomed to drinking tea or coffee with your meals or between meals, you may be loading yourself with a very great handicap. Your nervous system may be stimulated beyond what is natural for you.

For tea and coffee contain their caffeine. These are drugs, as any doctor can tell you. They are known to irritate the nervous system by their action and to cause restlessness and insomnia, which prevent the proper recuperation of the vital forces.

If you want to be at your best, capable of doing the very best work that lies in you, why not stop drinking tea and coffee? Drink Postum, the rich, satisfying beverage made from scientifically roasted cereals.

Postum contains absolutely no drugs of any kind, but in flavor tastes much like rich coffee. It helps nerve and brain structure by letting you get sound restful sleep.

Postum comes in two forms: Instant Postum (in tins) made instantly in the cup by the addition of boiling water. Postum Cereal (in packages of larger bulk, for those who prefer to make the drink while the meal is being prepared) made by boiling for 20 minutes.

Ask your grocer for Postum. Sold everywhere.
