Remember the two or three or four shopping days before Christmas last year? Remember the worry and hurry? Remember the crowded stores? Remember?

If you do you will recall that belated gift buying isn't a cheerful task. You'll not have a cheerful recollection of that hustle-tussle time when it seemed as if everyone wanted to do a week's shopping in a day or two.

In this appeal to you--Mr., Mrs., Miss and Master Shopper--we urge you to do your Christmas shopping NOW. Avoid the usual last minute crowds. Come early when selection is complete and assortments are choice. Come early when salespeople are highly efficient. Come early when shopping is truly a pleasure.
