

MOTION PICTURE STARS
WILL BE IN CITY DEC. 2

Shirley Mason and Mary Carr Will Appear At the National Theater.

TO BE SPECIAL PROGRAM

Shirley Mason and Mary Carr, two of the most celebrated stars of the Fox Film corporation, will be visitors in Greensboro Friday, December 2. their personal appearance being in honor of the National theater, Greensboro's new $400,000 amusement house that opened so auspiciously last week.

This news was received by Manager Cunningham of the National in a telegram yesterday morning from Vivian M. Moses, of the Fox organization, New York, in which it was stated that the stars will arrive here at 6:30 o'clock next Friday afternoon and will leave at 10 that night. While here they will appear personally at the National the occasion to be fittingly celebrated in a special program to be announced later.

Neither of these film celebrities needs an introduction to people of Greensboro and North Carolina. The work of each is a matter of general knowledge. Their appearance here in person, however, will serve to accentuate interest in their productions, which are booked for appearance at the National as they are released.

The appearance of Miss Carr will be of particular interest just now since the greatest whop of all her pictures, "Over the Hill"—considered by many critics the wonder picture of all times—is to be shown at the National next week, opening a limited engagement Monday, December 5. In this production, which scored the enviable record of a solid year's run in New York city, she has the "mother" role, the stellar part of this powerfully appealing drama. She will be accompanied to Greensboro by her daughter, Miss Louella Carr.

Plans are in the making now for entertainment of the distinguished visitors during their stay here, and it may be taken for granted that their public reception at the National will be participated in by all the people of the city and vicinity who can gain admittance for the events.

DELAY TRIAL OF THREE OFFICERS FROM SPRAY

Charged With Trespassing Into Virginia and Killing Man.
Flock of Lawyers.

HAPPENINGS IN DANVILLE

(Special to Daily News.)

Danville, Va., Nov. 29.—Indictments charging murder, lodged against W. D.
Covington, W. D. Vernon and J. B.
Jeffries, officers of Spray, N. C., charged with shooting and killing George Bryant, 22, a native of Patrick county in Virginia, several months ago, will not be tried at the present term of the Pittsylvania circuit court.
The hearing was to have been gone into today but at the instance of the commonwealth's attorney, J. Turner Clement, who said that vital witnesses were missing, a continuance was granted. Five well known Virginia and North Carolina attorneys are associated in the defense and four for the prosecution. A long and spirited legal battle is anticipated when the cases ultimately reach the jury.

Bryant was killed near Aiken Summit early in the year. He was a few miles this side of the North Carolina line. The shot which killed him was fired 90 yards by one of the three officers who stood in Pittsylvania county, while Bryant was actually in Henry county.

Bryant was wanted in Rockingham county, N. C., for an alleged violation of the liquor law and was surprised in a garage at Spray. He escaped in a running pistol battle with the three officers, jumped into a friend's car and persuaded him to carry him over the line. The officers followed quickly and on reaching Aiken Summit telephoned to Sheriff B. F. Stults notifying him. Stults at the time held a warrant against Bryant on the charge of shooting and wounding Federal Prohibition Agent Jerry Metz, now in Hagerstown, Md., jail awaiting trial on the charge of killing a hobo.

Bryant, according to the allegations of the prosecution, was hiding in a ditch when the officers, after notifying the Henry county sheriff began looking for him. Locating him shots were fired by him and by all three North Carolina officers. The state maintains that the three Carolina officers were trespassers and had no authority to arrest Bryant. The theory of the defense has not been outlined and will not be until the case reaches a jury.

John Dix, who recently preferred a 30 years' exile from his native city to serving six months in jail for violating the Mann act, spent last night in jail, as he was caught last night technically within the jurisdiction of the police, or one mile from the city limits, by a party of officers who were looking for liquor. Dix was taken before the court this morning and he won his release on the technicality.
He said that as he understood it the court had told him to keep out of the city and reference to the court order showed that this was so. The exile said that he was driving his wife from Martinsville, to Pelham, N. C., to visit an ailing relative and he concluded that he could pass within a mile of Danville without violating the court's mandate.

W. Earl Morgan, a youth, was ordered to jail for five months and to pay a fine amounting to $20 upon conviction of the theft of several lots of tobacco. It is claimed that he took the tobacco from a local warehouse floor and carried it to another where it was sold under another name. Ott.
Pruitt and Walker Wyatt, who were also charged, were dismissed from custody.

The Danville tobacco market was again badly congested today, the receipts being by far the heaviest of the season and due largely to the recent warm moist weather. Traffic was jammed in the warehouse district yesterday evening under the steady influx of tobacco and before dark many of the warehouses had to close their gates in view of capacity houses. The "first" sales were not reached until this afternoon and the disorganization of sales schedules gave promise of lasting through the week.

MOTHER!

Move Child's Bowels with
"California Fig Syrup"

Even a cross, feverish, bilious, or constipated child loves the "fruity" taste of "California Fig Syrup." A teaspoonful never fails to cleanse the liver and bowels. In a few hours you can see for yourself how thoroughly it works all the sour bile and undig-ested food out of the bowels and you have a well, playful child again.
Millions of mothers keep "California Fig Syrup" handy. They know a teaspoonful today saves a sick child tomorrow. Ask your druggist for genuine "California Fig Syrup" which has directions for babies and children of all ages printed on bottle. Mother! You must say "California" or you may get an imitation fig syrup.
