

SAY EASTLAKE CALLED MISS KNOX HIS "AUNT"

Man Accused of Wife Murder Rented Cottage For Baltimore Nurse.

HE WAS WITH HER OFTEN

Montross, Va., Dec. 15.—Witnesses for the prosecution testified today in the trial of Roger D. Eastlake, a naval petty officer, jointly accused with Sarah E. Knox, a Baltimore nurse, of the murder of his wife, Margaret, on September 30, that Eastlake had rented a cottage at Colonial Beach for the Knox woman as his "aunt," and had taken frequent trips with her.

At the morning session, E. Paul Drinks, Colonial Beach undertaker, testified to the finding of blood stained garments similar to those worn by a petty officer in the navy, and expressed the opinion the clothing belonged to Eastlake. Richard Tate, of the same place, described his part in negotiations which he said Eastlake carried on in an effort to rent a home for Miss Knox whom the witness described as having been represented by the defendant as his "aunt." After a house had been secured, the witness said Eastlake paid the first month's rent, but that Miss Knox thereafter supplied the necessary funds. Visits to the Knox home were described by George Kelly, also of Colonial Beach.

Efforts on the part of the prosecution to have witnesses describe alleged finger prints represented to have been discernible on the arms of Mrs. Eastlake immediately after her death, proved of little avail in the opinion of defense attorneys in view of conflicting opinions expressed. Drinks and E. S. Fitzhugh, undertakers, of Colonial Beach, both testified that such marks were perceptible, while Dr. John Duff, Jr., naval physician at the Dahlgreen proving station, testified he had failed to find any marks when he examined the body.

ENVELOPES ARE CHEAPER; SAVING PLAN IS CHANGED

War Savings and Thrift Stamps Not To Be Issued, But New Certificates Obtainable Now.

Uncle Samuel's postoffice business has felt the decreasing cost of living. The new year will see a drop in the cost of stamped envelopes and in what the postoffice calls "special request" envelopes, these stamped envelopes on which the department will print your name in the upper lefthand corner.

The new prices go into effect January 1, 1922. A No. 10 special request envelope, which is the small size used most frequently in Greensboro, has been reduced from $2.65 per thousand to $2.20. The No. 8 envelope, which is larger, has been reduced from $4.02 to $3.28 per thousand. On simple stamped envelopes, No. 8, for example, the reduction is from $2.59 to $2.48. Relatively similar reductions follow up and down the line. The stamped envelopes may be bought singly, the special request envelopes in lots of 500.

Announcement was made yesterday at the postoffice that the sale of the 1921 series of 15 war savings stamps and 25-cent thrift stamps will cease December 31. No new series of war stamps will be issued next year.

Beginning yesterday, however, a new series of registered United States treasury saving certificates in $25, $100 and $1,000 denominations, was offered for sale at the following prices: $20, $80 and $800, respectively. These prices are flat and will not change from month to month, and the certificates will mature in five years from date of purchase in every case.

FUTURE WORLD SERIES WILL BE SEVEN GAMES

Ed Walsh, Famous White Sox Pitcher, to Umpire in the American League.

VITT TO SALT LAKE CITY

New York, Dec. 15.—Major league baseball owners, in joint meeting today, voted to re-establish the seven game world series, instead of the nine game series in effect for the last three years.

American league club owners were unanimous for the change, while National league magnates voted 7 to 1 against it. Inasmuch as under a joint agreement, each league has only one vote, Commissioner Landis, who is authorized to cast the deciding ballot in case of a tie, voted for the seven game series.

The Chicago Cubs, alone of the National league clubs, voted in favor of the shorter series.

The late meeting was given over almost entirely to a discussion of the draft and its restoration upon an equitable basis. Several roughly formulated plans were submitted to the advisory council, which has been called into a special meeting tomorrow morning to draw an "arrangement satisfactory to both minors and majors."

Should the advisory council adopt a plan tomorrow, it will be submitted to the minor league concerned for action.

Ed Walsh, star hurler of spit balls in other days, and only recently manager of Bridgeport, in the Eastern league, was added to the American league's staff of umpires. Walsh will be the ninth man of the staff and will be employed as a supernumerary until he qualifies as an AI arbiter.

Oscar Vitt, former Red Sox third baseman, obtained by the Reds over the waiver route, was sold to the Salt Lake City club, of which Duffy Lewis is boss. The price was not announced.

NEGRO KNOCKED IN HEAD AND ROBBED OF HIS CAR

Was Taking Three Men and One Woman To Danville

Jack Clapp, negro taxi driver, was knocked in the head and robbed of his car last night about 9 o'clock, the incident taking place about three miles this side of Brown Summit. Later in the night, however, the car was recovered. The assailants are unknown.

Last night three white men and one woman engaged Clapp to drive them to Danville, Va. Just before they reached Brown Summit Clapp says one of them struck him on the head with something or other, knocking him unconscious. When he regained his senses the car was gone and he was lying beside the road. He managed to hail a car coming toward Greensboro and reported the matter to Sheriff Stafford, who, with Deputy Duke, accompanied Clapp back to and a few miles beyond Brown Summit where the car was found beside the road. No one was found about the car.

The machine had only a small amount of gasoline in it at the time of the attack and had run dry, forcing the occupants to abandon it. Some gasoline was placed in the tank after the machine was recovered and Clapp drove the car back to Greensboro. After he got his machine safely to the city he realized that he was painfully injured, a mean gash having been cut on his head, and he obtained medical attention.

The four people who engaged Clapp to drive them to Danville are not known but he says he is certain he will be able to identify them and officers in Danville and other cities have been notified to look out for them.

SALVATION ARMY WANTS FUNDS TO SUPPLY FOOD

People in Greensboro Will Go Without Christmas Dinner If You Fail To Contribute

There are many people in Greensboro, according to welfare workers, who will go without a Christmas dinner unless the Salvation army provides it for them. And that is why the Salvation army's pots are seen on the streets of the city.

The Salvation army will try to give each needy family in the city a basket of good things to eat on Christmas day. In each basket will be a nice chicken and other food—enough to last for several days.

But the Salvation army will not be able to do this unless the public of Greensboro contributes generously enough to furnish the money with which to purchase the food.

There are many more people who will need the assistance of the army if they have a Christmas dinner this year than was the case in 1920. And the contributions this year are much less than last year.

So Adjutant Henderson has issued an appeal to every man and woman in the city to contribute as much as is possible. He wants to be able to give some cheer to those of the city whose Christmas will not be cheerful for it is woefully hard to be cheerful when one is hungry—and he promises that every cent contributed will be used to good effect.

INDOOR TENNIS PLANNED AT TOBACCO WAREHOUSE

Tennis Enthusiasts Will Lay Off Tennis Courts and Enjoy Play All During Winter Months.

Indoor tennis in Greensboro this winter looks up as a probability in the decision of C. M. Waynick, Harry Cobb and other tennis enthusiasts to lay out a court on the concrete floor of one of the new tobacco warehouses.

There is plenty of room in the warehouses for several courts, the floor is of course smooth and the lighting is fair enough for an indoor proposition, and altogether the tennis sharks are pleased. They have made arrangements to rent the use of the building from the warehouse people and will lay out a court, put up curtains for back stops, and stretch a net. It is fairly simple, they figure, and not expensive. The steel roof supports are too low to permit of high lobbing, but a driving game can be played in the warehouse. It is possible that special lights will permit playing at night. You can't stop these Greensboro tennis people.

BANDIT KILLS ONE AND BADLY WOUNDS ANOTHER

Irbly C. Walker Tries Stop Diamond Thief and is Killed—B. Graham Seriously Wounded.

Atlanta, Dec. 15.—An unidentified bandit today killed one man and possibly fatally wounded another as he shot his way to freedom after seizing a $2,500 diamond in a downtown jewelry store here.

The robbery took place when a well dressed young man asked a woman clerk in a Peachtree street store to show him a diamond in the window, saying he was to be married. Seizing the stone, he leaped for the door and as a woman customer screamed, Irbly C. Walker, 28, a store detective, caught the robber by the coat and jerked him back. There was a momentary struggle and Walker fell dead with two bullets through his neck and shoulder.

The bandit fled to the north. Only one man, B. Graham West, 47, city comptroller, made an effort to capture him and in doing so fell wounded as a result of a pistol shot. It was tonight at the hospital he had a seven chance to recover.
