

At the Local Theaters

Amusements Mixed.
Through no fault of the management of the Imperial and Bijou theaters, Sunday's announcement relative to yesterday's attractions were "crossed up" through the inadvertent "swapping" of cuts in the two advertisements. "Enchantment," the Marion Davies starring vehicle, is at the Imperial, and "The City of Silent Men" is at the Bijou. The careful reader noticed the discrepancies, and is hoped that all were "careful readers" that there may have been no misunderstanding of the respective functions and where they were to go. The two bills are being repeated.

Thomas Meighan At the Bijou.
A sledge-hammer blow instantaneously against conviction on "East Men," evidence in "The City of Silent Men" the new Paramount picture starring Thomas Meighan which is shown at the Bijou theater last night. The production is founded on John Morosco's novel, "The Quarry," all town youth plays the role of a murderer and who is made the target of a crime of which he is innocent. A photoplay shows his life in a prison and appeal, Mr. Meighan in this one of the strongest roles he has portrayed in many a month and he is ably supported by such as Lois Wilson, Kate Bruce, Joy Oliver.

Also shown is the latest topic of the day, "Aesop's Fables," with music by the Bjo symphony pipe organ.

"Kissing Time."
C. D. Buckner announces "Kissing Time," the George V. Hobart.

Ru-My-Tiam, antiseptic and pain
lor, for infected sores, tetter, brains, neuralgia, rheumatism.

All musical comedy success, for Ivan Agament of two performances on the night, January 2, at the Imperial theater.

Offering scored a hit in New York, Philadelphia and Chicago last season and coming here with the same dramatic stage settings and dressed in the latest Parisian fashion it should please the most exacting.

The principal roles are in the hands of Eve Lynn, Dan Marble, Dorothy Milliken, Roy Purvisance, Mabel Gough, Charles Horn, Jesse Willingham and Augustus Buell.

Nonsense that might be absurd in other circumstances becomes delightfully mirth-provoking in the hands of these finished players and the most discerning musical critic will probably be satisfied when he realizes that some have been engaged more for their acting ability than for their vocal attainments. The music, by Ivan Caryll, is catchy—with a good swing and tinkle and the hits, "Bill and Joe," "Kissing Time," "Love's Telephone" and "Mimi" waiters are of the whistable kind.

Seats go on sale at the box office at 10 o'clock Friday morning.

"Enchantment" At the Imperial.
One of the best pictures dealing with gay and irresponsible modern youth ever screened, was presented for the first time at the Imperial theater last night. This "Enchantment," a Cosmopolitan-Paramount picture starring Marion Davies. It is a story of a modern girl "snapper" who believes in having a good time and has it. Her parents cannot understand her, but she understands them in one word—old-fashioned. They are not quite so slow as she imagines, for when the father decided to take her in hand he does so thoroughly. How the girl, Ethel, reacts to regimen and what happens to the father's carefully laid plans, compose the high spots of the story.

It is the best picture in which Miss Davies has been seen for a long time and it has an absorbingly interesting story. The picture was directed by Robert G. Virginia, and is based on Frank R. Adams' story, "Manhandling Ethel." The support was excellent. Enchanting music is played for "Enchantment" by the Imperial's concert orchestra and pipe organ.

Pathe news is also shown as an added attraction.

At the Isis.
The management of the Isis was very fortunate in being able to secure Charles Worrell and his great Virginia his company of 15 high class musical comedy and vaudeville stars for this week. Here is a company of very talented people who sing, dance, play many musical instruments and give a full hour's entertainment of clean, wholesome and laughable performance.

There is Dick Hulse, the funny fat man, in new and novel songs and dances, the harmony trio in song hits from song land, Ray and Chronin, dancers, who present the old and new dances as of old, Mack and Mack, the wandering musician, in an up-to-date musical act, and many other great acts that go to make up an evening of clean, wholesome entertainment. The feature picture attraction for today is Pete Morrison in "Headin' North."

Coming on Wednesday and Thursday is Constance Talmadge in "Scandal." The Isis policy is a new show every Monday, Wednesday and Friday with a continuous performance from eleven to eleven. There will be four vaudeville shows today, starting at 2 p. m., 4 p. m., 7:30 and 9 p. m.

National Packets to Rafters.
A top hole Christmas program at the National theater, opening yesterday and being repeated today, packed the house from rafters to orchestra pit for both matinee and evening performances yesterday, and it was a matter of regret to Manager Cunningham that many were forced to stand, despite the large capacity of the house. Even those who stood, however, had the pleasure of witnessing one of the most pleasing bills he has ever been their privilege to see. They doubtless feel amply repaid for the unavoidable inconvenience.

Featuring the picture program is Viola Dana, in "The Fourteenth Lover," a Metro classic that will long be remembered in Greensboro by people who like a clean, wholesome comedy-drama. Miss Dana proves herself a real artist in this production, and she has the advantage of a story that lends itself to the development of situations both intensely dramatic and ludicrous.

A star of the first order, with an excellent supporting cast, joins forces with a story having an age-old appeal and makes of it a screen production wholly enchanting.

Another Metro production, "The High Sign," with Buster Keaton leading the way, is a comedy of the first order, in which laughter is the point of tears. And, besides, there is a National theater News and a "sketchograph"—one depicting styles from the time of Eve—that no woman should miss.

All this, to say nothing of the magnificent program of music, rendered by the National orchestra under direction of Bert Hollowell. The overture is the march from "Tannhauser," by Wagner; and there is an air playing score from start to finish of the two-hour performance. Marie Laurent, booked for appearance in vocal numbers, wired from Philadelphia that illness made it impossible for her to appear; and in her stead, Peter Martin, a member of the National's fine organization of musicians, presents a xylophone number that convinces his hearers that he can make that instrument "talk."

MRS. MARY J. ALLEN, OF GIBSONVILLE, DEAD

She Had Been Ill Only a Few Days. Final Small Still in the Town.

(Special to Daily News.)
Gibsonville, Dec. 26.—The community was shocked Saturday evening by the sudden death of Mrs. Mary J. Emerson Allen at her home here. She had been ill only a few days. She became very ill Saturday and died at 6 p. m. Mrs. Allen was 45 years of age. She was a member of the M. P. church here and was a faithful church worker. She is survived by her husband, John M. Allen; one daughter, Olga; one son, Carl, and one grandson, Keith Moore Allen. The funeral service was conducted at the M. P. church Sunday at 3 p. m. by her pastor, Rev. J. H. Abernathy. The pallbearers were members of the Pogueman Bible class of the Baptist Sunday school, of which her daughter, Olga, was teacher. Interment was in the family plot in the Gibsonville cemetery.

Deputy Sheriff Shepherd rounded up a still in the town limits Saturday morning on Lewey branch. It was a small one. No one has come to claim it and it will be carried to Greensboro and destroyed.

C. C. Allen, of Baltimore, Md., was called here on the account of the death of his brother's wife, Mrs. Mary Allen, Saturday, and will spend a few days here with his mother.

Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Ferguson, of Danville, Va., are spending the holidays here with Mrs. Eliza Ferguson.

Miss Geneva Murray is spending the holidays with her parents near Hillsboro.

Misses Leah and Nellie Fogleman, of Winston-Salem, are visiting their parents, Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Fogleman.

Worth Jordan, of Kings Mountain, is visiting his mother, Mrs. Lydia Jordan, for the holidays.

Mr. and Mrs. Tad Lamb, of Greensboro, are visiting here Saturday.

G. R. White, of Durham, is here visiting his father, who is ill.

Ralph Steele, of Raleigh, is here visiting his brother this week.

Misses Marie and Georgie Clapp are visiting relatives in Greensboro.

Ross Huffman, of this place, and Miss Alma Knott, of Burlington, were married at the home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Will Knott, on Kivestreet, Saturday at 2 p. m. by the Rev. Mr. Dean, of the Burlington Baptist church, pastor of the bride. They will make their home in Burlington.

PELHAM HAPPENINGS.
Christmas Tree Saturday Night.—Several Pelham people enjoyed the Christmas tree and the splendid program given by the Shady Grove schools Friday night.

Supt. G. A. Anderson and Paul V. Fitzgerald were guests at a banquet given by Post No. 79, American legion, at Reidsville Monday evening.

A large number of ex-service men were in attendance. Superintendent Anderson was one of the speakers of the evening.

There was a very enthusiastic meeting of the farmers of Caswell, held in Yanceyville this week. Plans for cooperative marketing were discussed and a county organization formed. B. E. Graves, one of Caswell's most progressive farmers, was elected president.

W. P. Pryor and W. H. Baras were business visitors in Danville Friday.

Little Sidney Gerringier, who has been quite sick this week, is now very much improved.

W. M. Burton, carrier on Route No. 1, visited friends in Yanceyville Wednesday night.

W. C. Swann attended a meeting of the Masonic lodge in Reidsville this week.

The Sunday school of the Pelham church held appropriate Christmas exercises Saturday night.

Mrs. W. P. Pryor, accompanied by her daughter Beattie, spent Monday in Danville.

HICKORY AMERICAN LEGION POST ELIUS NEW OFFICERS.
(Special to Daily News.)
Hickory, Dec. 26.—Although rewards aggregating $175 have been offered for the capture of Charlie Helton, Rhodhiss man with a penitentiary record, the man is still at large.

Joseph L. Murphy is the new commander of Hickory post No. 48, American legion, and he will assume his new duties the first of the year. John W. Allen is vice-commander; Laurie A. Deal, adjutant; Homer Boyles, sergeant-at-arms; Glen Abernethy, finance officer; C. V. Garth, historian; and Rev. S. B. Stroup, chaplain. Earl N. Carr, retiring commander, was presented with a handsome gold fountain pen by the members. Points of General Pershing, Marshal Foch, Admiral Lord Beatty, Generals Jacques and Diaz were presented the post by Maj. Geo. L. Lyerly, and an address was made by A. A. Whitener, local attorney.

Makes a Family Supply of Cough Remedy
Really better than ready-made cough syrups and saves about 25% Easily and quickly prepared.

If you combined the curative properties of every known "ready-made" cough remedy, you probably could not get as much real curative power as there is in this simple home-made cough syrup, which is easily prepared in a few minutes.

Get from any druggist 2 1/2 ounces of Pinex, pour it into a pint bottle and fill the bottle with syrup, using either plain granulated sugar syrup, clarified molasses, honey, or corn syrup, as desired. The result is a full pint of really better cough syrup than you could buy ready-made for three times the money. Tastes pleasant and never cloying.

A day's use will usually overcome the ordinary cough and for chronic, croup, hoarseness and bronchial asthma, there is nothing better.

Pinex is a most valuable concentrated compound of genuine Norway pine extract, and has been used for generations to break up severe coughs.

To avoid disappointment, ask your druggist for "2 1/2 ounces of Pinex" with full directions and don't accept anything else. Guaranteed to give absolute satisfaction or money promptly refunded. The Pinex Co., Ft. Wayne, Ind.

If Stomach is Out of Order "Diapepsin"

Every year regularly more than a million stomach sufferers in the United States, England and Canada take Pape's Diapepsin, and realize not only immediate, but lasting relief. This harmless antacid helps digest anything you eat and overcomes a sour, gassy, out-of-order stomach in five minutes. If your meals don't fit comfortably, or what you eat lies like a lump of lead in your stomach, or if you have heartburn, that is a sign of indigestion. Get from your druggist the sixty-cent case of Pape's Diapepsin. There will be no sour risings, no belching of undigested food mixed with acid, no gas or heartburn, no fullness or heavy feeling in the stomach, no nausea, headache or intestinal griping. Prove to yourself in five minutes that your stomach is as good as any; that there is nothing really wrong. Stop this food fermentation and begin eating what you want without fear of discomfort or indigestion. Ad-6
