of an expert as its head, it is thought, will result in great benefit to the public welfare of Greensboro. It was asid yestesday that selection of a man to head the health department will rest with the city manager, but when seen by a representative of the Daily News, Mr. Painter said he would take no action prior to a consultation with Dr. Rankin and with city authorities.

"We want a man for this work," and Mr. Painter, "who is thoroughly qualified, and one who will work in conjunction with the state health authorities." While numerous applications for the position have been received. Mr. Painter said no action would be taken which is not about the pipications for the position have been received. Mr. Painter said no action would be taken which is not about the pipications for the position have been outlined for the reorganization of the health department the duties of the chief in this division, when appointed, will be varied and numerous. He must wage a vigorous and continual warfare against disease; he must hunt out the mosquite and the fly and smite them; he will be required to supervise the inspection of meat, milk and all foodstuffs. In addition to these duties the new expert must see that the record of vital statistics is properly kept; inspect cafes and other establishments and premises; supervise the collection of grabage; seek to raise health the dealth and the noble appears and other establishments and premises; supervise the collection of grabage; seek to raise health the dealth and the noble appears and other establishments and premises; supervise the collection of grabage; seek to raise health the dealth and the noble appears and other establishments and premises; supervise the collection of grabage; seek to raise health the dealth and the noble and spect cafes and other establishments and premises; supervise the collection of garbage; seek to raise health standards in the public schools, and work to eliminate and control contagious diseases. Apparently the job will be no sinecure.

The personnel of the city health dipartment under the contemplated reorganization would be composed of a chief health officer; one sanitary inspector with one assistant; one of-a chief health officer; one sanitary inspector with one assistant; one official to direct street cleaning and garbage collection; one inspector of meat and milk and one clerical nurse. An effort will be made to place the organization on a high plane of efficiency. Later, it is planned to place the work of street cleaning in a division separate from that of the health department.

Greensboro residents are keenly interested in the proposal to inaugurate an improved health program. City Manager Painter said yesterday that city authorities are determined that everything possible shall be done to promote better living conditions in the city and to attain the highest standards of health for Greensboro.

GREENSBORO NEGRO HURT IN ACCIDENT

Funeral Services Are Held For Mrs. Martha J. Morgan, Mother of 15.

Mother of 15.

(Spedil to Dally Ness.)

High Point, Nov. 8.—E. W. Roberts, Greensboro negro, was probably fatally injured and Will Austin, another negro, received minor injuries when an automobile in which they were riding struck the railing on the side of a bridge near Jamestown shortly after 11 o'clock last night. Austin, who was driving, lost control of the car when it ran over a dog while crossing the bridge. The canine was knocked 40 feet, according to Walter Poteat, local undertaker, who was an eye-witness to the accident. Potoat said the automobile was being driven at a rapid rate of speed. The machine was hanging from the bridge supported by the two rear wheels when Poteat went to the assistance of the injured, he said.

Funeral services were held yesterday afternoon for Mrs. Martha J. Morgan, who died suddenly Sunday at her home in this city. The funeral was conducted at Brown's chapel by Rev. J. E. Lanier, of High Peint, interment following in the church cometery.

Helen Marie Emerson, four-year-bid daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. L. Emerson, died at the home here late yesterday afternoon.
