Real Fight In Capital Will Be Over a Special Session After March 4

NEW CONGRESS IS NOT DESIRED BY PRESIDENT UNTIL DECEMBER 1923

He Doesn't Want It Any Earlier Than Necessary.

IT WILL START TROUBLE

Radical Bloc Will Hold Balance of Power; Majorities Are Narrow.

TO URGE EARLY SESSION

The Newly Elected Congressmen Are Anxious To Keep Faith With Their Voters and Want To Plunge Into Work.

Daily News Bureau and Telegram Office, 625 Allen Building (By Leased Wire)

By C. W. GILBERT (Special Copyright, 1922, by Philadelphia Public Ledger.)

Washington, Nov. 10.—The real fight between the administration forces and the radicals in the coming meeting of Congress beginning with special session which President Harding has called for November 15 will be over whether a special session will be held after March 4, next. The President is above all desirous not to have the newly elected Congress in Washington before the regular time for its assembly in December, 1923.

The new Congress will present all sorts of difficulties which he does not wish to face any sooner than necessary. The Republican majority in both houses will be narrow. A radical bloc will hold the balance of power. Indeed Senator La Follette alone will probably have enough followers in both houses to dictate terms on organization of committees, and an legislation.

Moreover Mr. Harding is tired. Mr.
Harding is anxious to get away from Washington for a vacation in Florida.

On the other hand, the radicals will probably desire to see a special session. They have many bills on piedges to bring about changes in the Esch-Connally railroad law and in the taxation system of the United States. The voters in their states are restless and dissatisfied. They wish to see quickly and consolidate their positions.

Fight on Republican Central.

The whole time of the next Congress will be taken up with a fight for control of the Republican party.
The radical minority occupying a strong strategic position in both houses will probably wish to begin this as soon as possible. They will be unwilling to wait until December, 1923, when the national campaign of 1924 is on the point of beginning, to start their maneuvers.

Mr. Harding's call for the November session is a tactical move. It does not mention the ship subsidy which was originally the chief object he had in mind in calling Congress early.
From this it would appear that the longer he has to wait the more he wishes to get away from Washington and to start his maneuvers.

The ship subsidy bill never had good prospects. Opposition to it was so strong in the last session that President Harding had to give up calling it. The congressional leaders telling him that its passage would lose the party many seats in the west. Had there been an urgent need for the ship subsidy on election day, Mr. Harding's prestige would have been so heightened that he might have forced through a ship subsidy bill.

Bayard Is Leading With Small Margin

(By Associated Press.)

Washington, Nov. 10.—Changes in the unofficial count of Tuesday's voting for the United States senatorship in Delaware as disclosed in the official canvass now proceeding in New Castle county, gave Thomas F. Bayard, the Democratic candidate, a slight lead over Senator T. Coleman Du-Pont, Republican, for both the short and long terms. For a time during the day Senator DuPont had a lead of a few votes for the short term, but corrections in this afternoon gave Bayard a lead of 22 votes. Bayard's lead for the long term has been reduced to 240. Bayard this afternoon expressed confidence that the completion of the canvass will leave him with a majority for both terms.

MOTT DECLARES HE HAS ENOUGH EVIDENCE NOW

He Will Know By Monday What Action Is Best In The New Brunswick Tragedy.

3 COURSES OF ACTION

New Brunswick, N. J., Nov. 10.—"I have all the evidence necessary," said Special Deputy Attorney General Mott tonight, dismissing reports of a new hitch in his investigation of the murder of the Rev. Edward Wheeler Hall and Mrs. Eleanor Reinhardt Mill, choir singer in the church of St. John the Evangelist.

"It is now only a question of procedure with me," Mr. Mott declared, indicating that he might not, as had been reported, await the swearing in of a new Somerset county grand jury November 20, before taking further action. "I shall know, probably by Monday, what action is best," he added, "and when I take it, I shall be glad to take the public to my confidence."

Mr. Mott refused to be quoted further, but from a source close to him it was learned that he has three courses of action under consideration.

1.—He may cause arrests on warrants, without waiting for a grand jury action.

2.—He may wait the return of the Somerset county grand jury from a ten-day trip, and the swearing in by Justice Parker of a new grand jury.

3.—He may ask Attorney-General McCran to convene a special grand jury.

Decision not to lay the case before the present grand jury was reached by Mr. Mott after a conference yesterday with Albert Gibb, grand jury foreman. Just what was discussed at the conference has not been made public.

The special prosecutor, it was learned today, is relying on finger prints as well as corroborative witnesses to back up the story of Mrs.
Jane Gibson, pig raiser and accused witness, that the slayings were committed by a bushy-haired man, who was accompanied by a woman in a gray coat.

Several of these prints have been obtained and Mr. Mott is confident he can identify all but one. That is a print, believed to be a woman's, found on the finger of the dead finger's cuff.

On his authority it was said that Mr. Mott planned to make a legal demand Monday on Mrs. Hall, the victim's widow, that she submit to a finger print test for comparison with the unidentified mark.

SIMMONS WILL BE THE SENATE FLOOR LEADER FOR DEMOCRATIC SIDE

Little Doubt Felt In Washing-

Many Observers Believe Sol-

Over President's Veto.

Chairman Of Democratic Committee Says That President Made Bad Move In Calling a Special Session Of Congress.

July News Bureau and Telegram Office,
625 Allen Building (By Leased Wire)

By W. A. HILDEBRAND.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Little doubt was felt here today that Senator Simmons would be chosen Democratic leader of the senate during the 68th Congress. The names of a number of senators have been mentioned in the press reports, these including Senators Pat Harrison, Walsh, and Robinson, but it is unlikely that Mr.
Harrison will receive serious consideration as the floor leader. Senator Walsh is just getting a good start on his first term. Messrs. Walsh and Robinson are known to look with favor on the proposal to cancel the loan to the United States Carolina senator with virtual unani-mity.

As hitherto pointed out, the post will be one of the highest importance, as the responsibility will be devolved upon the Democratic leader to shape the plans and policies of his party with a view to their effect upon the presidential campaign.

It is believed that Senator Simmons will be found willing to accept the responsibility if there is no contest, and the other minority senators show disposition to get behind him in the right spirit.

Washington, Nov. 10.—Freedom from artificially provoked labor troubles, and adequate transportation, according to a letter from an authorized committee of bituminous operators, filed today by request of the coal commission, are the two requirements most needed by the coal industry. A denial that
"acknowledged demoralization" exists in the industry, and a suggestion that extension of the
"autocratic control" of the United Mine Workers of America would add to the difficulties, were also incor-direction which should be given to its efforts in the endeavor to comply with the law requiring it to ascertain all the facts concerning coal production and distribution, and to set out seven points which they considered should be covered, as follows:

List of the Points.

"1.—The effect on production and on the price of coal, to the con-

American people, and the necessary control of mine labor in the "2.—The opposition of organized

"3.—The non-observance by organ-behalf.

"4.—The existing prices of mining materials, and a comparison between them and the prices existing prior to the war.

"5.—The existing freight rates, and a comparison between them and the rates existing prior to the war.

"6.—The effect of inadequate transportation facilities on production and cost of coal.

"7.—The character and quality of

DENY DEMORALIZATION

The Letter Also States That "Autocratic Control" of the United Mine Workers Would Add to the Difficulties.

(By Associated Press.)

from artificially provoked labor
troubles, and adequate transpor-
authorized committee of bituminous
operators, filed today by request of
the coal commission, are the two
requirements most needed by the
"acknowledged demoralization"
exists in the industry, and a sugges-
"autocratic control" of the United Mine Workers of America would add
to the difficulties, were also incorporated in the report, which was made through the National Coal association. The commission asked generally for the movement of the direction which should be given to
with the law requiring it to ascertain
all the facts concerning coal production and distribution, and to set out
seven points which they considered
should be covered, as follows:
