Turkish Situation and Indications of Unfavorable Legislation By Next Congress Worries Dealers On Market—Fair Buying In Coppers Starts Late In The Day.

(By Leased Wire to Daily News.) (Copyright, 1922, by Philadelphia Public Ledger.) New York, Nov. 13.—Today's market during most of the session witnessed a continuation of the selling movement which was so pronounced on Saturday. Pressure did not relax until late in the afternoon when fair buying of some of the coppers and strength in a few of the specialties gave a suggestion that support was forthcoming and that it might extend to other portions of the market.

MONITOR'S WALL STREET GOSPEL

(By Leased Wire to Daily News.) (Copyright, 1922, by Philadelphia Public Ledger.) New York, Nov. 13.—Cerro de Pasco staged a sharp rally today following talk of a resumption of dividend and strength in this issue encouraged support of most of the other copper stocks. Cerro is apparently in good shape and qualified as leader of the overdue movement in the coppers.

Crude rubber prices are again on the rise and with stock quoted at 24 cents today, the market is nearly 3 cents up from the low level reached last week. London is holding very firm as a result of the restriction plans successful so far, and this has imparted a strong tone to the local market.

Proof that the movement of both anthracite and bituminous coal has reached normal proportions is given by the discontinuation of the issuance of daily coal loading reports by the American Railway association.

Despite the dental made two or three weeks ago by A. H. Harris, of Greensboro, N. C., the market is holding very firm.
