

Woman's Realm

Weddings, Club Meetings
Card Parties, Personals

Telephone 1001

Engagements Announced

Miss Viola Lambert was hostess yesterday afternoon, at her home on Mason avenue—honoring Miss Joy Belle Tussey, a bride of next month. The home was artistically decorated with chrysanthemums and ferns in the reception hall and parlor. Each guest was presented a hand-painted card which bore the message of Miss Tussey's engagement, as follows:

"This is to break the news that Miss Joy Belle Tussey will become the bride of the bridegroom, O. H. Alexander, on December 23, 1922, at her home, 314 Vance street, city, at 11 o'clock, A. M."

With this was the wish of her hostess: "May the rest of her life be as full of joy and happiness as every day has been since September 12, 1921."

Two very interesting contests were held. One was "the flower of the bridegroom," in which Miss Tussey was the winner. The other, the object of which was to obtain the most words from the letters of "bride-bridgroom," was won by Miss Thelma Floyd, with 55 words. The honoree was presented a beautiful hand-painted china plate.

During the afternoon the hostess, assisted by her mother and sister, Mrs. H. H. Thornton, served a delious chicken salad course, with hot tea.

The bride-elect was dressed in a gown of pale blue silk ornamented with silver beads, with touches of blue and pink ribbon.

Those present besides the honoree were: Misses Kathryn Mann, Helen Clapp, Charlotte Johnson, Thelma Floyd, Ruth Tussey, Ellen and Rachel Sheiton, Josephine Durant, Margaret Lassiter and Mrs. H. H. Thornton.

Miss Hunt Honored

Miss Louise Hunt, bride-elect of this week, was the honoree at a delightful party yesterday afternoon at the Tea garden, when Misses Elizabeth and Ethel Stockton entertained a large number of their friends, bridge and rook being played at eight tables.

Miss Hunt's place was marked by a white wedding bell, showered with valley lilies. The high score prize for bridge, a beautiful card table cover, was won by Irene Sapp, and the rook prize, a hand-painted waste basket, fell to Gladys Holland. Miss Hunt was given a pretty hand-painted candy jar.

At the conclusion of the games an excellent course with cake was served, at which time the cutting of the bride's cake, with a knife decorated with a shower of valley lilies, tied with a soft bow of white tulle.

Among those present were Misses Louise Hunt, Lucille Pettitt, Helen Slack, Naida Swain, Vallie Dillon, Eugenia Patterson, Margaret Hunt, Sara Hunt, Pearl Dick, Julia Wharton, Kathleen Pettitt, Maude Jones, Lucille Swain, Irene Sapp, Dorothy Posey, Aletha Fisher, of Tampa, Fla.; Alice Sapp, Mary Hess Barnhardt, and Mesdames J. T. Hix, J. L. Brockmann, P. A. Hayes, Druggins, G. E. Groome, A. E. Pyle, Frank Patterson, Richard Hall of Ocala, Fla., Roy Smith, Ralph Edwards, Harold Ross, Robert Hardin, Mrs. Eugene Easterling and Mrs. J. P. Patton.

Presbyterian Auxiliary To Meet

At the meeting of the Women's Auxiliary of the First Presbyterian church Monday afternoon at 4 o'clock, the last two chapters of the mission study book, "The Unfinished Task" will be given. This book has proved to be one of the most interesting home mission books the auxiliary has ever had. Mrs. W. C. Smith will be the leader.

This is also the time for the self-denial offering for assembly's home missions. This year the collection goes to the Stuart Robinson school, at Blackey, Ky., to rebuild the dormitory burned last January. Every member is asked to bring or send her offering to this meeting. The day nursery will be open.

Auxiliary Circles To Meet

The circles of the Church of the Covenant will meet on Monday afternoon at 1:30 o'clock in the following homes:

Circle No. 1, with Mrs. W. S. Barney, on Forest avenue.

Circle No. 2, with Mrs. W. M. Roach, 404 Morehead avenue.

Circle No. 3, with Miss Lillie Jamison, 296 Forest avenue.

Circle No. 4, with Mrs. Fred Turner, on Guilford avenue.

Miss Hunt to Marry This Week

An interesting social event of this week will be the marriage on Tuesday evening in the West Market Street church of Miss Louise Hunt to W. J. Hunter, of Williamston, immediately following the wedding. Miss Hunt's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. T. Hunt will give a reception at their home on Edgeworth street, and Miss Hunt will entertain the bridal party on Monday evening following the rehearsal at the church.

Miss Margaret Hunt, sister of the bride, will be maid of honor, and Mrs. James E. Falson, of Falson, dame of honor. The bridesmaids will be Misses Elizabeth Stockton and Irene Sapp, of Greensboro, Lillie Mae Stanford, of Durham, and Aletha Fisher, of Tampa, Fla. Little Miss Virginia Hayes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. A. Hayes, will be flower girl, and little Bob Harden, son of Mr. and Mrs. Robert H. Harden, will be ring bearer.

The groomsmen will be Felix Brockmann and Percy Groome, of Greensboro, Braxton M. Fulp, of Winston-Salem, C. D. Carstarphen, of Williamston, and Howell Wadsworth, of New Bern.

Other out of town guests for the wedding will be: Mr. and Mrs. J. G. Godard and Mrs. W. T. Hunter, of Williamston, Mrs. Frank P. Jones, of Charlotte, J. E. Falson, of Falson.

Attend High Point Party

Mesdames Albert and Jack Stevens, Mesdames Penn and John Watson were High Point visitors yesterday attending the party there given by Miss Nellie Muse and Mrs. Charles Holton, honoring Mrs. J. E. Marsh, Jr., who was before her marriage Miss Odell Peacock, and Mrs. Charles Teague, formerly Miss Ruby Young, of Greensboro.

Centenary Society To Meet

The Women's Missionary society of Centenary church will meet Monday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. Mrs. E. H. Milton will be the leader of the meeting, and she will be assisted by various members of the society, who will give the program for the week of prayer.

Greensboro Women to Wilmington

Among the Greensboro women who will attend the North Carolina Association of Jewish Women, which will be in session in Wilmington from November 19 to 22, will be Mrs. E.

Sternberger, Mrs. Julius Cohn, Mrs. Ell Ottlinger, Mrs. S. Schiffman, Mrs. H. Schiffman, Mrs. Julius Cohn, and Mrs. S. J. Lindau. They will leave today for the meeting.

High School Association to Meet

The Parent-Teachers' association of the high school will meet on Wednesday afternoon at 3:45 o'clock at the school building. The meeting has been changed from the last Wednesday in the month to next Wednesday on account of the fact that a number of teachers will be going to the teachers' assembly on the day before Thanksgiving.

Mrs. Johnson to Speak at Park Place

At the missionary meeting at Park Place church at 8:30 o'clock Monday night, Mrs. William Johnson will speak on the crippled children of Guilford county. An attractive musical program has also been arranged. It is hoped that there will be a large attendance. The members present in addition to the members of the society.

PERSONALS

Mr. and Mrs. Enoch Barker, of Brooklyn, are spending a few days with Mr. and Mrs. Harry Barton.

Mrs. Hal Price, who was called to Jackson, Tenn., on account of the sudden death of her father, Sam Hudgins, is still there with her mother, who is very ill. Mr. Price has returned to Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Paisley have returned to their home in McLeansville, after a six weeks' visit to their son, J. P. Paisley, Paris, Tex. They returned by way of Hot Springs, Ark.

Mrs. Edith Russell, of Raleigh, was here yesterday, on a meeting of the North Carolina college alumnae council.

Mrs. D. St. Hicks, of Raleigh, is the guest of her daughter, Mrs. W. D. Hicks, of Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Wistar Stockard, George Pryor, and Mrs. R. C. Ridge, spent yesterday in Charlotte, where they witnessed the Davidson-Carolina football game.

Mrs. Harriet Andrews, of Raleigh, is spending the week-end here with his family.

Jesse E. Keith has returned from a business trip of several weeks to southern cities.

E. M. Schenck will leave Monday night on a business trip to Goldsboro.

Miss Pearl Humphrey, is spending the week-end in Charlotte, the guest of friends.

R. L. Butts will leave for Raleigh Monday night, where he will go on business.

Mrs. Hill Hunter and Mrs. R. W. Glenn leave tonight for a trip to New York. They will be gone several days.

A. L. Sterner left last night for Philadelphia, where he will spend several days on business.

Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Berlin left last night for Baltimore, where they will spend several days.

M. J. Jones will leave tonight for a trip to Washington, D. C.

J. C. Alston will leave tonight on a business trip to Washington, D. C.

J. F. Newman left last night for New York, where he will spend several days on business.

C. H. McKnight left last night for New York, where he will spend several days on business.

Mrs. J. R. Harris will leave tonight for New York to spend several days.

J. A. Kleemer will leave Monday night for New York on a business trip of several days.

Smith Richardson will leave Tuesday night on a business trip of several days to New York.

Ell Ottlinger will leave tonight on a short business trip to Atlanta.

Chester Chapin will leave tonight for a brief business trip to Atlanta.

J. S. Mills will leave tonight on a business trip to Birmingham, Ala.

Miss Frances Lee, of Trinity, was a shopping visitor here yesterday.

Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Underwood, of Ashboro, were Greensboro visitors yesterday.

Miss Sara Gresson, of Liberty, was a shopper in the city yesterday.

Miss Emma Blair, of High Point, spent several hours here yesterday shopping.

Miss Leona Lisberry is spending the week-end in Burlington with relatives.

Mrs. R. J. Allen will leave Monday night for a visit to New York city.

Mrs. F. W. W. will leave Monday night for Asheville.

E. E. Hedrick will leave tonight for a business trip to Norfolk.

Mrs. J. W. Morris left last night for Richmond, Va., where she will spend several days on business.

C. E. Hudson will leave tonight for Richmond, Va., where he will spend several days on business.

Mrs. W. B. Brittain and two sons, Robert and Thomas, of Guilford College, route 1, are visiting Mrs. Brittain's sister, Mrs. J. A. Jernigan, in Durham.

Mrs. Arrie Howard is spending the week-end in Salisbury with her mother, Mrs. W. F. Davidson.

Mrs. Jesse F. Prather and Mrs. J. M. Hollingsworth were shopping visitors in the city from Mount Airy Friday.

Mrs. Henry Ware returned Friday from Salisbury, where she has been spending the past week as the guest of Mr. and Mrs. John L. Bendleman.

Miss Elizabeth Sparger is spending the week-end in Winston-Salem, the guest of Mr. and Mrs. Everett Matthews. She went over for the banquet at the Robert E. Lee Friday night given by the Business and Professional Women's club.

Misses Margaret and Julia Gold are spending the week-end in Charlotte.

Misses Marie and Gay Williams, of Greenville, S. C., are visiting Mrs. B. T. Raynes, in Westerwood.

Misses Madeline and Pearl Dawson are spending the week-end with their parents in Summerfield.

Unshod Horse Falls and Fatally Injures Stroud

(Special to Daily News.)
Kinston, Nov. 18.—When an unshod horse he was riding slipped on a paved road near Deep Run today, Everett Stroud, about 40 years of age, was thrown and fatally injured. He died in a hospital here three hours later. A widow, son and daughter survive.

New Forestry Warden

Chapel Hill, Nov. 18.—Col. Joseph Hyde Pratt, director of the North Carolina geological and economic survey, announces the addition to the force of the forestry division of the survey of Fred B. Merrill, who will at once assume the duties of district forest warden. His employment is made possible through co-operation with the United States forest service under the Weeks law.

I read much of the near east now
But all my wishes are
That the land near east
Will keep on being far
—Tennyson J. Daff in Kansas City Star.

Pithy Paragraphs

Friends, here's your chance to produce a monument for the Ages, a hanging garden of indelible legend, a pyramid of literature.

"Why be like that flower of Gray's that blushed unseen and wasted its sweetness on the desert air? An apparent lemon might, if it disclosed its identity, be found to be an orange."

The scope of this column is broad enough to include both the wise and witty. Humor, we are told, springs from common sense and beneath Touchstone's quip we often find a grain of philosophy.

Can you turn a phrase or tune a pointed jingle? Can you see between the lines of your newspaper some subtle humor? Put it in the form of a humorous comment and send it to the Pithy Paragraphs Editor.

FIRST PRIZE
Wrong Interpretation.
Heavy advertiser, in angry and disgusted tone to editor—"what's the matter with your paper, any way? That was a fine mess you made yesterday."

"What seems to be the trouble?" asked the editor anxiously.

"Read this and see," said the advertiser, handing a copy of the paper into the editorial hands.

The unhappy editor read, "If you want to have a fit, wear Jink's shoes."—Ruber C. Glass, 1054 Ashboro street, City.

SECOND PRIZE
Wrong Interpretation.
Seeing that death was sure, the wife finally called the doctor for her husband. The doctor came, examined, shook his head, "Madam, I fear I have come too late."

"The old man raised up on one elbow, 'I ain't dead yet Doc'."

"But, madam, the doctor knows more about it than you do."—R. E. 521 Douglas St.

Third Prize
Festive Fleeing.
The sheep will again get the attention of little boy blue for his losing sight of the calves on the avenue.—Box 271, Reidsville, N. C.

Keep It Dark
"May I print a kiss upon your lips?"

"Yes, provided you promise not to publish it."—A. L. Cannon, Box 623, City.

A Misunderstanding
"Mamma, said Willie, 'Did you ever see a ground hog?'"

"Not that I remember," said mother.

"Why do you ask?"

"Because Johnny Peters says that it is only a joke and that ground hog is sausage."—W. H., Mt. Airy, N. C.

Doesn't Like Lettuce
"Patrick, do you like lettuce?"

"No, I don't, and I'm glad I don't, because if I did, I'd be eating it all the time and I hate the beastly stuff."—Margaret Watson, Oxford, N. C.

Help For Digestion
One day a farmer and his negro servant John went out to the field to try out his new Fordson tractor, everything was going fine except the sacking of the engine, which they could not understand, so he sent John over to a nearby neighbor for help. When he reached the house the man asked, "what is the trouble John? De boss said he wished you would

AGRICULTURAL FAIR AT STATE COLLEGE NOV. 24

More Than $700 In Cash and Merchandise Will Be Awarded Prize Winners.

THERE'S NO ADMISSION

(Special to Daily News.)
Raleigh, Nov. 18.—With more than $700 in cash and merchandise, donated by local merchants and out-of-town dealers, to be distributed as premiums and special prizes, the second annual students' agricultural fair at State college will be held Friday, November 24. The exhibits will be staged in Patterson hall and the midway with its side shows, refreshment stands and free feature attractions will be located around the main building.

The fair will be formally opened at 11 o'clock in the morning with a parade through the principal streets of the city. Practically every agricultural department of the college will be represented in the parade by a float and in addition there will be the usual comic features with clown galore. The procession, nearly a mile in length, will be headed by the famous State college "Hayseed" band.

The opening program calls for an old-fashioned dance with overalls and calico as full dress.

Patterson largely after its celebrated neighbor, the great state fair, just across Hillsboro street, the fair will be featured by judging contests in all classes of livestock, poultry, horticulture and agronomy. These contests, as well as the competition for premiums in the various farm exhibits, will be limited to agricultural students of the college.

The fair is held under the auspices of the Agricultural club of which W. Anderson, of Madison county, is president. The secretary of the fair association is J. W. Hodges, of Georgia, who is directly responsible for its management.

Admission to the fair grounds will be free and a cordial invitation to attend is extended to the general public.

BRIDGE CARDS

EGYPTIAN DESIGN
WITH THREE INITIALS
The above design is exquisitely illuminated in a combination of five colors. Initials are inserted in blue or red on back of each card.

A unique Christmas Gift.
1 Deck with Initials.....2.25
2 Decks with same Initials.....4.00
Without Initials 1.00 Per Deck.
Samples sent upon request

J. P. Stevens Engraving Co., Atlanta, Ga.

PIERSON'S Light House

Things Electrical
House-Wiring
Art-Ware
Novelties
Curios

CHANGE from wrong to right posture—and be a new woman.

May I call and explain how the Spencer Designing Service will give you good health and style? Write or phone for an appointment.

Miss Minnie Stewart
Resident Spencer Consultant
T. W. C. A. Phone 846

Just a minute, please

This drug store is here for the purpose of serving the people of this section as they should be served. Our business started with that purpose twenty years ago and we have endeavored to live up to that purpose in every possible way.

We feel that one of the biggest reasons why our business has grown so well is because we try our level best to serve every individual just as we would want to be served.

There's a real human element in our business. We like people. We want them to like us. If there is anything we can do to make an acquaintance a friendship we try to do it. We like to serve people and to please them every time.

We are all human and sometimes we make mistakes, but we never offend anyone intentionally. If there is one single person in this section who hasn't received from us just the service they should expect, we apologize right now. It wasn't done intentionally and you may feel that it was absolutely unavoidable. Come back.

This is your store. We want to run it as you want it run. If you have any suggestions for improvement tell us about them. We'll appreciate it and try to carry it out, if possible. We endeavor to give you ALWAYS THE BEST, ALWAYS FOR LESS, and will continue to be "THE STORE THAT APPRECIATES YOUR BUSINESS." Come to see us often. Meet your friends here. Make this your down-town headquarters always.

THANK YOU.

Truly Works of Art

Less tribute cannot be paid the designers of this season's smartest creations in

COATS

And we have assembled here the finest examples of designing fancy; coats in which the very necessary element of service, utility, has not been forgotten—yet garments that are striking for the individuality in any assemblage. From the simply tailored fabric coat to the more pretentious garments luxuriously fur-trimmed, the lines are smartness itself.

Only the Highest Quality Materials Incorporated In Their Making; Yet Priced Easily Within Reach

Additions to the stock during the past week make selection now particularly desirable.

New Woolen Dresses

We have just received a considerable shipment of woolen dresses developed along the lines most popular this season; and we want to call attention to

A very complete range in the larger sizes—38, 40, 42 and 44.

