

Republicans Have 3 Senators; 10 Members In Lower Body

Henry London Compiles Complete List of Members In the Two Houses of the General Assembly of 1923—W. T. Lee Gets a Total of 225,615 Votes, Opponent Gets 140,557.

Greensboro Daily News Bureau, No. 9 Westward Building.

Raleigh, Nov. 18.—Majority raids in the election Tuesday, November 7, well-nigh annihilated the minority representation in the 1923 general assembly, which will have 19 Republican members in the lower house and three senators.

Legislative Reference Librarian Henry M. London has compiled the list, which is the smallest representation which Republicans have had since the formation of their party. And the minority a month before the election was expecting gains in the house. The redistricting of the state led members of the party to believe that they were being favored. The senatorial losses, however, are relatively but little worse than those in the house. There are eight in the senate and 19 in the house less than were here two years ago.

Madison this year has sent a Democrat to the legislature, but Plato White did that trick in 1914 when he sent himself by 700 majority in a Republican county which could have given 2,000 against him. He comes this year to the senate. There are very few familiar faces among the Republicans, but quite a sprinkling of old Democrats. Here is the list given out today by Mr. London:

A Little Talk On Christmas In November

There is many a wife this year who wants to be "surprised" on Christmas Eve with a new Living Room Suite—or maybe it is a Dining Room Suite or Bed Room Furnishings that you have contemplated "giving" this year.

Many a woman contemplates giving to husband or son a beautiful overstuffed chair or something else substantial in the furnishing line.

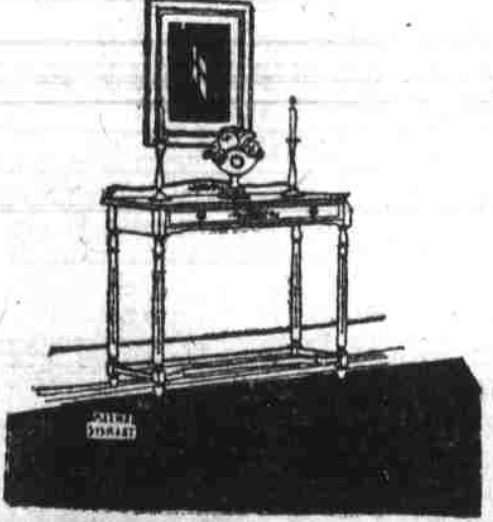

FOR THIS IS TO BE DISTINCTIVELY A FURNITURE CHRISTMAS—Of the hundreds of new homes that have been built during the past twelve months, many are not completely furnished and what could be a more logical gift than that new suite of furniture or odd piece that will just complete the furnishings of "HOME" on Christmas Day.

BUT—Gifts of this kind cannot be picked up at random on Christmas Eve. They must be selected carefully. And it is to call your attention to this fact that we are writing this Christmas Story in November. If you come early you will have larger stocks, more time, better service and your Gifts can be delivered on Christmas Eve.

And not only beautiful made to order living room suites and handsome dining room and bed room suites may be found here but all of those smaller articles which go to make a home more beautiful, many of which are inexpensive, and make the most acceptable of gifts.

Col. A. D. Watts today says it with flowers and gives exactly the majority which the Democrats have attained in the late election. He says: "Official returns of the recent election have been received from all but seven counties and what are considered correct unofficial returns from those. Corporation Commissioner W. T. Lee, who heads the Democratic state ticket received 225,615 votes and Mr. Hoover, his Republican opponent 140,557—Lee's majority 85,058. The Democrats elected all 19 congressmen with majorities ranging from 7,000 to 18,000. They gained two senators, eight senators and 19 Representatives in the legislature, with about an equal number of clerks, sheriffs, registers of deeds, county treasurers, boards of county commissioners and other county officers as Representatives. Counties have gone Democratic for the first time in 20 years and one—Henderson—for the first time since the Republican party was organized. That party has only one legislator, three Senators and 19 Representatives in the legislature. Only four counties—Mitchell, Surry, Wilkes and Yadkin—will be represented in both branches of the next Legislature by Republicans.

"This election is a great victory for the Democratic party and a magnificent endorsement of Governor McRae's administration and the splendid program of state upbuilding the progress which has been inaugurated under his leadership. Never in the state's history have so many Republicans openly and proudly voted the Democratic ticket as have in this election. This was notably true in the west where Republicans are in great numbers. They were pleased with roads and school as were their Democratic neighbors, and nearly a score of counties heretofore Republican are now found in the Democratic column.

"In Mr. J. D. Norwood, the party never had a wiser, more devoted, energetic or effective chairman. It has frequently been remarked that he did not make a single mistake or raise a controversy during the campaign. He was wise in selecting his vice chairman, Miss Mary Henderson, and other assistants, who all rendered valiant service to the party. He issued a great handbook, covered the state with speakers, and above all secured an effective organization wherever one was needed. He has led the party to its greatest victory and is a worthy successor to Cox and Simmons and Warren."

SKYHILL TALKS TO PEOPLE OF COLLEGE

Elon Students Hear Australian Discuss Present Situation In Europe

(Special to Daily News.)
 Elon College, Nov. 18.—Tom Skyhill, noted lecturer, who has just returned to America, who has just returned from Constantinople where he had been studying the economic problems of southern Europe, spoke to the students and citizens of the town here last night. He used as the subject of his lecture "Down the Trojan way," and talked of the crumbling civilization of Europe.

Mr. Skyhill is an Australian and was in the thick of the fight during the entire period of the war. He pictured three causes of the downfall of civilizations: biological forces, war, and lack of morals. He stated that the only hope of the European civilization today lay in the younger generation who were eager to attend the schools and universities and through education to crack the veneer shell of militarism and get to the true understanding of the forces of civilization.

Mr. Skyhill told of the war as it after effect from his own personal experience and observation, and vivid accounts of battles, forces, and causes, held his audience in the steepest attention throughout his discourse. Hearty applause was accorded him.
