

Fake Dispatches Give Joy At Press Dinner In Paris

One Startles British Ambassador—Herrick Is Lion of Occasion. Girls Weep When Kissing His Hands—Bill Bird Starts the Evening Off On Its Merry Journey.

(Copyright, 1922, by Philadelphia Public Ledger.) Paris, Nov. 21.—All good pairs, cheery, bright, gay—but not too gay; work, care, annoyances forgot for the night; friends without distinction of rank or position from the ambassadors down to the littlest dancer of the carefully mothered ballet of Tiller girls; that was the spirit of the annual dinner and party of the Anglo-American Press association. This affair, which has taken its place since the war as an event so delightfully blending the qualities of American, English and Parisian that the few invitations are highly prized and bring in, either the news correspondents who organize it, only the most interesting and most important personalities of Paris.

This year Lord Hardinge and Myron T. Herrick, respectively ambassadors to France, of Great Britain and the United States, who are honorary presidents of the association, came like any other members, paying for their own dinners and for their guests, sitting at their own tables. They stayed late. Ambassador Herrick was loath to depart at some time after 3 a. m., declaring privately and publicly that he had never had such a good time.

The crisis of the evening came when the program, which artists of Paris theaters had put on by way of compliment to their friends of the press, came to an end. Mr. Herrick, we will say, for there was nothing of the ambassador about him then, rose to his feet. There was no need to rap for calm. You could have heard a fly on the wing as he told what he thought of the affair and how much he liked the clean, friendly show the theater people had given. "They have all been so sweet, so charming, that I should like to kiss them all, but..."

The "but" was lost in the roar of applause and soon sager correspondents were pushing, leading, carrying for whatever is the matter with you. That is the way lots of people do, and that is why they are on the down-go all the time. The thing for you to do is to take a remedy that has proved itself efficient in thousands of cases for three generations. You can get such a remedy in Cheney's Expectorant, whose reputation is built on absolute performance.

Take a few doses about every two hours apart and see how quickly you will get over that incipient cold and how brisk and lively you will feel later on. With head clear as a bell and your thinking apparatus working right you're fit to tackle any job or trade that comes along. Better order a bottle right now while it's on your mind.

Sold by all druggists and in small-er towns by general merchants in 30c and 60c bottles. (Advertisement.)

YOU CAN'T DO YOUR WORK RIGHT WITH THAT COLD

A Clear Head Is Needed to Put Through a Trade—Cheney's Expectorant Will Help.

Do you know why you are not feeling so good as you think you should? Why you are tired and languid? Why you feel dull and almost stupid, unable to buckle down to the job and think along logical lines? You're taking cold; or you have already caught one, and this is old Mother Nature's way of telling you that you're on the wrong track. Well, what are you going to do about it? Take a pill or tablet that some friend has recommended who, perhaps, has never taken one himself, but has only heard someone else say it was good.

ing young and beautiful women to the ambassador's table. At first they had to be urged. They were top modest to take the ambassador literally. But once the movement was started it gained momentum. He said to their everlasting credit that the majority of these so-called frivolous little things of the show business were grateful even to kiss the hands of the man whom France loves above all Americans, and even at the risk of being sentimental it must be narrated that more than one sympathetic tear fell there among the kisses.

ERVIN LEE WINS SUIT AGAINST HIS TAILORS

Tyson and Webb Must Remit $31.50, Amount Paid on Suit Which He Didn't Get.

(Special to Daily News.) Burlington, Nov. 21.—A very unusual civil action was brought against Tyson and Webb, local tailors, by Ervin Lee, negro, here recently. The suit was to recover $31.50 which represented payments made on a tailored suit of clothes. The case was tried in Judge W. Luther Cates' court. According to the evidence introduced at the trial, Ervin Lee, a minor, paid Tyson and Webb $31.50 in payments for a suit of clothes and failed to pay a balance of $12.50 due the tailors for the suit of clothes. The clothes were retained by the tailoring establishment after five months' time had elapsed and offered for sale. The plaintiff in the case was represented by Carroll and Carroll, of this city, while the defendants were represented by Parker and Long, of Graham, and W. A. Cooper, of this city, the only negro lawyer in Alamance county.

After arguments by the attorneys on both sides of the case, Judge Cates rendered a decision in favor of the plaintiff. The defendants took an appeal to the Alamance county Superior court, and the case will be tried at the next term of civil court at Graham.

Yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock M. K. Tyson, member of the firm of Tyson and Webb, was arraigned in Judge Cates' court charged with embezzlement of $31.50, the same being the amount received from Ervin Lee for the tailored suit of clothes which he failed to receive. Tyson was bound over to the Alamance county Superior court under a bond of $150.

The civil action brought against the tailors has caused much comment among tailors and merchants of the city, and it is understood that if the action is upheld by the higher courts the law will affect all tailors in the state.

The marriage of Y. S. Miles, of this city, and Miss Bessie Miles, of Yanceyville, which occurred at Danville, Va., yesterday, has been announced here. Mr. Miles is a prominent business man of Burlington, having been engaged in the meat business here for several years. Officers Murray and Frollinger, of the local police department, captured Henry Smith, a negro, with an automobile and several pints of whiskey on the Glencoe road. Smith was given a hearing and found guilty. He was unable to furnish bond and is now in jail.

F. L. Williamson, of this city, who is a member of the Southern Trade Commission, has gone to Chicago, Ill., where he will attend a meeting of the commission and deliver an address in the western states. The congregations of Front Street Methodist church and Webb avenue Methodist church were delighted to learn yesterday of the reappointment of their pastors to the Burlington Methodist churches for another year by the conference of the denomination which adjourned at Raleigh yesterday. Rev. W. E. North, D. D., is the popular pastor of Front Street church, while Rev. N. E. Colerain is the Webb Avenue congregation's pastor.

Two children of Ned Bear, barber, of this city will be taken to Raleigh for treatment as a result of an examination of the head of a young collie dog that had acted strangely in the home of Mr. Bear. The dog was killed Saturday by the city policeman and the head sent to Raleigh for examination. The report came back immediately that the dog had rabies. The children of Mr. Bear had no scratches, but will be taken

EAT VEGETABLES IF KIDNEYS HURT YOU

Take a glass of Salts if your Back hurts or Bladder bothers.

The American men and women must guard constantly against kidney trouble, because we eat often too much red meat and all our food is rich. Our blood is filled with uric acid which the kidneys strive to filter out; they weaken from overwork, become sluggish, the eliminative tissues clog and the result is kidney trouble, bladder weakness and a general decline in health.

When your kidneys feel like lumps of lead; your back hurts or the urine is cloudy, full of sediment, or you are obliged to seek relief two or three times during the night; if you suffer with sick headache, or dizzy spells, acid stomach, or if you have rheumatism when the weather is bad, get from your pharmacist about four ounces of Jad Salts; take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast for a few days and your kidneys may then act fine. This famous salt is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia, and has been used for generations to cleanse and stimulate clogged kidneys; to neutralize the acids in the urine so it no longer is a source of irritation, thus often ending bladder disorders.

Jad Salts is inexpensive; cannot injure, makes a delightful effervescent lithia water beverage and belongs in every home, because nobody can make a mistake by having a good kidney flushing any time.
