

BURLINGTON NEGRO IS CLEARED BY A COURT

Miss Minnie McPherson Becomes Bride of O. C. Hopkins—E. L. Morgan III.

OTHER BURLINGTON NEWS

Burlington, Dec. 1.—The criminal action brought against M. K. Tyson, local tailor, by Irvin Lee, both negroes, which was tried in Alamance Superior Court Wednesday afternoon, created considerable interest because of the nature of the case. Tyson was charged with the embezzlement of $13.50, the same being the amount paid by Lee as a partial payment for a tailored suit of clothes. Lee failed to pay a balance of $11.50 for the clothes and Tyson retained the clothes for five months and then disposed of them. A verdict of not guilty was rendered.

The marriage of Miss Minnie McPherson and O. C. Hopkins, both of West Burlington, which was solemnized at the home of L. C. Christman Wednesday, has been announced. The ceremony was performed by Rev. H. P. Wyrick, pastor of the Lutheran church. The young couple are popular among a large circle of friends in West Burlington, where they will reside.

E. L. Morgan, tobaccoist and prominent business man of this city, underwent an operation in a Richmond hospital recently. Reports from the hospital indicate that he is recovering from the operation.

A large number of young people who are attending the various colleges in the state spent the Thanksgiving holiday with their parents in this city. The following students of the State university were here: Marvin Smith, Tom Garrett, Finley Thomas, Harold Leggett, William E. Aldridge, Gus Bradley, Walter Sutton, Clarence Knox, and Allen Nye. From the State college were the following: George Leggett, James Potter, Joe Shoffner, Tom Johnston and Carl Webster.

The Burlington-Graham Literary club was entertained by Mrs. James E. Holt at her home on West Davie street Wednesday afternoon from 3:30 to 6 o'clock in regular meeting. Miss Augusta Freeman, of this city, was in charge of the program, which was the subject of "Contemporary American Poets." A number of the club members took part on the program. Delightful refreshments were served by the hostess. A large number of the members of the club and several visitors were present.

Prof. W. D. Loy, who is principal of the public school at Huntersville, was a recent visitor at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Loy, of Burlington, R. F. D. 1.

Mrs. J. M. Davis and son, George, of Winston-Salem, are visiting her sister, Mrs. C. B. Ellis, in this city.

Mrs. J. A. White and little son, Harold Leslie, have gone to Charleston, S. C., where they will visit relatives for several weeks.

JULE B. WARREN AGAIN CHOSEN SECRETARY OF THE STATE TEACHERS

Mr. Coon's system all that he had to say about it. Superintendent Brooks threw himself into the fight for Warren and stated the case with great earnestness. Professor H. H. Eiston, of Durham, thought it would be a vain thing to fail endorsement of the executive committee's act right in the midst of a year's term runs from July to July. Mr. Holt had offered a resolution endorsing the committee's course. Superintendent Andrews, of Salisbury, would have backed off from commendation or condemnation. But the assembly was in positive frame of mind and elected to stand by the committee unanimously. It was a rare old scrap in which the Wilson insurgent carried the battle unevenly as he generally does. He had no criticism of Warren's work.

Stedman's Majority 14,906.

The Board of elections today counted the November 7 vote. The total number of votes cast for Chairman Tom Lee, of the corporation commission, leading Charles M. Hoover with 23,802, against 141,321.

This gave Lee a majority of 84,519. Justice W. J. Adams, of the state Supreme court registered 225,728 against Judge E. W. Timberlake's 140,258, and the Democratic Judge's majority is 85,470. Judge E. H. Cranmer polled 235,322, but adding machine made a vote of 208,123 for the Republican opponent and there is something wrong.

The figures do not vary from those unofficial counts which have been given out from time to time. They are interesting, not as furnishing any useful election psychology. Neither was there any hint of a hot and cold war, one vast domain of civic slackers. As an illustration of that, the tenth congressional district lacked less than a thousand of casting an equal vote as the second, third and fourth districts. Even the imperial fifth is made to appear a piker by comparison with the ballots which were cast in the mountain counties.

In the first district Congressman Gallett Ward received 10,201 and C. E. Craver 2,421 votes; in the second, Claude Kitchin had no opposition and only 833 votes were cast for him; in the third, Congressman G. W. B. Hester received 19,795 and P. E. Hester 8,048.

Major Charles M. Stedman polled 18,694 against Mrs. Lindsay Patterson's 30,880. Homer L. Lyon received 14,296 and W. J. McLean 5,268. W. C. Hammer was given 30,829 and W. B. Love 23,556 in the seventh. R. L. Doughton in the eighth had 31,840 and J. L. Campbell 24,335. In the ninth Major Bulwinkle's vote was 29,649 and Shuford's 18,115. In the tenth Weaver polled 21,528 to Fisher's 28,132.

Smallest Majority for Abernethy.

The combined vote of the four eastern districts was 66,470 and of the tenth 65,418. The west voted more heavily this year than it did two years ago. The eastern women do not go out in great numbers nor do their men. The Republicans voted very lightly in the east, as did the Democrats.

The smallest majority went to Charles L. Abernethy and the largest to Major Stedman. The biggest Democratic gain was in Wilkes and the smallest in Gates, though there were small losses in many counties. The Republican vote in the fifth, seventh, eighth, ninth and tenth districts is individually larger than the Democratic in the first, second, third, fourth or sixth.

This western vote moved the women from that division to remark a few nights ago at the Democratic banquet that things have been boosted not a little by the women's vote. Four of five of the women reminded the bittersiders that when the progressive women asked for the suffrage the men reminded them that woman suffrage would ruin the party. Two years ago the women gave the party its greatest majority at a time when the country was registering the greatest adverse vote. This year the women made the majority in an effort that has not occurred in many years. Which moved Chairman Jones Fuller to remark that he believed the majority is right when he knew that it is not.

The 1922 vote is a woman's ballot and the western counties where the women, even as the men, take their ballots seriously, is the woman suffrage demonstration.

SIX MONTHS' ROAD SENTENCE SUSPENDED FOR FULLER—$250 FINE SUBSTITUTED

W. W. Fuller, who was arrested about two weeks ago following an accident which was believed to have been caused from the intoxication of either Fuller or the woman, who gave her name as Mrs. E. V. Harris, came before Judge D. H. Collins in court yesterday morning and was sentenced to six months on the county roads. But that judgment was suspended with the paying of a fine of $250 upon the condition that he drive no more automobiles while drunk.

The woman, who has been identified by the police as Mrs. G. R. Pittard, 205 North Davis street, but who nevertheless was freed under the name of Mrs. Harris, had judgment suspended with the payment of this costs on the conviction of a charge of being drunk and disorderly. She was at first charged with operating an automobile while drunk, but evaded the trial by fleeing the jurisdiction, she was actually driving the car. Outside the court room she has said she was driving and Fuller said he was driving, according to the police. Collins said that Judge Stone had a notion after the trial that he had no idea whether Fuller or Mrs. Pittard was actually driving at the time of the accident.

Spencer E. Adams, Jr., whose car the pair collided with in the Ford belonging to G. R. Pittard, stated that Fuller got out of the car on the opposite side from the steering wheel and he could not swear that he had been operating the machine. In fact, he could not say who was driving when the Ford hit this automobile.

Judge Adams asked the young man who notified the police on the night of the accident, appeared for the woman. He succeeded in having the case closed, and the judge said convincingly that two persons were not operating the automobile at the same time. It was generally believed shortly after the arrest that Judge Adams might be called as the main prosecutor, and when he appeared as attorney for the woman, to cross examine his own son, a ripple of surprise ran over the courtroom.

Neither Fuller nor Mrs. Pittard took the witness stand. E. D. Broadhouse, for the defense, made much over the fact that the police placed their families and friends to a bond could be arranged. Chief Crutchfield stated that he did not believe either was in a condition to be given freedom on the night of the arrest. Judge Collins told a Daily News reporter yesterday afternoon that G. R. Pittard came to his office the day after the arrest complaining of that same fact, but after Mr. Pittard had named that the woman gave the name of Mrs. E. V. Harris, of Charlotte, he understood that it was him, and he called the police to notify him. Mr. Pittard was in the court room yesterday with the defendant.

It is said that Fuller has a wife and several children in Charlotte. During the trial yesterday numerous reliable character witnesses were placed on the stand who swore that Fuller was a man of good moral standing, and that drinking was not his habit. It was also stated that he had supported several members of his family for a number of years while they were sick with tuberculosis.

Because of the previous character of Fuller and the uncertainty as to which one was actually driving the car on the night of the arrest, Judge Collins placed in the case two men instead of a road sentence. He remarked, however, that his former statement that any person convicted of operating an automobile while under the influence of liquor was in for a jail sentence held good.

NEITHER TAKES STAND NEEDS OF THE SCHOOL

The $100,000 campaign for St. Mary's school, which was formally started yesterday in many cities through North and South Carolina, received its initial impetus at a luncheon at the O. Henry ballroom yesterday attended by nearly 60 alumnae of the institution, together with a few friends and invited guests.

Arranged by Mrs. Hiram Bell, who is in charge of the work in this part of the state, the luncheon developed into an inspiring story of the needs of the school and the plans for the future and the methods adopted by the alumnae to carry out those plans. Talks on the subject were made by Judge W. P. Bynum, who presided, by Prof. William E. Stone, of the school faculty, formerly a resident of Greensboro, and by Mrs. Mary Settle Sharpe.

For the next two weeks opportunities will be given to alumnae to contribute to the $100,000 fund, the campaign to close December 15. There are 5,000 of those daughters of the school scattered throughout 47 states, but majority live in the two Carolinas. It is desired that each alumnae give $100, the sum to be extended over four years at the rate of $40 a year. Of the $100,000 the sum of $40,000 is to be added to the present endowment of approximately $60,000, and the remainder of the sum raised is to go to a science hall, a Junior and Senior center, a new library building. The possible development of the institution was described by Prof. Stone in detail. The school management would make of St. Mary's a junior-senior school, such that any scholar who graduates may enter any university or woman's college without examination and complete the work in two years. At present it appears that $20,000 should be available, not quite attain it. In order to attain it the endowment must reach $100,000, there must be a modern building for scientific work, five teachers of college subjects, a library of 5,000 volumes and other improvements.

Both Judge Bynum and Prof. Stone pointed out the unquestioned needs of St. Mary's now. An increase to the endowment is regarded as essential. The teaching of science is now confined to two class rooms and manager equipment. Congestion throughout the school can be relieved partly by the erection of a Junior and senior hall, and there is need, the speakers said, for additions to the infirmary.

"We do not want to be too large," Prof. Stone said, "but we do want to increase the efficiency of the work for our pupils. That is essential; we cannot do less. He told in simple, strong language of the long and honorable history of St. Mary's, of the spirit of those who made the school possible and of the responsibility of the alumnae."

Judge Bynum told of the power of the alumnae if they would apply themselves to the task. He traced alumni efforts for the university, for Trinity Davidson and other institutions, and appealed for the daughters of St. Mary's to rally around their school.

In beautiful language and with spirit and charm Mrs. Mary Settle Sharpe told of the call of the school to its daughters. She saw wonderful benefit to girls in attending such a school, and she saw in the present campaign such an opportunity as comes seldom to women anywhere.

INDIGESTION RELIEVED WITH NEW CORDIAL

Indigestion and its attendant ills such as dyspepsia, heart-burn, sour stomach, flatulence, dizziness, diarrhoea, colic, cholera morbus, chronic constipation, gas, etc., and even sick, nervous headaches are directly traceable to disorders in the digestive organs and can now be quickly relieved with new cordial called "Anti-Ferment," originated by a druggist and recommended by physicians.

The food soours before it is fully digested, thus putting into solution toxic poisons that are absorbed into the system, irritating the intestines and setting up inflammation. To avoid this you simply have to prevent fermentation by using Anti-Ferment.

Anti-Ferment neutralizes the acid condition of the stomach, cleanses and sweetens the bowels, soothes and heals the inflamed intestines and increases the flow of gastric juices, giving quick and certain relief. Get a bottle of Anti-Ferment from your druggist with a guarantee of satisfactory results or money refunded. It will improve your appetite, give you restful sleep and make you feel better than you ever felt in your life.—(Adv.)

HOW TO GET BACK THE "JOY OF LIFE"

SAVAGE FIGHT PUT UP BY FIREMEN AIDED BY SOME NEARBY TOWNS

The fire spread along the river front consuming the Royster Ferrokil warehouse, the Norfolk Southern paint sheds and one or two other structures in its path. At the end of Pasture street and along Crescent street the fire made its last stand, unable to leap across the gap of empty blocks which separated it from the next row of houses.

After having been apparently subdued, the flames burst forth anew directly west of George street and threatened St. Luke's hospital and the Tabernacle Baptist church. The heroic work of the combined fire departments, however, brought the flames under control at that point.

A dozen or more persons, white and negroes, have been treated at the hospital for painful burns and other injuries. It is not believed that any of these injuries will prove fatal. Patients were taken from both the Fairview and New Bern General hospitals and removed to Christ church parish house. The Stewart sanitarium was burned to the ground.

Started in Negro's Home.

The disaster originated in the home of W. D. Bryan, negro, starting in the kitchen. Dynamite was discharged repeatedly during the course of the fire in the efforts to hold back the fire, but it proved to be of little worth.

New Bern tonight is turning its attention to relieving the homeless. Empty warehouses, church rooms and the Y. M. C. A., with scores of private homes, have been thrown open to the victims. In spite of this aid there were many who spent the night in the open, covering themselves with mattresses and blankets.

Railroad traffic through the city has been completely suspended.

Telegraph communication has been paralyzed and the telephone alone remains the only means of outside communication.

Shack Formerly Used by Medical School Goes Up in Smoke After Midnight.

(Special to Daily News.)

Chapel Hill, Dec. 1.—A small wooden shack on the south edge of the campus formerly used by the medical school and known to all Carolinians as a "stiff house" has been destroyed by a fire which broke out at midnight last night. The origin of the fire is unknown, but since it took place in connection with a jubilation at the football victory over Virginia it is common talk here that the building was used to make a bonfire. It had recently been used as a store room for miscellaneous building materials.

NO MORE ITALIANS WILL BE ADMITTED

Country's Quota of Immigrants For the Fiscal Year Has Been Exhausted.

New York, Dec. 1.—Immigrants from Italy will not be permitted to enter the United States until after Jan. 30, it was announced by immigration officials today. The 14,665 immigrants who arrived on the Italian steamers Giuseppe Verdi and Conte Rosso early today exhausted the quota of immigrants for the fiscal year.

The vessels raced across the Atlantic to get immigration preference, but their race ended in a tie, both ships reaching the United States in less than two hours. The Conte Rosso, an Italian steamer, was the first to arrive in New York. The monthly quota was divided proportionately between them, the Giuseppe Verdi being 149 in excess and the Conte Rosso 138.

Immigration officials said numerous exemptions from the law would not be handled by a preference system, wives and children of naturalized citizens and of former residents being admitted first.

It was explained that the 1922-23 quota was the highest the law permitted it to be, because of the war the first five months of the fiscal year.

COLDS THAT DEVELOP INTO PNEUMONIA

Chronic coughs and persistent colds lead them now with Creomulsion, an emulsified concentrate that is pleasant to take. Creomulsion is a new medicinal discovery with two-fold action: it soothes and heals the inflamed membranes and kills the germ.

Of all known drugs, creosote is recognized by the medical profession as the greatest healing agency for the treatment of chronic coughs and colds and other forms of throat and lung troubles. Creomulsion contains, in addition to creosote, other healing elements which soothe and heal the inflamed membranes and stop the irritation while the creosote goes on to the stomach, is absorbed into the blood, attacks the seat of the trouble and destroys the germs that lead to consumption.

Creomulsion is guaranteed satisfactory in the treatment of chronic coughs and colds, bronchial asthma, catarrhal bronchitis and other forms of throat and lung diseases, and is excellent for building up the system after colds or flu. Money refunded if any cough or cold, no matter how long standing, is not relieved after taking according to directions. Ask your druggist Creomulsion Co., Atlanta, Ga.—(Adv.)

The CALORIC HEATS THEM ALL

Homes, stores, churches, factories—all over the country—are being heated more comfortably and at less cost with the Caloric pipeless furnace.

The Caloric delivers practically 100% of the heat from the fuel directly into your rooms, and at the same time withdraws the cool air from the building. This establishes a natural air circulation, with the result that the building is heated more uniformly and fuel consumption is cut 1/5 to 1/2. There are now OVER 135,000 CALORIC USERS —in every state in the Union, in Canada, Alaska—and many in this locality.

Here a word of warning. Caloric success has been so revolutionary that it has aroused opposition from those who profit from making and selling out-of-date heating systems. The result is that many imitation pipeless furnaces have been put out which are failures. Be not misled by these failures. Most of them were designed to be failures—and have been marketed in vain attempts to discredit the rapidly-growing Caloric idea.

The Caloric is a 100% success—proven so by its record through years of making good—and by the guarantee of "satisfaction or money back" under which we sell it.
