KIWANIANS WILL ELECT OFFICERS
Principal Business to Come Before Today's Luncheon Meeting.
AT O. HENRY HOTEL
The Greensboro Kiwanian Club will hold its last meeting of the year 1922 in the O. Henry hotel ball room today at 1 o'clock, and besides the annual election of officers there will be many matters of interest to come up for discussion. The notices sent out to members urge that there be a really 100 per cent attendance at today's luncheon.
Among other things there will be oral boasts by Kiwanians Jim McClamroch and Will Transou, while the silent boost will be given by Kiwanian Jack Starmer. The election of officers will be the chief incident of today's meeting, though there will be other topics discussed that will appeal to every Kiwanian. The nominating of the 1923 officers occurred at the last meeting, and the selection of officials for next year is exciting a great deal of interest among the members.

The International President's Christmas Appeal
"Not what we give but what we share,
For the gift without the giver is bare,
Who gives himself with his alms feeds three,
Himself, his hungry neighbor, and Me."
—Lowell.
AS THE CHRISTMAS season draws near it is but fitting that we Kiwanians, men of like mind and common purpose, should turn our thoughts to those less fortunate than ourselves. We should devise a definite and practical scheme, through the operation of which there will be carried on Christmas Eve into the homes of the needy, some of the true Kiwanian spirit. Last year Kiwanians responded splendidly to call for "personal service" in the matter of Christmas cheer. It is no exaggeration to say that as a result thousands upon thousands of families who would otherwise have spent a dreary and disappointing Christmas Day were made happy beyond words. The hearts of the poor and unfortunate are just as tender, if not more so, than the hearts of those blessed with worldly comforts. No Kiwanian can fully realize the bitter disappointment of parents who find it impossible to do the little things that would make their children feel themselves indeed a part of a world throbbing with good fellowship and merriment. Must these unfortunate parents be compelled to pass the greatest of all days with aching hearts, with tears in their eyes instead of smiles? Think, too, of the cruel disillusionment of the wee kiddies themselves, when their stockings are found empty and they can only conclude that Santa Claus has forgotten them. Let us one and all play Santa Claus in very truth. Let us seek to emulate Him who is the Light of the World and carry our lights, though of lesser brightness, into homes where distress and poverty prevail, there to grasp the shadow, roll it back, and put the true Christmas spirit into the hearts of men. Let us through kindness tune ears dulled by adversity to catch, despite earth's vagrant noise, the divine music of the angels as they sing on Christmas morn. May the souls be touched, join the swelling chorus, and with fervor and new understanding sing—
"Glory to God in the Highest,
On Earth Peace,
Good Will Towards Men."
—Kiwanian Magazine.

KIWANIANS HELP UNDERPRIVILEGED
Laudable Undertaking Being Worked Out In An Intelligent Way.
TO AID UNFORTUNATE
Members of the Kiwanian Club of Greensboro have every reason to feel proud of the organization's achievements during the year about to close, for under the leadership of President W. Y. Preyer the club has made itself felt in many ways as a community builder and helper. Not a public question of any kind has come up but that the Kiwanians have been active participants, and in every enterprise for the development of the community spirit and the welfare of the citizens of this place members of this club have been in the thick of the fight.
Truly the Kiwanian spirit has manifested itself in various ways whenever the occasion arose, but probably the most important work that the Kiwanians have ever undertaken is their determination to see that the underprivileged child is given a square deal. This big question occupied a conspicuous place on the program of the International convention in Toronto, Canada, last summer, and acting upon suggestions made there and by Kiwanians here and throughout the country, the members of the Greensboro Kiwanian club have started a movement that is bound to prove a wonderful boon to the unfortunate child, who otherwise would surely have been neglected as in the past.

Make It Wise!
It's best to keep a smile!
For a smile's a kind of net
That catches by legullin'
Just the thing it wants to get.
So keep your smile a spreadin'
Crack a jolly joke or two
And you'll find that things come headin'
Straight for smilin' folks like you.
—Poughkeepsie, N. Y.

BULLETIN.
Today:
O. Henry Hotel.
One o'clock—sharp.
Election of officers for 1923 and other matters.
Oral boasts by Jim McClamroch and Will Transou.
Silent boost by Jack Starmer.
Make it a 100 per cent attendance meeting. Kiwanians.

Democracy depends upon the goodness and intelligence of its citizens. Our national welfare is imperiled by selfishness and ignorance. The perils of selfishness are due to the choice of unworthy ends, such as the advantage of individuals, classes or parties at the expense of the remainder of the people. The perils of ignorance are due to the choice of unwise means for the accomplishment of ends, good or otherwise. To build citizenship we must build goodness and intelligence. Our great American, Lincoln, said, "Under God—government of the people, by the people and for the people, shall not perish from the earth." In our efforts to build citizenship we dare not forget that word, "Under God." Kiwanian builds citizenship for it constantly holds before its members lofty ideals and motives and by its lectures and discussions banishes ignorance and disseminates light. Kiwanian builds citizenship!

The bird who is a mickler all ways has a lot of friends & looks ahead to pleasures, when his day of working ends. Fokes like to say hello to him when meeting on the street, & smiles from friends were learned to love in what makes living sweet. Keewannis stands for mickling—the hand clasp & the smile—the things that money cannot buy—that make our lives worth while—Punkin.

Fellow Kiwanians.
—That Christmas may bring you and your unparalleled pleasure in the delight of those dear to you; that you may find an opportunity to help one of humble state; that you may really feel the greater glory of the giver; that you may receive a multitude of loving remembrances; that your heart and board may see again a circle of complete joy is the wish of The Atlanta Kiwanian Club.

Oh, Ye of Little Faith.
"John," said the teacher, "if coal is selling at $14 a ton and you pay the dealer $65, how many tons will he send you?"
"A little over three tons, ma'am."
"Why, John, that is not right."
"No, ma'am, I know it ain't right, but they all do it."

Oh, I Say.
"Do you know why you have so little money?" the gossip orator demanded.
"Yep. 'Cause we waste so much time listening to fool talk when we should be working," responded the man who was beginning to get his brain working.
Kiwanian civic activities should be directed to causes, rather than results.
