upon which such sales are permis-ticle. So-called "inside" information can be always accepted without re-serve. An odd instance of this de-veloped in the office of a prominent brokerage concern today with refer-ence to the advartised deal between Pond Creek Cosl and the Ford in-terests. One customer bought Pond Creek Cosl today bocause he had ab-solute assurance that the deal with the Detroit magnate was going through. Another elient sold it on the equally postive assertion from the Ford camp that the deal was all off.
