

Woman's Realm

Telephone 1001

Weddings, Club Meetings, Card Parties, Personals

Misses Vanstort Entertained

Misses Virginia and Katherine Vanstort entertained a number of their young friends on Tuesday and Wednesday nights at their home on North Elm street. Progressive conversation and dancing were thoroughly enjoyed by the young folks participating on each evening, and punch, orange ice, caramel cake and peanuts were served.

The house was lovely with its Christmas decorations of red and green, quantities of holly, ferns, red lighted candles and poinsettias being used with charming effect.

Among those invited to Miss Virginia's party were: Misses Mary Thurman, Audrey Johnson, Tommy Crawford, Robert Bishop, Howard Myers, Charles Blackwood, Wallace Scates, Wendell Clem, Max Fifer, Shelton Stubbs, William Ham, Frank Stone, Joe McIntire, Kenneth Maddox, Howard Wimshis, and William Scott.

The list of guests at Miss Katherine's party included: Misses Margaret Garner, Margaret High, Sadie Clement, Mary Lyon Leak, Clara Carburn, Wilma Shaw, Margaret Tilley, Sarah Ferguson, Dion Armfield, Margaret Harrison, Rose Schachner, Catherine Duffy, Elizabeth Wilson, Dorothy Lee, Mary Franklin, Mattie Robinson, Louise McCulloch, Ruth

Simpson, Francis Leak, Messrs. Edgar Kuykendall, Tom Cochran, Max Albright, Saunders Ogburn, David Swift, Billy Trotter, Thomas McLean, Harry Gump, Troy Ziglar, Claude Kendall, Spencer Causy, Tatum Spangar, Fred Spangar, James Ross, George Stone, Lee Vanstort, Bryon Grubba, and W. C. Murchison.

Captain W. H. Higgins Honored

Captain W. H. Higgins, of Fort Monroe, Va., who is visiting his parents, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Higgins, of 782 Keogh street, over the holidays was the guest of honor Wednesday evening at a reception and dance given by his sister, Miss Marion Higgins, and Mr. and Mrs. George B. Trench of Los Angeles, Calif., who received the guests at the tea garden, corner Davis and East Market streets.

The decorations were suggestive of the Christmas season, with a color scheme of green, red, pink, and white. A delightful musical program was rendered during the evening and dancing was enjoyed.

At the conclusion, a delicious salad course and refreshments were served by Miss Marion Higgins.

Assisting in serving were: Mr. and Mrs. George B. Trench of Los Angeles, Calif.; Misses Marion Ray, Florence Ray, Maria Cook and Grace Salomon. Those enjoying the delightful evening were: Captain W. H. Higgins, guest of honor; Mr. and Mrs. George B. Trench of Los Angeles, Calif.; Misses Marion Ray, Florence Ray, Maria Cook and Grace Salomon. Those enjoying the delightful evening were: Captain W. H. Higgins, guest of honor; Mr. and Mrs. George B. Trench of Los Angeles, Calif.; Misses Marion Ray, Florence Ray, Maria Cook and Grace Salomon.

night honoring Mrs. D. L. Brooks of Washington, D.C. and Miss Lillian Rascoe, of Raleigh.

Their new home on McGee street was lovely in its Christmas decorations, and the place cards were also suggestive of the Christmas season. The high score prize, a deck of cards in a leather case, was won by Mr. Cobb, and the low score prize, also a deck of cards, was presented to Miss Blanche Keiger. The honor guests were each presented with flowers.

Among the out-of-town guests were Mrs. J. Wilson, of Winston-Salem and Mrs. B. D. Staley, of Chambersburg, Pa. At the conclusion of the evening delicious refreshments were served.

Miss McMill Guest of Honor. During the holiday season the young social set of the city seems to be doing most of the entertaining. While there have been a number of social functions among the older set, they have partaken mostly of the nature of very small informal bridge parties or family dinners.

Miss Jennie Wilkie McMill, of Greenville, S. C. who is the guest of Mrs. Dorothy Lee, has consolation for quite a bit of excitement. On Wednesday evening Miss Lee entertained 30 of her young friends at the delightful formal dance at the Haymire Tea room.

The tea room was artistic in its decorations of holly and other Christmas greenery, and the young folks had a delightful time, charmed by the mother of the young hostess, Mrs. L. R. Lee, and Mrs. E. A. Brown.

During the evening punch and water were served. Yesterday afternoon Miss Mary Lyon gave a theater party, honoring Mrs. McMill at the National theater. Her guests included Miss McMill, Mrs. Dorothy Lee, Mrs. Constance Broadhurst, and Miss Niles Murray.

On Saturday afternoon, Miss Niles Murray will give a rook party, honoring Miss McMill, and Saturday night Billy Hidenhour will entertain in her home.

Mrs. Ray Bond Honored

Mrs. Ray Bond, formerly of Ohio, who is spending the holidays with her parents in Charlotte, was the guest of honor yesterday morning at a delightful bridge party when Miss Eubank entertained at five tables of bridge.

The entire house was beautiful with Christmas decorations of holly, mistletoe, running cedar, Christmas bells and cut flowers. The high score prize, a dainty vanity, was won by Mrs. Raymond Hall, and the consolation, a bridge score pad, was presented to Mrs. Z. V. Johnson. The honorees were given prizes, a beautiful leather address book to one and a box of powder to the other.

Mrs. Mable Aas assisted in serving a delicious salad course by Misses Olivia Mobley, Miss Carolyn Ogg and Mrs. A. A. Giles.

The list of guests included: Messrs. Raymond Hall, T. P. Williams, J. L. Jennings, J. N. Benton, P. H. Lyon, C. A. Raine, E. Ashby, Jones, T. L. Patrick, C. N. Mahan, E. B. Young, E. V. Johnson, A. T. Jefferson, A. R. Crowell, Maya Worster, Zack Whitaker, Ella, F. W. Denny, and Misses Octavia Mahan, Agnes and Eva Martin of Greensboro.

Mr. and Mrs. Estes Entertained. Mr. and Mrs. A. J. Estes delightfully entertained at bridge Tuesday

EPISCOPALIANS AND CZECHS ARE UNITING

It Means Another Step Toward Unity of Protestant Episcopalians and Orthodox Czechs.

Chicago, Dec. 28.—Another step toward church unity is seen in the affiliation by the Protestant Episcopal church with the more than 1,000,000 members of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in the United States, the result of conferences between Bishop Gorazd Pavlik of the Czechoslovak church, and Bishop Thomas F. Gailor, president of the Episcopal National Council and the foreign born division of the department of missions.

The council adopted a resolution in which assurance was given that "we will communicate with our bishops through declarations of the Czechoslovak orthodox church live and urge them to provide the sacraments and pastoral care for those in such places where it may be difficult or impossible to obtain a priest of the Czechoslovak church."

Desire also was expressed that the Czechoslovak church minister in like manner to communicants of the Episcopal church visiting or residing in Czechoslovakia.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

PERSONALS

Mrs. J. M. Smith and her son and daughter left Tuesday for a Christmas holiday visit to Mrs. L. B. Cole in Kissimmee, Fla.

J. C. Hobbs is visiting friends and relatives at AUSTIN, TEX. and Atlanta, Ga. He made the trip from Greensboro by automobile.

Reece Harry, who has been spending the holidays at Wilmington, has returned to the city.

Miss Nancy North has returned to Greensboro after spending the Christmas holidays with friends in New York.

Mrs. N. W. Lanier, of Cid, is visiting her daughter, Mrs. T. C. Crutchfield, 605 Fifth avenue.

Mr. and Mrs. William Joyce, of Danbury, are guests in the city Wednesday night.

Mr. and Mrs. A. P. Noel have returned from Washington, D. C., where they spent the Christmas holidays with Mrs. Noel's relatives.

Dr. J. L. Moore, of Washington, D. C., who has been visiting his brother, J. C. Moore on Gorell street, has returned to his home.

Clyde Ellis left Wednesday night for his home in Atlanta, after spending several days here with friends.

G. G. Cromer, of Charlotte, who has been spending the Christmas holidays here, has returned to his home.

Lynn Price has returned to his home in Atlanta, after spending the Christmas holidays with friends here.

Mrs. J. P. McAdams, of Salisbury, was a shopping visitor here yesterday.

Leon Milton, of Pittsburgh, Pa., is spending the holidays here as the guest of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Milton, on Asheboro street.

Miss Lavette Wright, who is spending the holidays with her parents, Mr. S. H. Holt, has returned to Greensboro, after a visit during the Christmas holidays to her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Wright, in Louisiana.

Mr. and Mrs. R. E. Weaver have returned from Fayetteville, where they spent the Christmas holidays with their daughter, Mrs. William T. Rainey.

Misses Helen and Virginia Prady, of Asheville, are the guests of Miss Ruth Hockett this week at her home with Mrs. J. G. Whitehead, on Vercy street.

Mrs. J. J. King and little daughter Annie D., are visiting relatives in Goldsboro.

Miss Clara E. Gant and M. William Gant, Jr., are in New York city spending the holidays. They will return after New Year.

Marion Gant and Kenneth Maddox, students at Porter Military academy, Charleston, S. C., are spending the holidays with their parents. They will be here till January 8.

Miss Lila Callum left yesterday for Henderson to visit Miss Josephine Rose and to attend two dances there.

Mrs. E. B. Rieraon, of Bluefield, W. Va., is visiting her sister, Mrs. Humphrey, on Hilliard street.

Miss Myrtle Willoughby, who was yesterday for Charlotte, to attend the interfraternity dance there last night.

Miss Marguerite Meadows left yesterday for Charlotte, to attend the interfraternity dance there last night.

Miss Myrtle Willoughby, who was yesterday for Charlotte, to attend the interfraternity dance there last night.

Miss Myrtle Willoughby, who was yesterday for Charlotte, to attend the interfraternity dance there last night.

Miss Myrtle Willoughby, who was yesterday for Charlotte, to attend the interfraternity dance there last night.

Miss Myrtle Willoughby, who was yesterday for Charlotte, to attend the interfraternity dance there last night.

Miss Myrtle Willoughby, who was yesterday for Charlotte, to attend the interfraternity dance there last night.

Hill Wants Uphaw's Charges Investigated by a Committee

Washington, Dec. 28.—Representative Hill, Republican, Maryland, announced today that he was preparing a resolution calling for an investigation of "charges" by Representative Uphaw, Democrat, Georgia, that members of Congress, high government officials and governors had "violated the Volstead act while claiming to enforce it."

Mr. Hill made this statement: "Representative Uphaw orally on the floor of the house and by newspaper statements recently made definite charges that members of Congress, governors of states, and other officials had recently violated the Volstead act while claiming to enforce it."

"These charges are so serious a reflection on the whole membership of the house of representatives that I am preparing and will file in a few days a resolution requiring Mr. Uphaw to produce his evidence before the Judiciary committee of the house and requiring that committee of which Mr. Volstead is chairman to investigate Mr. Uphaw's wholesale reflections on the integrity of the members of Congress."

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

The rapprochement was brought about through declarations of the Czechoslovakian church at ecclesiastical mass meetings held in Prague, that its dogmatic standards had the Anglican communion, and the fact that Bishop Pavlik was regularly consecrated by the Serbian orthodox church, whose orders are recognized by the Anglican churches as apostolic.

Following a memorial from Bishop Pavlik urging "mutual fellowship of our respective churches," the agreement provided that the Episcopal department of missions shall "keep in vital and intimate touch with the situation, need and development of the Czechoslovak orthodox church in Europe and America."

666 quickly relieve Colds and L.A. Grippe, Constipation, Biliousness and Headaches.

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

Flowers Plants Floral Designs Phone 855 Duffy Greenhouses Opposite O. Henry Hotel

PNEUMONIA Call a physician. Then begin "emergency" treatment with VICK'S VAPORUB Over 17 Million Uses Yearly

WEAK WOMEN ATTENTION If you suffer with FEMALE TROUBLES, such as Ovarian Pains, Pains in the lower part of your stomach, Backache, Painful or Irregular Periods, Nervous and run-down feeling as common to women. If you have tried all kinds of medicines and doctors, and even though you have been told that an operation was necessary, YOU MAY BE MADE WELL AND STRONG AGAIN. Write for FREE booklet of information and advice today. THE PELVO MEDICINE CO. Dept. C1 Memphis, Tenn.

CHAMBERLAIN'S COUGH REMEDY FOR THE RELIEF OF Coughs, Colds, Croup, WHOOPING COUGH, HOARSENESS, BRONCHITIS -SOLD EVERYWHERE-

100 COATS After Xmas Prices Reduced to 1/3 to 1/2 Original Price 25 Coats $65.00 35 Coats $45.00 10 Coats $55.00 25 Coats $25.00 Some are trimmed with Beaver, Squirrel, Caracul, Fox, and Wolf. While others are plain and self-trimmed. All the latest and best materials CABANISS, Inc.

WEDDING AT DURHAM Miss Myrtle Willoughby becomes Bride of David Milton Beardsley. (Special to Daily News) Durham, Dec. 28.—A lovely wedding was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Myrtle Willoughby became the bride of David Milton Beardsley, of Salisbury. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rosa Willoughby, Rev. Ewing of Branson church, officiated. The home was beautifully decorated with palm trees and lighted tapers. An improvised altar, at which the vows were spoken, was erected in the parlor.

WELKER-McCLINTOCK WEDDING. Miss Ethel M. Welker, of 446 Bellevue street, and Charles R. McClintock, of Sanford, were united in marriage at 5 o'clock last night at the parsonage of the First Reformed church, by the pastor, Rev. H. A. Fesperman.

TO ENTERTAIN SUNDAY SCHOOL CLASS. Miss Sara Britton will entertain the members of her Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church, this morning from 10:30 to 12, at her home on East Fisher avenue. Games of various kinds will be played and stories told the little folks and each will be given a miniature Santa Claus and a favor filled with candy.

SHARP-SHARP. Miss Ella Glenn Sharp and Alfred W. Sharp were united in marriage at 5 o'clock on the afternoon of December 27 at the residence of Justice of the Peace E. F. Paschal, who performed the ceremony. Only a few friends and relatives were present. The bride is the daughter of D. R. Sharp, of Rockingham county, and is a young woman of charm and personality. The groom is the son of James M. Sharp, also of Rockingham county. They will make their home in Greensboro.

WEDDING AT DURHAM Miss Myrtle Willoughby becomes Bride of David Milton Beardsley. (Special to Daily News) Durham, Dec. 28.—A lovely wedding was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Myrtle Willoughby became the bride of David Milton Beardsley, of Salisbury. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rosa Willoughby, Rev. Ewing of Branson church, officiated. The home was beautifully decorated with palm trees and lighted tapers. An improvised altar, at which the vows were spoken, was erected in the parlor.

WEDDING AT DURHAM Miss Myrtle Willoughby becomes Bride of David Milton Beardsley. (Special to Daily News) Durham, Dec. 28.—A lovely wedding was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Myrtle Willoughby became the bride of David Milton Beardsley, of Salisbury. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rosa Willoughby, Rev. Ewing of Branson church, officiated. The home was beautifully decorated with palm trees and lighted tapers. An improvised altar, at which the vows were spoken, was erected in the parlor.

WEDDING AT DURHAM Miss Myrtle Willoughby becomes Bride of David Milton Beardsley. (Special to Daily News) Durham, Dec. 28.—A lovely wedding was solemnized Tuesday afternoon at 4 o'clock when Miss Myrtle Willoughby became the bride of David Milton Beardsley, of Salisbury. The wedding took place at the home of the bride's mother, Mrs. Rosa Willoughby, Rev. Ewing of Branson church, officiated. The home was beautifully decorated with palm trees and lighted tapers. An improvised altar, at which the vows were spoken, was erected in the parlor.

WEDDING AT DURHAM Miss Myrtle Willoughby becomes Bride of David Milton Beardsley.